La Grande Theatres

Elsie Ferguson Back on Screen in "Unknown Lover"

The Sherry theater will feature a Victor Hugo Halperin production when "The Unknown Lover" begins a run of two days tomorrow. Elsie Ferguson appears at the head of an all-star cast in a dramatic story of a woman's struggle to make her husband fit into the cloak of her ideal.
Miss Ferguson holds an enviable position in theatrical and screen popularity. Her beauty and talent are known to every play and picture goer, and her return to the screen is certain to be welcomed by all Elsie Ferguson fans. In the role of Elaine Kent, a lovely and idealistic girl who marries a charming idler in the hopes of reforming him, Miss Ferguson is said to have scored the biggest triumph of her screen career.

Frank Mayo, handsome leading man, plays opposite Miss Ferguson as the husband who finds that he must be a success before he can win the love of his wife; and who becomes so engrossed in business that he neglects the love he worked for.
Leslie Austin has an excellent role as a practical, successful man of affairs who in spite of the wealth cannot win the heart of the beautiful girl he desires.
These three are the principals in a drama of romance and business that abounds in intense situations and unexpected climaxes. Mildred Harris is cast as the fiancée of the millionaire son who falls in love with the beautiful student of sculpture; Terry Kelly as a gay society girl, and Count Costa Morner as a gay society boy.
Also showing "The Golden Girl," beautiful colored scenic.

Last Showing Of "Midnight Flyer" Is Tonight

For real, down-to-the-ground speed, spine-tickling thrills, and sensational action "The Midnight Flyer," which is now holding the screen at the Sherry theater, is one of the outstanding hits of the motion picture year; and the critics who hailed it as a masterpiece of melodrama are being vindicated at every showing. The roaring railroad story is an adaptation by J. Grubb Alexander of two tales which E. H. O. purchased from Arthur Guy Empey, and it provides a powerful vehicle for an all-star, cast composed of Cullen Landis, Dorothy Devaux, Buddy Post, Charles Mills, Frankie Darro, Claire Doolittle, Barbara Tennant, Elmo Billings and Alphonse Ethier. Thrill follows thrill almost with the rapidity of the great driving wheels of the steel monsters that thunder their way through the feud-swept fastness of the West Virginia mountains, where the story is set.
Tom Forman, who directed the production, deserves great credit for the manner in which he handled so big a subject.
Comedy showing "Fire Away."

"Sea Horses" Starts 3-Day Run At Star Sunday

Star theater will have an exceptionally fine film attraction Sunday, when Paramount's cinema version of Francis Brett Young's widely read novel "Sea Horses," makes its local debut, starting a three-day run. For those who like vigorous melodrama, tinged with love interest and moving midat scenes of tropic color and beauty, this photoplay will fill the bill from soup to nuts.

Much is expected from "Sea Horses," for Mr. Young's story, which Becky Gardner adapted and James Hamilton scenarized, is rich in action, drama, romance and suspense, and lends itself admirably to visualization on the screen. Furthermore, the fact that Allan Dwan made it a guarantee of its worth from a directorial standpoint.
There is the added factor of a notable cast, which numbers amongst its personnel such popular and capable players as Jack Holt, Florence Vidor, George Bancroft, and William Powell.
Mr. Dwan is said to have incorporated in the production several spectacular features, which set a new high-water mark for realism and thrill. Among these is cited a stirring fist fight, an exciting battle in which several hundred natives take part, a raging sea storm, and a cyclonic tropical tornado.
A Chas. Chase comedy, said to be his best, is also on the program.

Tent Company to Present "Uncle Tom's Cabin"

The William J. Harvall tent company will present "Uncle Tom's Cabin" here next Wednesday night, May 12, at 8:15 o'clock on the grounds at Jefferson and Chestnut streets.
P. C. Franklin, advance agent for the company, who was here recently, declares that this is the best troupe Mr. Harvall has been able to assemble in his 21 years experience in presenting this play. He claims that whatever successful management can devise or money purchase are combined in this traveling organization.
