Party Compliments Visiting D. A. E. Women
Complimenting the visiting Daughters of the American Revolution, who are here for the annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, members of Grande Ronde chapter of La Grande, entertained at a tea Tuesday afternoon from 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. Murray Ingie following the afternoon session of the convention.

Most of the state officers and department chairmen of the Oregon federation were among the thirty-five visiting members of the D. A. E. in attendance.

Bouquets of lovely spring flowers were tastefully arranged about the rooms of the Ingie home. Mrs. William Miller and Mrs. Ed Kiddie poured. Mrs. Husey, regent of the local organization, and Mr. Margaret Ingie received. Assisting were Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp, Mrs. Earl Reynolds and Mrs. Ray Williams.

Missionary Rally Held at Church

A missionary rally of the sixth district of the Christian church was held at the Christian church here yesterday, presided over by Mrs. Anna Klotzly, of Pendleton, president of this district. The morning session was called to order at 10:45 o'clock.

At noon luncheon was served in the church dining room by Mrs. J. B. Harvey Jr., Mrs. C. E. Duffy and Mrs. Forest Wilson, assisted by Mrs. C. W. Huntington and Mrs. Purdy. Covers were laid for fifty at a table decorated in a lavender and white color scheme. Seasonal flowers served as a centerpiece. Crepe paper streamers in the same colors added to the attractiveness of the room. A three-course luncheon was served.

The afternoon meeting started at 1:30 o'clock. The missionary program was interspersed with musical numbers. Mrs. Stanton C. Lapham and Mrs. E. L. McPherson sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. Audmer Phayis, violinist, and Mrs. Earl Hough at the piano. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell gave a short talk about Miss Kingsbury, who died recently after spending four years in India as a missionary. A trio, consisting of Mrs. George Anderson, Mrs. Walter Price and Mrs. Purdy, sang two numbers.

At the close of the rally at 4 o'clock the regular meeting of the missionary society was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ida French, for a short business meeting.

13 Tables of Cards In Play at Benefit

Thirteen tables of pinocle were at play last evening when Mrs. Lou Harris entertained at a benefit card party for the Women's Benefit association at her home on 117th street. The money from the party will be added to the rally fund, which will help defray the expenses of the Eastern Oregon rally of the W. B. A. to be held here Monday and Tuesday of next week. Headquarters will be at the Elks temple.

Mrs. B. M. Durland won high score among the lady players and Louis Standley received the gentlemen's prize at cards. A song and dance number by little Misses Meriel Webb and Ruth Maguire.

accompanied by Miss Marian Harris at the piano, was a delightful feature. Mrs. Christine Clark, district deputy of the association, gave several interesting readings and Bob and Eddie Harris played two violin numbers accompanied by Miss Marian Harris, pianist.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fannie Harrison, Mrs. J. Wade, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Alvah Crowley, Mrs. Frank Pike, Mrs. Coleman George, Mrs. Ralph Cunningham and Mrs. Pearl Beaman.

During the evening a beautiful luncheon set, donated by Mrs. Charles Erbe, was sold at auction to Mrs. Alvah Crowley.

Assist Baker in Installation

Monday evening about fourteen members of the Loyal Order of Moose and their families drove to Baker to attend the installation of officers of the Baker lodge. After the installation Dr. A. N. Mayville, of this city, was called upon for a short talk and responded.

Little Misses Elizabeth and Alice Jeanette Cooper, also of La Grande, gave several violin selections, accompanied by Miss Alma Lilly.

Following the program a banquet and dance were enjoyed.

Quaint Fah

This quaint fan, made entirely of flowers with a few silver leaves in the center, is a charming accessory for the debutante.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Grapefruit, cereal, thin cream, crisp toast, soft cooked eggs, crisp broiled bacon, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Asparagus short-cake, cottage cheese, whole wheat bread, rhubarb, bread pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Veal timbales, creamed carrots, head lettuce with Russian dressing, rice soufflé, graham rolls, milk, coffee.

The veal timbales are planned to use up some of the "left-over" of the roast suggested in the preceding menu. This is an interesting way to use up veal, chicken or ham. The meats can be used singly or in combination. A creamed vegetable of some sort prevents the meat from being too dry, serving as a sauce for the timbales as well as the vegetable of the dinner.

Veal Timbales

One cup chopped cooked veal, 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons soft stale bread crumbs, 1/2 cup milk, 2 teaspoons minced parsley, 2 eggs, salt and pepper.

The bread must be stale for the crumbs but no crust should be used. Melt butter, stir in crumbs and milk and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from fire and add meat, salt and pepper, parsley and eggs slightly beaten. Mix thoroughly and turn into well-buttered individual molds. Fill molds about two-thirds full. Put into a pan of hot water, cover with heavy buttered paper and bake 25 minutes in a hot oven. Remove from molds to a hot platter.

Convention Chitchat

"What is it?" inquired some of the delegates as they fingered the lumps of ore that weighed their napkins to the banquet tables last evening at Baker. But the Eastern Oregon quota of guests knew it was the famous Baker copper. They had heard of it before.

Did someone suggest that "Big-ger and Better Women for Oregon" might be adopted as the federation slogan?

"I like your La Grande men," smiled a venerable little white-haired federation officer after the cowboy breakfast this morning. "They are so young, and so good-looking, and so eager to do things for us."

Miniature sacks of Hard Federation wheat flour, compliments of the La Grande Milling company, were stacked in the lobby at convention headquarters today. Delegates read the labels and wondered.

Mrs. Emma Bryant, of Forest Grove, a candidate for Republican nomination for state superintendent of public instruction, was a visitor at the convention Wednesday.

The names of Mrs. Sallie Orr-Dunbar and Mrs. E. P. Mosseman are being supported by clubwomen who are participating in the vote upon four outstanding women in Oregon who have contributed the most to progress of women in the last 50 years, the president in the civic department, Mrs. Mosseman in the section of art, Mrs. Seymour Jones, of Salem, retiring regent of the Oregon chapter of D. A. E. and Miss Anne Lang, of The Dalles, vice president general, had asked the help of the federation in making the selection from Oregon for the hall of fame at Philadelphia during the sesquicentennial celebration of the Declaration of Independence.

Most Beautiful?

NEW YORK (AP)—Miss Louisa Clero, dress designer, is America's most beautiful woman in the opinion of Ernest Linnenkamp, Ziegfeld artist. Having discovered her, he has ended his quest for 15 American beauties. She is 19 years old, has blue eyes, weighs 127, is slender and swims for exercise. Her mother was Swedish and her father French, and if any Earl Carroll should ring the doorbell she would not be at home.

Garnish with sprigs of parsley and serve.

Earthenware custard cups can be used perfectly well if no other molds are at hand.

The creamed carrots can be poured around the timbales to serve if preferred.

Willows Worker Hurt When Crank Strikes

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special).—Marion McCrae, who is employed in the machine shop of the Howman-Hicks Lumber company here, was quite seriously injured early in the week when he was struck in the face with a crank which he was using to start a speeder owned by the company. The heavy crank struck with such a force that his nose was broken and his cheek bone badly shattered. Several teeth were also knocked out by the blow. It was at first feared that he had sustained a fracture of the skull; however, examination revealed that this was not the case. He is reported to be improving nicely at this time.

ZINNIAS IN ASSORTED SIZES
"Youth and Old Age" is the ancient popular name of the Zinnia. Its significance is now lost. It originally came from Mexico in single form and, according to authorities, there were no double zinnias seen in America until after the Civil war. Now, however, it is doubted to the center and the single forms are rigorously thrown away when they appear among seedlings.

The zinnia comes in assorted sizes from tiny buttons to huge globes of glowing color. The baby and adult forms justify the youth and old age name now even more than when it was applied to them. The latest development, which comes to us from California, is the dahlia-flowered form, the quilled petals relieving the huge blooms of some of their formality.

It is one of the most gorgeous and easily grown annuals of size. It is an excellent bedding plant whether the brilliant little buttons, not much over an inch across, or the huge blooms of six-inch diameter. There are intermediate sizes and forms which make excellent bedding plants, the salmon-rose variety now being very popular.

Lovely Summer Hats

They have just been unpacked—and the unpacking reveals such adorable new ideas—lovely large hats, Ajour brand, and novelty body hats, so very, very simple and smartly trimmed.

Some tailored and others of the more dressy type. All are exceedingly low priced—forms need 18 inches apart for full development. They will grow more than three feet tall. The dwarf grow two feet and need about the same space, while the lilliput types need a foot each way. The most effective use of these gorgeous annuals is in beds or borders of a single color or arranged in color gradations. The shades of yellow and orange are unmatched in any of the other annuals. The reds are singularly rich and velvety.
