Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Stewed rhubarb, crisp broiled bacon, creamed potatoes, bran muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Spinach soufflé, rye bread, dried fruit conserve, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast shoulder of lamb, new potatoes in paraly butter, new carrots in orange cream sauce, pineapple bavarian cream, bran bread, milk, coffee.

No dessert is planned in the luncheon menu. The conserve with bread and butter is planned to furnish the "sweet." This substitute can often be used and the housewife who would make the most of her food allowance will do this. Preserves and jellies with bread and butter, provided a fruit dessert is not needed to balance the meal, preclude the need of pie and cake.

Be untiring in your use of spinach. The family will learn to like it in time regardless of their aching remarks.

Spinach Soufflé

One pound spinach, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 tablespoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon flour, one half teaspoon salt, 1 cup milk, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, 3 eggs. Wash spinach through many waters, drain and mince. Melt butter, add minced onion and cook over a low fire for five minutes. Add spinach and stir with a fork until well coated with butter. Cover and cook five minutes. Stir over fire, stirring with fork until perfectly blended. Add milk and cook until mixture thickens. Season with salt and pepper and add grated cheese. Bring to the boiling point and remove from fire. Add the yolks of the eggs well beaten and fold in the whites of the eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a well-buttered baking dish and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderately hot oven.

BEAUTY HAS LONG HAIR

NEW YORK—Miss Louise Clere the country's most beautiful beauty, in the opinion of Artie Linenkamp, has very long hair and her skirts are not nearly so short as the mode.

PLANNING FOR BAKER MEET

GRANGE HALL. (Special) —

Most of the business session was spent discussing plans for the state grange convention to be held at Baker in June Wednesday afternoon when Blue Mountain grange met.

Mrs. Edith Gekeler, who recently returned from a trip to Willamette valley points and several towns in Washington related many interesting incidents concerning her trip, after which a program in observance of Mother's day was given.

The first number on the program was a song "The Song I Loved to Hear Mother Sing Best When I Was a Child." Mrs. Mabel Anson told of the origin of Mother's Day and Mrs. Ethel Sherwood read Kate Douglas Wiggin's "Ode to Mother." Mrs. Kate Redhead sang her mother's favorite song and Mrs. Loolah Redhead gave a reading "She Was the Preacher's Mother." Mrs. Florence Jasper gave a talk and Mrs. Edna Anson, Mrs. Jasper and two little children gave a tableau adapted from "Memories of Mother" by R. H. Richardson. A feature of the program was a concentration contest in which Mrs. Kate Redhead won the prize.

It is easy to think of something to do after it is too late to do it.

Youngest

Miss Helen U. Smith, postmistress of Mohawk, Mich., is the youngest postmistress in the United States, to so nothing of being one of the pretties shortly after she passed her twenty first birthday she got her appointment from President Coolidge.

Most of the young people seem to think the advice of their parents is about as much needed as rain checks would be at a christening.
