P-T. Association To End Season

The last meeting of the Greenwood Parent-Teacher association will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. During the business session officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Everyone is invited to visit the various art exhibits in the school rooms after the meeting of the association.

Meacham, Ore. (Special)—Sigurd Nilsson, grand opera star, was entertained at Sunset Inn by E. C. Catton and C. H. Kilbe, Sunday. This singer is en route to Kansas City, Mo., where he will sing with Madam Schuman Heink May 16.

Union (Special)—Last Thursday evening the Methodist Episcopal church was the scene of a 6 o'clock banquet given by the Shutanksa camp fire girls in honor of their mothers and a few friends. Covers were laid for thirty-six at a beautifully appointed table where three large baskets of red carnations were arranged as center-piece. Three lighted candles symbolizing work, health and love burned brightly on the table. The dining room was decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Streamers or red crepe paper were arranged over the table. Each mother was favored with a red carnation.

The guardian, Mrs. Ruby Knight, was toastmistress for the evening. Vivian Smith and Edna Cheney each gave a toast to the mothers and several responded. During their talks they took the opportunity to thank the guardian for her highly commendable work with the girls.

After dinner a program in observance of Mother's day was given by the girls. At 8 o'clock they sang "Goodnight Mothers," and all adjourned to their homes.

Union (Special)—The T. B. Bridge club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook at their home in North Union. Four tables were arranged for bridge, with Mrs. Walter Stevens winning first prize among the ladies present. Dr. Schuster won first prize among the gentlemen and J. F. Hutchinson received the consolation prize.

Union (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Knight were host and hostess to a number of guests Sunday at dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wardell and daughter, Barbara, and son, Bobby, of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. Buff Wilson, of Baker, were visitors during the afternoon.

Union (Special)—Mrs. Mabel Laughlin will present several of her pupils at Haines Wednesday evening. The recital will take place in the high school auditorium there. Miss Bethene Miller and Mrs. Nell Hutchinson are pupils from Union who will appear.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Grapefruit, cereal, thin cream, baked eggs, crisp bran toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Rice and cheese fondue, raisin bread, brown sugar cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled salmon steak, lemon butter, creamed new potatoes, buttered string beans, strawberry shortcake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

One cup of flour will make enough dough to make shortcake for two persons. With this in mind it's quite easy to gauge the requirements for a larger number. This means of course the old-fashioned shortcake using biscuit dough. A square of sponge cake covered with a tablespoonful of crushed berries and a "dab" of whipped cream is not honest-to-goodness shortcake.

Rice and Cheese Fondue Three-fourths cup grated cheese, 1/2 cups cooked rice, 1 and one half cups milk, one half teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 2 eggs. Mix salt and mustard thoroughly with cheese. Add rice and milk

Mrs. A. T. Hill Winner In Contest

Mrs. A. T. Hill, of this city, received first prize in an essay contest conducted by the home department of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs at the state convention held here last week. Essays entered in the contest were to develop some phase of the general topic "The Greatest Labor-Saving Device in My Home and Why?" Mrs. Hill's essay, which follows, was entitled "Electricity, Woman's Emancipator."

"During the last twenty years, the development of electrical appliances has been so rapid as to constitute one of the salient characteristics of this era and the home has enjoyed its share of inventions. We turn a button, the house is illuminated throughout. Then I am thankful there are no lamps to clean and fill with kerosene. The sweetest sound that I hear when I awaken is not the twitter of birds, but the purr of a motor. I turn over for a nap and this is what the motor says to me, 'I am busy spraying oil into the furnace, soon the steam will arise and push its way through pipes and radiators warning every nook and corner. I am doing all I can to start your day right.' Thank you nice electric motor, and all you require of me is to wind the clock once a week which controls the thermostat which keeps the even temperature—dust and smoke arising from starting fires are eliminated. The oil is stored in a tank away from the house with no fuel to be handled either by storing it or by stoking the furnace, no ashes to be removed, time and labor is saved.

My electric range comes second as a labor saver. Comparing it with the coal range previously used I exclaim, 'Electricity thou art a jewel!' Cleanliness and coolness, saving of time, are my recommendations for this device. Washing is not labor with my electric washer, simply a matter of management. The morning chores about the house, while the electric motor whistles and whirrs the family wash through blizzy soapy foam.

The vacuum sweeper is my pet. I place one of the various attachments and beat with a fork or wire whisk until blended. Stir in yolks of eggs well beaten. Fold in whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry. Turn into a buttered baking dish and put into a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes. Serve as soon as the fondue is firm.

Flaked fish, minced ham or chicken or a vegetable can be used in place of the cheese. One cup rather than three-quarters should be used. This is an excellent dish for small children.

points to the loss which is caused by the use of the old-fashioned broom, mop, and scrub brush. Floors, cushions, draperies and mattresses. Very little dust arises from this method of cleaning, making the dusting a simple matter.

A few small devices all have their share in making my work light and pleasant. The cigar lighter by my husband's chair, eliminates matches, my electric warming pad was indispensable this past winter when the influenza visited us. The electric curling iron comes in for its share of helping to beautify the home. And have not the percolator and toaster become so apart of our home furnishings that we could not keep house without them? The telephone rings, reminding me of another indispensable convenience. There goes the door bell, I had almost forgotten that its a messenger boy with a telegram which says, 'Yes, we are coming to the federation and will be pleased to accept your kind invitation to be guests in your home.' Signed, Six Delegates. I am quite ready for I have been pushing buttons here and there and electricity has done the rest."

The second prize was won by Mrs. Minnie M. Bennett, of Laurel. She eulogized running water as her chief household aid.

Sting Causes Death MILWAUKEE, Wis.—A bumble bee was the harbinger of death for E. A. Knudsen of Chicago. Knudsen was driving an automobile when the bee flew under his spectacles and stung him on the eye. While trying to brush it away, he lost control of his car and was fatally injured when it struck a telephone post.

Miss Judith takes her house money just like wings on flies—that she don't know what it goes.

Huld! Der wuld'n't be no 'casion for dat kind of talk of shell tacks and Pungty Wicks!

Klamath Falls Driver Killed Indian, Aged 5

KLAMATH FALLS, May 11. (AP)—Frank Duvall, 5, Indian boy, was killed last night when struck by an automobile driven by C. D. Hale, local business man. The boy died within 30 minutes after the accident. An inquest will be held today but according to local officials the crash was apparently unavoidable, the boy having run out from a restaurant in which his mother was eating and darted out from between two parked cars in front of Hale's machine.

Don't Spend for foods without flavor

THE art of making meals attractive is in serving savory foods. In breakfast oats, see that you get the Quaker brand. The difference in flavor is amazing.

Some 50 years were spent perfecting Quaker flavor. No other oats offers it to you. Yet the price you pay is the same.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Protein, carbohydrates and vitamins and "bulk" are thus combined in making Quaker Oats an excellently balanced ration.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Makes the richest breakfast now the quickest. Get Quick Quaker or regular Quaker Oats today for a richer breakfast tomorrow.
