Webfooters Doped to Lose to Husky Squad

EUGENE, Ore., May 5. (AP)—Heavy rainfall for the past two days has served to check the training work of the University of Oregon track team, working toward the dual meet with the University of Washington here Saturday. Today the rain was continuing and there was little hope for a workout this afternoon.

In addition to the handicap of rainfall, the injury list is working. Victor Wetzel, Oregon's hope in the javelin and discus events, is laid up with a bad arm. He first injured the arm in the meet with Stanford earlier in the spring and the other day he added to the injury, so that his competing in this event here Saturday is held very doubtful.

Tom Holder, standby two miler, is suffering from a bad ankle but there is some hope that he may get into the race Saturday.

The Oregon team's prospects of taking many events are held somewhat in doubt by the fans here.

Science, experience, skill, facilities and capital are necessary to make good motor fuel.

"Union Oil of California" includes all of the requirements in the manufacture of

Union Gasoline

Non-detonating

Union Gasoline provides, and always has provided to Western motorists, the non-detonating feature which supplies full power to the pistons throughout their entire stroke and eliminates all explosive "knocking" or "pinging" on the hills or in heavy pulling—a quality for which Eastern motorists are now buying "special gasolines" and paying 3 cents per gallon in excess of usual prices for them. Yet Union costs no more than other high grade fuels.

Always use Aristo Motor Oil with non-detonating Union Gasoline because this combination minimizes carbon to the extent that motors in good condition are run for several years without it.

INTEREST IN CARD GROWING

With the return match between Rocco Stramaglia, strapping Portland leather pusher, and Buster Adams, Boise puncher, both fighting in the 170-pound class, due tomorrow evening, interest in the affair is growing, according to officials of the La Grande Athletic club, sponsoring the event.

Most fight fans are looking forward to an exciting main event, with each man extending himself to get a pronounced edge over his opponent. The recent decision Adams won over Stramaglia didn't set very well on the Rose City lad's shoulders and he wants revenge. Buster is quite confident that he can get him reverse revenge.

Earl Stolz, 142, of Bend, and Delmer Allen, 143, of La Grande, are expected to make things hum in the semi-final. The card will have 25 rounds of boxing and will be staged at Rex hall.

Rocco arrived in La Grande today on Train 24 and Buster will be here before night. Stolz is driving from Bend and should arrive here tomorrow morning.

Reports this morning are that Allen kayeod an opponent at Umatilla last night in the third round.

Billy Evans Says:

EAST VERSUS WEST

That there is little if any difference between the athletes of the east and west, is indicated by the marks hung up at the Drake and Penn games recently staged.

A majority of the Drake entries were from western colleges, while eastern athletes predominated at Penn.

Track conditions at the Drake relays were bad, due to much rain; as a result much better time was made at Penn.

In the four feature relays, the half-mile, two-mile, three-mile and four-mile, the easterners turned in the better marks.

However, in the field events, the westerners as usual topped the best showing of the Penn athletes in most of them.

Roland Locke's record of 9.5 seconds for the 100 yards was easily the most sensational performance of the day.

Summing up the showing made at the two meets proves it was about a 50-50 proposition as to superiority.

9.5 seconds stands alone. Due to the fact that he had the wind at his back, it may not be allowed. In all probability no one will argue that the slow track offset the advantage of the strong wind that was blowing.

In this connection I recall a remark that the late Mike Murphy once made to me. At that time he had charge of track at University of Pennsylvania.

"I really think it physically impossible for any sprinter to cover 100 yards in better than 10 seconds," said Murphy.

"It is my belief that any marks under that figure should be credited to faulty timing rather than unusual ability."

It will be interesting to see what Locke does in the 100-yard dash at the National Collegiate championships in June.

DERBY ELIGIBLES
Not in years has there been so much interest in the Kentucky derby, due largely to the fact that the race seems far more open than usual.

The news that Calaris, so-called "wonder horse," might not start has, of course, added much zest to the affair, since it removes one of the decidedly outstanding entries.

Down Kentucky way turf followers seem to think this is going to be a Bradley year.

The recent showing of Bubbling Over and Boot to Boot in finishing first and second in a field made up of Derby eligibles, has caused the stock of the E. B. Bradley stable to soar.

In fact, some of the experts are inclined to the opinion that Bradley colts will run one, two, three.

It will be a most amazing and unusual performance and yet it is possible.

That would be a most amazing and unusual performance and yet it is possible.

DISPUTED ADVANTAGE
Is a short right field in advantage or handicap to a home team?

The thought is occasioned by the rather short right field fence at the beautiful new Sportsmen's park in St. Louis.

The right field stands are 15 feet farther away than last year, but due to the fact that a 15-foot screen which was on top of the old wall has been removed, I don't believe the drive is as difficult.

It might be argued that since the home team plays 77 games on the field, it has a batting advantage if the team has a number of hitters who drive them to right field.

However, I believe the strain on the home team's pitching staff, more than nullifies any batting advantage should such a thing exist.

MAY BAR HOP.
LOS ANGELES, May 5. (AP)—Robert Weaver, member of the international A. A. U. committee, announced Tuesday he had assured A. A. U. officials in San Francisco that he would support their efforts to bar Charles Hoff, Norwegian pole vaulter, from competing here May 15 if Hoff persisted in his refusal to carry out his former program to show his wares in San Francisco.
