A Good Place To Trade

Nobody can laugh this off

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and perch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT has been such a revelation to men who thought that they were pipe-happy that three pipes are smoked today where one was smoked before. That's a fact, Men, just as sure as little bees buzz and polliwogs have tails.

And you don't need a degree from Oxford to figure out the reason: The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch pos-i-tive-ly and Prince Albert quality makes it the National Joy Smoke. That means you can cram this fine old favorite into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and turn on all five tubes . . . go to it any way you please . . . slow or fast, morning to midnight!

Yes, sir! P. A. is the taste-teasingest, tongue-pleasingest tobacco that ever tumbled into a briar. Its smoke is the coolest that ever sifted into your system. Its fragrance keeps honeysuckle and your favorite rose fighting for second place.

Put it on your pad now: You've got a date this very day with the smoke-shop that hands out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Decorate yourself with the degree of P. A., and get the highest degree of pleasure out of that old pipe.

GRADE SCHOOL TEAMS READY

Everybody that wants to see the grade school track and field meet Saturday afternoon at the high school athletic grounds is advised by Earl C. Reynolds, superintendent of the day, to be in the grandstand on time. The events will start promptly at 2 o'clock, and 15 minutes before that, the timing of formations will begin. Lee Reynolds, who has acted as official starter for track meets in this community for five or six years, is to be at his usual place. I. H. Pearce and J. E. Reynolds will be the timers. Judges of the finish and the name events will be J. A. Tedford, Clyde Seitz, E. A. McEachran and J. D. Smutz. Judges of the pole vaults, high jumps, broad jumps and basketball throw will be Hal Bohnenkamp, C. N. Palmer, E. H. DeLong, Owen Richelieu, Dee Smutz and Thorson Bennett. Tom Bruce has been assigned to the position of official announcer. Members of the high school track team, headed by Captain Sherwood, will fill the places of inspector of the track, recorders of events and scorers.

18 Track Events

Sixteen track events, alternating boys' and girls' contests, will have first place on the program. They include an equal number of dashes and relays.

Pole vaults, broad jumps, high jumps and basketball throws compose the 15 events that will take place on the field.

Mass games, in which girls from fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades will participate, comprise our races: over-the-top, foot dribble, post relay and in-and-out. Individual schools have had their preliminary tryouts, and superintendent J. T. Longfellow reports that some excellent records have been made. Central

BAY WINS TWO NET MATCHES

At the end of the second week of play in the challenge tennis tournament being conducted by the La Grande Tennis club, six matches have been played off. The tournament started three weeks ago but because of rain during one week there have only been two weeks of play.

Lawrence Bay defeated Glenn Campbell, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2 in one of the first matches during the week, placing Bay above Campbell on the ladder. Bay also moved up another rung when he defeated Wilson Thurston later in the week, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1.

In the other games Frank Black defeated Ray Wilson, 7-5, 6-3; Earl Garrison defeated Ray Wilson 6-2, 6-4; Stewart Merrill defeated Tom Ruckman 6-4, 6-3 and Jean Taylor defeated Jack Holmes 6-2, 6-3. Jean Taylor is still at the head of the ladder.

No games were played among the girl contestants during the week.

Pergandus Loses to Eklund in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20. (AP)—Clarence Eklund, of Bullalo, Wyo., took two falls from Louis Pergandus, of Portland, in a wrestling match last night. Pergandus won the first fall with a leg split but Eklund came back and won the two following falls with an arm scissor and hammerlock and the second with a crotch grip. Bob Meyers, of Tillamook, and Cal Herman, of Salt Lake City, wrestled to a draw in a thirty minute preliminary.

Oregon Tennis Stars Seek Northwest Title

EUGENE, Ore., May 20. (AP)—Five University of Oregon tennis stars left yesterday for a series of three matches in the north. An extra match, that with Multnomah Athletic club of Portland, was added just before the team left. The Multnomah matches will be played today.

The Tacoma Athletic club, of Tacoma, Wash., will be met Friday and the University of Washington at Seattle on Saturday.

Members of the team taking the trip are Harry Coffin, No. 1; Roy Oberberg, No. 2; Melvin Cohn, No. 3; George Mead, No. 4, and Tom Cross, No. 5. Oberberg and Coffin and Mead and Cross, will be paired for doubles. Victory for Oregon in the Washington matches would mean the championship of the northwest conference and a perfect percentage.

Billy Evans Says:

ANOTHER MISTAKE

Once upon a time a certain manager tried to make an infielder out of the great Christy Mathewson, one of the most remarkable pitchers in the history of the game. That is merely told as proface to the story of Fred Lucas, pitching sensation of the Cincinnati Reds.

Two years ago, while looking over the Boston Braves in spring training, I observed a young man by the name of Lucas coveting around second base.

I was told that Lucas was a reformed pitcher who could hit and he was being converted into a second baseman with the best of results.

It didn't seem at the time if Lucas was destined to rival Eddie Collins as a fielder.

DOES A COMEBACK

When the season opened Lucas, highly touted as a second sacker in the spring, was not in the lineup. Evidently his pitching didn't impress, because he was soon shipped to Seattle in the Pacific Coast league.

At Seattle he pitched with success and because of his ability to hit was used as emergency outfielder. He finished the season with a batting average close to .400. This spring we find Lucas back in the big show as a member of the Cincinnati Reds. Of the first 13 games won by Cincinnati, he captured four of his first five starts and, used as a pinch-hitter, really had another to his credit by coming through with a timely swing. And still they once tried to make a second baseman out of Pitcher Lucas. That also goes for Christy Mathewson.

Mackmen and found them resting in the second division.

Meeting the club for the first time with an average around .500, I made inquiries as to the failure of the team to show against the eastern opposition.

"Haven't a single kick to register about the play of the team," remarked Connie.

"The pitching was uniformly good; the team played smart baseball; the fighting spirit was always there, but we just couldn't win for the lack of a timely base hit."

"Really we should have won the first seven games we lost. In every game there were from one to three chances where a base hit would have turned defeat into victory."

"That is why I am not worrying, still positive my club will be a strong pennant-contender."

McGRAW'S RECORD

Noted the other day where John McGraw has signed a new three-year contract to manage the Giants.

That will set to rest all rumors that McGraw intended to retire. The supposition was that he was grooming Hughie Jennings for the job. It is possible that the serious illness of Hughie caused McGraw to change his plans.

This is McGraw's twenty-fourth year as manager of the New York Giants. During that time he has won 19 pennants. In this respect Connie Mack, with six wins for Philadelphia, is his closest rival. He is also the only manager to have four pennants in either the National or American.

The best compliment I ever heard McGraw paid is the estimate rival managers in the National league have on his value to his club as bench manager. Just 25 per cent more efficient is the way they rate the Giants with McGraw directing.

SAILOR WOODS WINS

MEDFORD, Ore., May 20. (AP)—In the main event of a double wrestling bill here Tuesday night, Sailor Jack Woods, Grants Pass, defeated Frenchy Leavitt, Portland when Leavitt was unable to continue after being thrown by Woods. Leavitt gained the first fall with a toe hold.

In the preliminary Wildcat Peto, of Glendale, took two straight falls from Cecil Harriek, of Grants Pass.
