

MEMOIR TALKS OF EMOTIONS

ATLANTIC CITY, May 21, 1926.—The great wave of emotion which has swept over the city since the death of the late President Woodrow Wilson has been the cause of many interesting and touching scenes. The people here are deeply moved and their hearts are full of grief and sorrow.

The funeral services for the late President were held in the city and were attended by thousands of people. The services were a fitting tribute to the great man who has just passed on.

You Be The Judge

Try any of our cured meats and if you do not say that they are equally if not better than any of the so-called high-grade brands, they cost you nothing. A trial will convince you there is not a superior brand on the market. And you, too, make a tremendous saving.

Groceries of Quality

Follow the crowds. Hundreds are now choosing both groceries and meats at a saving. For the convenience of cutting one number instead of two, a small profit on each item is our policy and this, blended with volume, gives the desired result.

HOW WE DO IT!

Specialization of effort is the accepted modern way of accomplishing big things. In the Skaggs organization, specialists are in charge of each department—buying, merchandising, financing, advertising, accounting, etc. Each brings to his work the advantages of long training and peculiar adaptability. There are no hit or miss methods—things are done in the most efficient, known manner. Our accounting system, alone, annually saves our patrons many thousands of dollars. Just another reason for Skaggs' better values.
