Saloonmen obtain the best results while wearing plain dark blue suits and the worst while wearing pink-dot, open, recent, (costly suits). The latter tend to confuse holders' eyes, which naturally focus on the tie.

"The Fighting Edge" Showing at Sherrys Today

"The Fighting Edge," a thrilling melodrama of the Mexican border, with smugglers, a ranch house with dungeons, secret doors and harricaded rooms. Secret Services agents of Uncle Sam and a hero who stops at nothing, comes to the Sherry theater, commencing today.
Patsy Ruth Miller and Kenneth Harlan make their initial appearance together in this production which is based on the stirring book by William MacLeod Raine. The plot deals with the adventures of a government agent sent into Mexico to rescue another U. S. officer and aid in rounding up a gang of desperate smugglers. He finds plenty of thrills but also wins a bride.

Harry Carey Stars in "The Seventh Bandit"

The change of program at the Star theater today brings back that Western favorite, Harry Carey, in "The Seventh Bandit," his second feature picture for Pathe, and said to be quite different from anything Carey has heretofore done.

The seventh member of the band-dit gang is not a real highwayman but a man who has sworn to avenge his brother's murder. When all other means to locate him fail, he poses as a man on whose head there is a price and is taken into the gang on the condition that he join them in the big robbery for which they have laid careful plans. After this raid, in which the seventh bandit is wounded, comes the reckoning between the mur-derer and his Nemesis that is said to be one of the biggest moments in any Carey film.

Harry Carey, of course, is the seventh bandit, and he is given support by Harriett Hammond, James Morrison, Trilly Clark, Walter James and John Dillon.

"The Seventh Bandit" and a two reel comedy will be the attractions at the Star theater today and Wednesday.

"Iron Horse" Opens Four-Day Run at Arcade Wednesday

Now that the William Fox production, "The Iron Horse," is scheduled to start an engagement at the Arcade theater Wednesday many thousands of people are wondering how this picture obtained its name. To those acquainted with the ways of thinking of the American Aborigines, it is self-evident that the phrase, "The Iron Horse," is of Indian origin. As a matter of fact during the vast amount of research done by the Fox Scenario Department, it was found that the originator of this phrase was Sitting Bull, the great war chief of the Sioux.

Sitting Bull was one of the most indomitable leaders of the red west against the invasion of the West by the white man. As a youth in the '50 and '60s, he sought to arouse his people to resist the invasion of their lands and the destruction of the game which was one of their chief means of sustenance. Together with Red Cloud and other war chiefs he led the Sioux in numerous attempts to stop the progress of the Central Pacific Railroad. The chief evidence in this matter is to be found in the autobiography of Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill).
In this he quotes what was said to him personally by Sitting Bull as follows:

"The white man has taken most of our land. He has destroyed or given away the game that was our meat. In 1865 he arranged to build through the Indian's land a road on which ran Iron Horses that ate wood and breathed fire and smoke. The Iron Horses brought from the East men and women and children who took the land from the Indians and drove out the game."

This phrase fittingly described the Indian viewpoint of the strange new monster which had disrupted their lives. For many years this expression was little used, but since the tremendous success of the William Fox production "The Iron Horse," that phrase has become part of the English language and it is now generally used not only by the masses, but also by poets, editors and writers of every kind and degree. In place of the less imaginative words engine and locomotive.

NOTABLES CONCEALED

NEW YORK—If Irvin S. Cobb, Don Marquis, Edgar Lee Masters, and other notables acted as appearing "supers" in the revival of King Henry IV as advertised, they were well disguised. A morning newspaper calls the parade of notables "a ragged, and comical array of military incompetence, as one may hope to see," but couldn't distinguish personalities, taking the programs say so that they appeared.

Beans Invade South Africa

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—The Boston baked bean has migrated again—this time to South Africa, where it is displacing native dishes.
The General Federation of Workmen's Clubs was informed by a Buenos Aires correspondent. Corned beef and cabbage and other culinary idiosyncrasies of the U. S. have joined the invasion, but disguised with Spanish names.

So Fast Cook a hot breakfast now in 3 to 5 minutes

QUICK QUAKER cooks in less time than it takes you to prepare plain toast.

That means a hot, nourishing breakfast in a hurry.

It means an excellently balanced ration; combining protein, carbohydrates and vitamins—plus the "bulk" to make laxatives less often needed—cooked and served without mess or bother.

Why go on with less nourishing foods? Quaker Oats and milk is the dietetic urge of today. Start every day that way.

Your grocer has Quick Quaker—also Quaker Oats as you have always known them.

CHICAGO—Water alone will sustain George Hunter Johnston on an attempted thirty day hike from Chicago to New York. Start- ing today he expects to consume five gallons of water a day of his perforation and to get 12,334 steps to the goal.

NOTHING HAPPENED

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The much heralded debate of evolution attracted a group of newspaper men with but a small audience. "The most conspicuous group was the newspaper men waiting for something to happen," said the Charlotte Observer. Nothing happened.
