Every Bride Loves A Pretty Home

--- Whether She Is A Bride of a Few Days or of Many Years

Every woman, regardless of the outside activities and interests she may have, loves and wants a pretty home. There is nothing that gives her more pleasure and more joy in life than an attractive home in which she can have just pride.

She may be the bride of a few days who thrills with the pleasant duty of home-making, or she may be the bride of many years who has anticipated most keenly the time when she could refurnish her house and at last have it measure up to her ideals of what a lovely home should be.

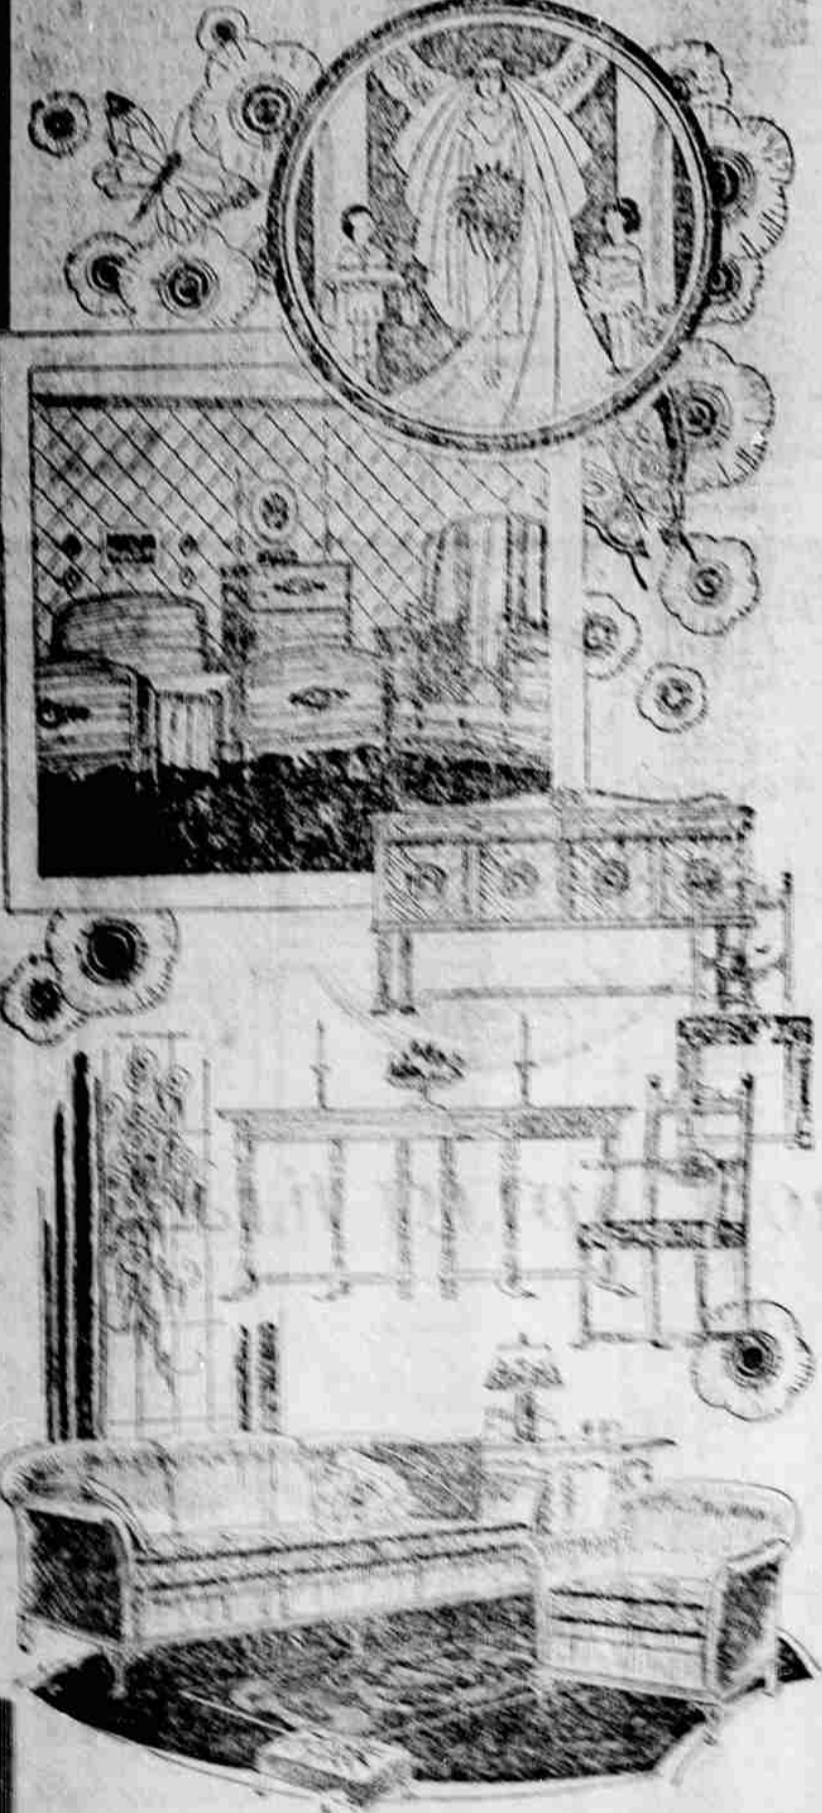

It is the most worthy aspiration you can have, because your home is the center of your family and your friendships. It deserves to be a place that you can enjoy and be proud of now and all the years to come. Nothing is too good for home-making in your effort to make it comfortable, pretty, and in good taste.

We have always insisted that every piece of furniture in our large stock be selected with that in mind. Quality is extremely important because your furniture investment is one that should endure a life-time. Period designs, proper color combinations, materials that are dependable, finished pieces that provide comfort and utility—these are some of the things assured when you select Bohnenkamp's Superior Furniture. Every item is guaranteed.

So it is that you may come here with utmost confidence, whether you are a bride of today or of forty years ago, to solve your problem of a better home. New suites, new rugs, new individual pieces are ready to be shown. The prices are as attractive as the furniture.
