Present Piano Students in Recitals

An appropriate finish of her season's teaching Mrs. R. J. Green, piano teacher, presented thirteen students in recital during the past week. Her music classes will close the last of this month, to be resumed again in September after the summer vacation.

Her first group of students appeared in recital Friday evening of last week and were well received. Those playing were: Frederick Ringman, Leah Warner, Gladys Harvey, Lenora McOrtle, Catherine Humphreys, Jane Stans, Virginia Warnick and Barbara Hatt. The library auditorium, where the program took place, was prettily decorated with bouquets of snowballs and snap dragons. The second recital was Tuesday evening of this week, with eight students taking part — Golan Epling, Marguerite Zweifel, Edith Ebel, Edna Gekeler and Betty Cochran. This program was also given in the library auditorium, which was prettily decorated with bouquets of red peonies. The pupils were presented with lovely bouquets after the recital. On both occasions the auditorium was crowded to capacity with friends and others interested in music.

Cherry Speaks at O. E. S. Meeting

About sixty members were present last evening for the regular meeting of Hope Chapter No. 13, Order of the Eastern Star. After the business part the remainder of the evening was given over to A. J. Cherry, who told those present of the city of Jerusalem. Mr. and Mrs. Cherry recently returned from a trip around the world and Jerusalem was one of the many places of interest which they visited.

Missionary Society Opens Mite Box

The annual mite-box openings in charge of Mrs. E. O. Payton was the principal feature of yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Smith, on Washington ave-

At least de lady next door told Miss Judith that her house money just takes wings on flies — that she don't know what it goes.

Halt! Her wouldn't be no pension for dat kind er ink if she'd trade wid Piggly Wiggly.

Minerva Says---

What is prettier than a well shaped calf, decorated in a pair of Spuntee Silk Hose, and placed in one of The Bootery's nice Dress Slippers? Why two calves! If your feet are in bad condition and you wear just common shoes, as a rule you are uncomfortable. When you wear Arch Preserver Shoes or Oxfords, the sensation is delightful. One pair of feet is all you will ever have. Buy the best shoes you can get, for they mean more mileage on less gas. "Arch Preservers" — don't forget the name.

THE BOOTERY

une, and was presided over by Mrs. Lee Hunford, president of the society.

Mrs. T. E. Pearson was chairman of the study hour for the afternoon, the subject being "Spanish Work in America." After a general discussion of the subject Mrs. S. G. Colman gave a reading. About fifteen members were present.

Before adjournment the hostess served refreshments.

Royal Neighbor Convention Topic

The Royal Neighbors' district convention to be held at Baker June 12 was discussed Tuesday evening when about twenty-five members of the La Grande chapter met in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church here. The La Grande lodge will put on the initiation work at the convention and most of Tuesday evening was spent practicing drills.

About 35 or 40 from the local lodge plan to attend the district meeting.

Recital to Be Given Tonight

Reunited

Fifteen months ago Miss Hadwick Gerstenacker, 15, above, came to Dayton, O., to visit her mother, the lady, who had come as an immigrant from Germany a year or so previous. Federal immigration officials decided the girl must be deported as the German quota was exhausted. Then her mother married an American-born citizen, and became Mrs. Weaver of New Lebanon, O. So now her daughter can stay here as she likes.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, poached eggs on rice, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Tomato chowder, croquettes, cottage cheese sandwiches, cottage pudding with strawberry sauce, milk, tea.

Dinner—Cream of onion soup, veal croquettes, scalloped potatoes, buttered spinach, romaine salad, whole wheat bread, rhubarb bombe, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

This is a delicious, inexpensive dinner menu that might well be planned for guests. The veal croquettes are baked rather than fried in deep fat. If preferred a fruit cup can be used in place of the soup suggested, but, as the meat is light, the soup really adds nourishment and is needed.

Rhubarb Bombe
Two pounds rhubarb, 1 cup water, 3 cups granulated sugar, 1 egg white, 1/2 cup powdered sugar, 1 cup whipping cream, one half teaspoon vanilla.

Wash rhubarb but do not skin. Cut into 1-inch lengths. Put rhubarb, water and granulated sugar into a baking dish with a close fitting cover and bake about 2 hours in a slow oven. When rhubarb is tender and the juice clear, strain through a cheesecloth. There should be about 4 cups of syrup. When cold turn into freezer and freeze like any water ice. When well frozen line a melon mold which has been thoroughly chilled, with the frozen mixture, making the ice about an inch thick. Fill the mold with the cream mixture and cover with remaining ice. The mold should be firmly packed and filled "fruit." Cover with a piece of heavy waxed paper and adjust cover of mold. Pack in four parts of ice cream salt and let stand two or more hours.

To make the filling beat the white of egg until stiff and dry and beat in half the powdered sugar. Whip cream until thick, adding remaining sugar and vanilla. Combine whipped cream and white of egg mixture. Chill thoroughly but do not freeze before using as filling.

These proportions will fill a three-pint melon mold. The mold can be packed in a wooden pan, large dishpan or small tub. Clay and company; 10-12 midnight, Hoop Owl.
