EDITOR EXPELLED.
FOREST GROVE, Ore. (AP)—Virgil Green Lilly, editor of the Pacific university "Index," was expelled from the college because of the publication of an article, "In Defense of Necking." Another member of the staff was also expelled, while a third was suspended. The article was described as destructive to moral life, indecent and obscene by college officials. The article was originally published in the University of Indiana "Vagabond," and came through the Intercollegiate News association. Lilly said.

The tipping habits of European tourists are indicated by hotel porters to each other by the angles at which they place luggage labels.

SKINNY MEN GLAD

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, create appetite, build up the power to resist disease and put good solid flesh on skinny men and women. But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it, for doctors are prescribing and people are fast learning that they can get better results with Metcalf's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which Red Cross Drug Store, Glass Drugs and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for. One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist is authorized to refund the purchase price. Be sure and get Metcalf's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—59 cents—Adv.

La Grande Theatres

Last Showing of "Love Hour" At Sherrys Tonight

Louise Fazenda and Willard Louis, now appearing in "The Love Hour," at the Sherry theatre, are natural born comedians. Their every action on the screen is good for a laugh, and they both have innumerable screen successes to their credit.

Louise with her pigtail and small town dress was a standby with Mack Sennett for years, and subsequently she appeared in "Main Street," "The Beautiful and Damned," "The Lighthouse by the Sea," "A Broadway Butterfly" and "Being Respectable," of Warner Brothers.

Willard Louis has come forward by rapid leaps and bounds since his portrayal of the Prince of Wales in "Beau Brummel." He has a grace and bearing that is unusual for so stout a man and his performances in "Rabbit," "The Limited Mail" and "Kiss Me Again" stamp him as one of the most versatile actors on the screen.

The combination of Fazenda and Louis is looked upon as one of the best comedy teams in motion pictures. In "The Love Hour" they are associated with Huntley Gordon, Ruth Clifford and John Roche, who do the serious work. Comedy "Alibi 40 Thieves."

A mirthquake is on its way to the Arcade theatre. It is "Rainbow Hilly," the latest starring vehicle of Johnny Hines. An interesting fact in connection with this picture is that, as a play under the title "The Club," it served as the last legitimate stage piece of Douglas Fairbanks prior to his entering pictures.

While the locale of this story is a logging camp, the same solid quality of his gripping western stories has been injected into the tale with startling results.

The story is of a man of the north woods—the owner of vast timber lands—whose rugged methods of dealing with men has earned him the name of Timber Wolf. A mine, hidden in a mysterious canyon; crooks and a dishonest sheriff figure importantly in the action. With such a combination a plentiful amount of action is bound to result. In fact, "The Timber Wolf" exceeds the wild expectations.

Buck Jones, popular star, is genuinely pleasing, aside from his athletic qualifications this young man can act convincingly. Buck packs more thrills into a motion picture than there are bees in a hive, and his stunts are nerve-tinglers.

Elmer Fair makes an adequate feminine foil for the big star and Will Walling, Dave Dyan, Sam Allen and Robert Mack add unique interpretations.

"The Timber Wolf" will be the feature attraction at the Star theatre for three days.
