La Grande Theatres

William Russell And Mary Carr in Great Picture

In the forthcoming Royal picture, "Big Pal," which comes to the Sherry Theater for two days, William Russell is the star, with the famous Mary Carr in a prominent role. Russell, former light heavyweight amateur champion of the ring, has the part of a successful fighting man and Mary Carr impersonates his lovable old mother.

Others in the cast are Julianne Johnston, "Mickey" Bennett and William Bulloy.

The story is the original narrative of a square fighter in the squared circle, who not only battles a powerful adversary in the ring, but who fights crooked gamblers and unexpected "brenkas" of bad luck to a knock-out.

The picture has in it a striking element of youthful hero worship in which little "Mickey" Bennett, played by Johnny Williams, will please the youngsters.

Comedy showing "A Rainy Knight."

Ford Sterling Comedy Star in "Steppin' Out"

For a number of years, Dorothy Reiver, who co-stars in the Columbia feature, "Steppin' Out," at Sherry has been an ardent admirer of Ford Sterling.

"I always thought," said Miss Reiver, "that playing with Mr. Sterling in those sparkling comedy-dramas he does so well would be a splendid and quick path to popularity since Mr. Sterling is probably one of the best known character actors with this specialty on the screen."

"And now," she continued, "that I have worked with him in 'Steppin' Out,' I am more than ever convinced that my instinct was correct."

"It is a real pleasure to be on the same 'set' with this master of facial expression. I can't begin to remember the countless times that over Mr. Strayer, the director, had to lower his megaphone to laugh heartily. Comedians are supposed to be very grouchy when they aren't acting, but this theory is all wrong when it comes to Mr. Sterling. I have never seen him without a genial smile and a ready word for anyone appearing a bit depressed."

Comedy "Cheap Skates"

Comedy, Songs, Dances To Feature Sunday Vaudeville at Arcade

Vaudeville is the popular entertainment of the present day. Another bumper show with comedy galore, songs, dances and novel ideas will be seen at the Arcade theater on Sunday.

Baker, Taylor and Pernau are an unusual trio of dancers, two girls and a boy. Their grace, youthfulness and beauty have brought them much praise from the play-goers in other cities. "The Dance Fantasy" will be lavishly staged and costumed. The Olympic Four in a harmonious mirthquake not only sing, but have considerable comedy that is sure to bring forth much laughter. They offer the latest song hits and patter which is abreast of the times and they deliver same in true showmanship manner. Miss Lavinia Davis, "A Smart Singer of Smart Songs," is gifted with a beautiful voice and a way of delivering her selections,
