Insurance Man Tells On Friend

"He suffered considerably from gas in stomach and colic attacks, and at times was very yellow. His doctors diagnosed his ailment as gall bladder trouble and that an operation was necessary. Some one persuaded him to try 'Mayr's.' Since taking it one year ago he tells me he has been able to eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all drug stores.—ADV.

Delightful Photoplay Now Showing At Sherrys

This age of restless women that had its birth in the opening years of the present century is the theme of "Time, the Comedian." Robert Z. Leonard's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production at Sherrys.

Low Cady and Mae Busch are playing the leading roles supported by one of the most brilliant casts of any current picture. For those critics who are deriding the lack of proper picture titles "Time, the Comedian" is an answer.

The title has much to do with the production. Time in an animated sense is pictured as the great comedian of life twisting the destiny of all mortals as a jester might play with puppets. The fullness of struggling against time and fate is presented through the medium of a great panorama of the first quarter of the colorful twentieth century.

Low Cady as the naive man of the world is at his height. His essays this type of role, that has made his name a byword with the picture-going public, with polish and ease.

Comedy showing "The Hug Bug."

Sir Gibb's Novel At Arcade Makes Fine Film

In "The High Steppers," which is being shown today and Thursday at the Arcade theater Edward Carewe presents the movie version of one of the most popular of the Sir Philip Gibb novels. It is a First National release featuring Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes.

The story is a moving one. It moves—others and itself. The theme is the high-stepping bug which has been biting modern smart-set families. As worked out in the film, the representative family used for an example is driven almost to the verge of destruction until the strength of mind of two of the younger people avert the disaster.

Mary Astor and Lloyd Hughes give a performance which is admirable in every sense of the term. Another gifted actress, although a virtual newcomer to the screen, is Dolores del Rio, Castilian beauty. She is not far from stardom; this writer is willing to forecast.

Others in the cast are likewise capable. They include Rita Carewe, Edward Davis, Alex Francis, John Stepping and Carlissa Selwynne.

The direction by Carewe shows a faultless sense of values. The matter of detail is well-nigh perfect. Laine Lawson is to be credited with making an exceptionally fine adaptation.

Pictures of the grammar school field meet held here last Saturday and a comedy make up the balance of the program.

Screen Thrills In Zane Grey's "Desert Gold"

The famous Red Rock Canyon of California, which is said to be the nearest replica of the Grand Canyon, has lost its prize boulder, a massive stone weighing approximately 15 tons.

The stone was dislodged during the making of "Desert Gold," Paramount's picture of Zane Grey's story, which arrives at the Star theater, Thursday where it opens a three day run.

An important sequence finds Robert Frazer and Shirley Mason, with only a deformed Yaqui servant, hidden behind the boulder.

Are You Tired, Achy—All Run Down?

This La Grande Resident Tells You How to Get Well.

Tired all the time? Lame, stiff and achy? Tortured with nagging back-ache? Knife-like twinges when you stoop or lift? Movable with headaches, dizzy spells and bladder irregularities? All are signs of kidney weakness! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Here's La Grande testimony: D. D. Burger, 1602 Washington avenue, says: "My kidneys were in bad condition and I had such severe backaches at times, I could hardly bend. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I used Doan's Pills and they soon had me free from the aches and put my kidneys in good shape."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Burger had. Foster-McMullen Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
