Y. O. Club Meets at Van Valkenburg Home

Pretty bouquets of snapdragons and sweet williams were arranged about the rooms of the Van Valkenburg home yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. J. Van Valkenburg entertained the members of the Y. O. club. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. L. M. Hoyt winning high score among the club members. Mrs. Bert Patton received the guest prize.

After the card games the hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be two weeks from yesterday at the country home of Mrs. Grover Grimmett.

Bible Class Is Entertained

Approximately twenty members of the Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church were present yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Grace Hesse was hostess to the class. Mrs. Ed Bean and Mrs. Earl Ploener were assistant hostesses.

After the regular business session, which was presided over by Mrs. Harry Turner, president, a delightful program, arranged by the program committee headed by Mrs. Gustav Wisler, was given. Little Miss Katharine May Winsler played two piano numbers "Dollie's Dream and Awakening" by Theodore Oesten and "Happy Jack" by H. L. Cramm. Francis Keith Wallace gave two readings, "Mean Little Torment" and "Mr. and Mrs. Popperman at the Baseball Game." Mrs. Wallace also played a piano number "Habanera" by Bizet.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses after the program. The next meeting of the class will be June 15 at the home of Mrs. W. S. Snook, 1545 M avenue.

Many Attend Piano Recital

Miss Judith Snodgrass, 14-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass, completed her fifth year of music study with a piano recital last evening in the library auditorium. She was presented by her teacher, Miss Hilma Anthony.

Miss Snodgrass played an interesting program with much poise and interpreted the different numbers in a clear and thoughtful manner. Her second group "Scherzo" by Gurler, was perhaps the best and was given with good tone and artistic phrasing. As an encore she played MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose."

Flavia Ritter Sherwood sang charmingly two numbers, "Sylvan" by Landon Ronald and "A Morning in Spring" by H. Alexander Mathews, and responded to an encore. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Wright.

Male Mode

The masculine mode is reflected in this large handkerchief and tie ensemble of flat crepe checked in shades of yellow and orange.

The regular meeting of the General Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church, was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Smith in Connordale with thirty-five members in attendance. Mrs. H. W. Parker led in the devotional services, after which Mrs. Sherwood Williams, president, presided over the business session. Dates for the annual bazaar to be given by the society were set. The bazaar will be December 3 and 4.

Aid Society Meets in Connordale

Before adjournment the hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Walter Perry, Mrs. W. M. Pierson, Mrs. Hickox, Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. Wheatley and Mrs. Benglesdorf.

During the program hour Mrs. Claude Cooper sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Sherwood Williams at the piano. Mrs. Carl Wallace gave a reading.

Academy Recital This Evening

Music lovers of the city will hear an interesting program this evening when the Sacred Heart academy will present Miss Alma Lilly in piano recital, assisted by Miss Mary Brewster, harpist, and Miss Alice Jeanette Cooper, violinist. The public is invited to attend the recital which will take place at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock. Miss Lilly will play five groups and Miss Brewster and Miss Cooper will appear in one group each.

Endeavorers Banquet Seniors

Honoring twenty-one seniors of the high school—members of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society—other members of the organization entertained at a dinner last evening in the basement of the Presbyterian church. A delicious banquet was served at 6:30 o'clock with covers laid for sixty.

The tables were prettily decorated in a green and gold color scheme, the senior class colors. Bouquets of spring flowers in those colors served as centerpieces. "The Fountain of Life" was the idea carried out in the place cards and in the program. Members of the junior class served. They were costumed in green and gold to harmonize with the color scheme.

Grace Gebel, who arranged the program, presided as toastmistress. The word "Fountain" was spelled out in the titles of the various toasts. Gladys Owen responded with a toast "Fountains," Corrine Baker, "Opportunity," Doris Cade, "Toward Faith," Ray Keown, "Knowledge," Francis Kelly, "Testimony," Ella Seldner, "Allegiance," Thomas Wallsinger, "Improvement" and Mrs. I. C. Bowser, "Nobility."

The Rev. W. C. Ross called on Miss Eleanor Vernon, senior adviser, for the poem toast which she gave at the junior-senior banquet and she responded.

Miss Gladys Owen was chairman of the committee in charge of the banquet. The seniors honored were: Goldie Owen, Dean Wright, Corrine Baker, Mildred Mohr, Daisy Robbs, Frances Kelly, Eleanor Cleaver, Marjorie L'Amitt, Kermit Ingram, Adelaide Ruth Clark, Alladine Rayhorst, Ray Keown, Lulu Ansell, Myrtle Wilcox, Thomas Wallsinger, Cecile Cade, Dorothy Funk, Gwendolyn Buchanan, Rossie Burns, Margaret Baker, Clara Shepherd and Marian Miller.

Class Discusses "Canal Zone"

"Episcopal Work in the Panama Canal Zone" was the program subject yesterday afternoon when the Missionary Study class of the St. Peter's Episcopal church met at Honan hall in regular session. Mrs. Harriet McDonald was leader for the afternoon.

There will be no meeting of the class next month because of the Episcopal summer school which will be in session at that time at Cove.

COVE (Special) — The junior-senior banquet was held at the home of Miss Irene Haag, one of the junior class members, Tuesday evening. After the banquet the seniors were further entertained with a theater party at La Grande. There are eight senior class members this year. ## NO DANCES, SMOKES OR ROUGE— SHE'S HAPPY

FLORENCE KELSO

SEATTLE (NEA)—Would you believe that there's still a girl in America who: Has never danced or been to a theater? Has never used powder, lipstick or rouge, or bobbed her hair? Has never sipped a cocktail, smoked a cigarette, played cards or spooned?

Well, there is. There's Miss Florence Kelso, Salvation Army lass of Seattle. And, to top it all, she says she never has any desire for short skirts, satin slippers, chiffon hose, silk frocks or gigolo hats.

She doesn't even know what a gigolo hat is! "I'm perfectly happy," she says. "I tried wearing a friend's pretty frock at a party once. It was so uncomfortable I took it off and got back into my uniform."

Miss Kelso was "born into the army" and his spent all her life in its atmosphere. And—oh, yes—she's been kissed! "We have our boy friends, you know," she adds shyly.

The afternoon was spent socially.

The ladies in attendance were: Mrs. J. J. Conley, Mrs. Ray Good-nough, of La Grande, Mrs. Hugh McCall, of Haines, Mrs. C. E. Lawson, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. L. Miller, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Miss Bess Kelly, Mrs. J. H. Dean, Mrs. C. Heryford, Mrs. C. Bartsch and Mrs. E. M. Laird of Cove.
