HOGS SCARCE; MARKETS FIRM

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25. (AP)—Country dressed hogs are scarce and the market extremely firm at 12 to 12½ cents. Home sales of choice light pork made at the 20 cent level. Although there is a shortage of veal commission men claim that they cannot get over 15 to 15½ cents, although fancy calves have sold at 16 to 16½ cents in the last 24 hours. Good calves are up to 11½ cents at the North Portland yards.

Cube butter is up a half cent throughout the entire list on the dairy exchange, with extras and standards now posted at 28 cents. The market is showing a better tone with the surplus moving south to California. No change has been made in print or fat prices.

Poultry and egg prices remain steady and unchanged in the local market. The demand is about sufficient for the daily requirements.

Berries More Plentiful

Receipts of strawberries were a little more plentiful on the early growers market Tuesday morning but stocks cleaned up promptly at prices generally within the range of $2.25 to $2.50 a crate on choice stocks.

Growers from all sections are now reporting an over supply of moisture and a serious need of warmer weather in the near future if the quality and yield is to be maintained. The harvest is now reaching the peak and prospects of cheaper berries for canning this year are very doubtful.

Wholesale are still asking $2.25 to $2.65 for best berries for canning but the trade reports little call from the housewife at these levels.

Cantaloupes Glut Market

A liberal supply of cantaloupes, many of them over-ripe and soft, is glutting the wholesale market and resulting in cheaper prices earlier than usual this season.

The tomato market is weak and prices are showing a lower trend. Some repacked stock is now selling at $5.50 a lug with "as is" offered down to $4.25.

Green peas are scarce and the market firm at 7 to 8 cents a pound. Growers on the early market are getting 7 cents for the best locals. A car of green beans from California is selling at $2.50 a hamper.

BUTTERFAT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25. (AP)—Butterfat 6.00, San Francisco 44 cents.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK

Cattle lower; receipts 70. Steers, good $5.25 to $5.85; vealers, medium to choice $10.00 to $11.50.

Hogs and sheep nominally steady; no receipts.

If all vacation cards told the truth many of them would read, "Having a fine time, glad you are not here."

PIANO MUST BE SOLD

Will sacrifice high-grade piano in storage near here for immediate sale. Will give easy terms to an established home. For full particulars and where it can be seen, address Portland Music Co., 227 6th St., Portland, Ore.

BERRY YIELD IS CONTRACTED

IMBILER, May 25. (Special)—That the soil about Imbiler is excellent for the culture of strawberries and small fruit in general is attested by the announcement of Homer C. Greene, who has ten acres of berries east of Imbiler, that he has just completed arrangements for marketing 500 crates of strawberries with stores in Walla Walla county towns and in La Grande. In addition he will ship other small fruits to Pendleton, Baker and La Grande.

Mr. Greene now has five acres of strawberries, two of which were set out last spring. The balance of the ten acre crop is comprised of red raspberries, loganberries, black caps, two varieties of blackberries and some gooseberries. His strawberry varieties consist of Now or Improved Oregon, Superb Everbearing and Treble. This fall he will set out ten acres of cherries, harvest of which, he says, will follow the picking of the berry crop each year.

Heretofore he has experimented with pumping a little water from the Grande Ronde river for irrigation of a part of his holdings. This spring, however, he is remodeling his irrigation plant and putting in a good-sized pump so that he may employ water extensively.
