Luncheon Honors Mrs. Duncan

Honoring Mrs. D. C. Duncan, who will spend the summer months in Idaho, Mrs. Everett Keown and Mrs. H. E. Williams entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Williams on M avenue. The table was prettily decorated for the occasion with bouquets of red and white flowers. The same color scheme was carried out in the luncheon served.

Bridge was played at three tables following the luncheon. Mrs. J. J. Pearson won high score and Mrs. W. D. Warner received the second prize. The consolation prize went to Mrs. Clark Webb. Mrs. Duncan was given a guest prize.

Club Women Attend Baker Affair

Twelve members of the Junior Bridge club of this city drove to Baker yesterday where they were entertained at luncheon at 1:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Allen Wright, formerly of La Grande, but who now makes Baker her home.

The Wright home was prettily decorated for the occasion with bouquets of lovely spring flowers. The La Grande women presented the hostess with a beautiful basket of sweetpeas.

Following the luncheon four tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. Raymond Bigger winning high score. The second prize went to Mrs. Standley Lyons.

Those from La Grande present for the party were: Mrs. Elmer McManus, Mrs. Lester Stoddard, Mrs. Stanley Mills, Mrs. Dale Cox, Mrs. E. L. Knight, Mrs. Hill Tompkins, Mrs. John O'Connell, Mrs. Raymond Bigger, Mrs. Dick Lindsay, Mrs. Standley Lyons, Miss Corelyn Rosenthal and Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr.

Mrs. H. R. Hanna was elected chairman of the department for the new year; Mrs. J. T. Longfellow, vice chairman; Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. A. E. Hendrickson, club chairman.

Mrs. J. D. Lynch had charge of the program for the afternoon. She reviewed the life and works of two of America's artists, George Bellows and George Luks. Mrs. E. P. Mossman talked about two American schools—the Old Line school

Recital Ends Successful Season

About two hundred people gathered at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening when the Sacred Heart academy presented Miss Alma Lilly, pianist, in recital. This was the last program to be given by students of the academy this season and was one of the most successful. Besides a large number of La Grande people in attendance several were present from Perry and Summerville districts. The Presbyterian church where the program took place was decorated with bouquets of snowballs and peonies.

Miss Lilly appeared in five groups. Each number rendered was excellent. As an encore to her last number "American Indian Rhapsody" by Orem, which was perhaps the best on the program, Miss Lilly played "Japanese Sunset" by Heppen.

Assisting her in the recital were Mary Brown, harpist, who played a group of two numbers, and Alice Jeanette Cooper, violinist, who also gave two numbers.

Miss Lilly received many lovely bouquets of flowers.

After the program and a short business session the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Election Sidelights

Wet candidates failed to fare as well in Oregon yesterday as they did in Pennsylvania earlier in the week. Unlike Vairo, who defeated Pinchot and Pepper in the United States senate contest, Sandblast, of Oregon, could place no better than fourth against law enforcement candidates.

Mrs. Weber, in favor of modification of the Volstead act, ran a poor second to Governor Pierce, and all other candidates who had the anti-prohibition plank in their platforms met with similar fates.

Considerable anxiety resulted in the Observer office on the part of supporters of the two city measures, here to get returns, last night when the first counts began to come in. First the charter amendment would be ahead a half dozen votes and then fall behind six or seven. The other measure fared likewise.

Finally the precincts that supported both began registering and a small but certain lead was chalked up. When the 11 precincts in the city limits reported those who wish to see La Grande's streets illuminated in metropolitan fashion and those who wish to see five commissioners instead of three guiding the destiny of the city, went home satisfied with the result.

In glancing over the tabulations, it is noted that Douglas, Gilliam, Deschutes, Jefferson, Lake, Morrow, Sherman, Wasco, Wheeler counties supported Upton above Patterson for the gubernatorial nomination. Malheur county, however, didn't like to show partiality so gave each 270 and compromised on Carter with a meager 75.

Douglas county was one of the few in the state that didn't run to form, anyhow. Besides voting for Upton, Douglas played Stanfield to win.

Jefferson and Wasco counties started out "wet." Both gave Mrs. Weber a plurality over Pierce in early returns.

Despite the assertions of two Portland daily newspapers that Clark would carry Multnomah county, latest reports gave him 6584 to Steiwer's 7346.

Hugh Brady's name was written in for constable in some precincts despite the fact that he is at present justice of peace.

Multnomah county cast 57,000 votes, approximately 55 per cent of the total registration, the Associated Press declares.

Every running against Steiwer, Stanfield, Shumway, Clark, Crossley and the rest, had the hardest time, proportionately, of any candidate in getting votes. At midnight he had 702 and had been white-washed in Wheeler, Imathilla, Sherman and Grant counties. Crook and Morrow gave his one apiece.

From the way candidates are lining up, it looks as if Oregon will have a whole of a November election. Yesterday may have been quiet, but the biennial election day promises to abound with interest.

The censor is the salvation of the English stage. In America there is drama that would never for a moment be tolerated in England. Those who criticize the English censor have not watched things work as I have in a country where taste is led astray through there being no censor to blue-nail rigorously the efforts of some dramatists.—Cyril Maude.

Sister Mary Says:

Breakfast—Grapefruit, cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, boiled salt mackerel, delicate muffins, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baker macaroni and tomatoes, toasted muffins, rhubarb gelatine with whipped cream, caramel cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled fish steaks, potatoes in parsley butter, creamed carrots and peas, cherry salad, lemon meringue pie, graham bread, milk, coffee.

The breakfast menu suggested takes care of juniors under school age as well as adults. Small "Pun-abouts" should be served orange juice, the cereal suggested with cream, toast and milk.

Cherry salad is rather out of the ordinary and, while it may be a bit fussy to make, it's really most delicious.

Probably You've Heard This One It Has a Point

Once upon a time, not so many years ago—the directors of a newly organized company held a very important meeting.

They were deciding whether to charge $1 or $5 for a patented article which the company was about to put on the market.

All the evidence indicated that they could profitably market the article for $1.

Nevertheless they set the price at $5 and maintained it at $5 until patents expired.

This article undoubtedly saved its cost two or three times a year—and it lasts ten to twenty years. Therefore, men have asserted that the price was fair, that the inventor and investors who made this article available to the public were entitled to a goodly return.

We do not venture to discuss this point—but what we do wish to point out is this—IF THAT COMPANY HAD BEEN A PUBLIC UTILITY, IT COULD NOT HAVE CHARGED $5.
