Last year rayon was somewhat of a novelty, but this year it has established itself as a most desirable fabric for informal daytime frocks. The rayon frocks in this group are appropriate to do housework in, yet they are good looking enough to wear downtown or for a morning visit to one's neighbor.

CLUB FIGHTING FISH WHEELS

Coming on the heels of the action taken by the state senate in convention in Baker yesterday, when the movement to abolish commercial fish wheels, seines and the like was endorsed, a called meeting of the Wing, Fin and Foot club was held here in La Grands hardware last night to discuss the proposition.

Members in attendance were told that fish wheels, which catch more fish than the 2800 American citizens who patrol the streams each year with hook and line, are now existent only in Oregon. All other states have abolished commercial fishing of this sort.

The statement that abolishment of fish wheels would practically wreck the industry in Oregon, was answered with the declaration that paid fishermen could supply the plants with fish as well as do the wheels.

Petitions are out all over the state asking that the measure go before the voters in November, sponsored by the Oregon State Labor, and the Oregon Fish Commission. Five hundred signatures are needed in La Grande and at present, with petitions at the Club Cigar store, the Ellis Barber shop and the Toggery, more than 250 signatures have been obtained.

Voice Replaces Fists as Family's Breadwinner

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 3. (AP)—A woman's contralto voice is to substitute for the big fists of "Billy" Mike, heavyweight pugilist, who died two years ago, as the bread winner for three of the fighter's children.

Mike died nearly penniless after heavy losses of his prize ring earnings in investments. Immediately Mrs. Mike began training the voice. She appeared here last night in her first recital and received an ovation.

Mike fought Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, three times—fighting the last unsuccessful battle despite a long illness in an effort to retrieve his financial losses.

They say I'm "fussy"

WELL, let that go. I'm ready to admit that so far as pipe tobacco is concerned, I've got ideas. And if insisting on a tobacco that won't bite the tongue or parch the throat is "being fussy," you can write "guilty" alongside my name, and I won't even appeal the charge.

I can't speak for anybody else, but personally I smoke for pleasure! So I smoke Prince Albert. I'll say I do. Right after breakfast, on up until I switch off the light for the night. Pipe-load after pipe-load. Day after day. Prince Albert treats my tongue as gently as a mother handles a brand-new baby.

They tell me it's the Prince Albert process that cuts out bite and parch. Fair enough. I'll testify before the well-known world that P. A. is the coolest, sweetest, most genuinely friendly smoke a fellow can get on this planet. You suspect that the minute you throw back the hinged lid on the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco.

Now, I'm telling you to be fussy about your smoking. Many a pipe-smoker has fooled himself when he should have been soothing himself with P. A. I say it pays to be fussy about anything that means so much to a man. What do you think?

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-pound tin humidor, and pound crystal glass humidor with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Ira Dern Wins Match From Stanley Buresh

PORTLAND, Ore., June 2. (AP)—Ira Dern, of Salt Lake City, won the first fall from Stanley Buresh, of Dodge City, Neb., with an airplane spin last night after one hour 2 minutes and 40 seconds of rapid fire mat acrobatics.

Up to the very last second Buresh had wrestled on even terms with the winner, in fact had a shade the better in an unusually hard, rough contest. Buresh's leg was partially paralyzed for a short time after the fall.

Bob Meyers, of Portland, won a fast preliminary welterweight match by throwing Cecil Barrett, of Grants Pass, twice.

Tod Morgan to Defend His Title in New York

NEW YORK, June 3. (AP)—The junior lightweight championship, one of the fist world's most elusive crowns, will link the East and Far West in gloved conflict tonight, with Steve (Kid) Sullivan, of New York, seeking to wrest the mantle from Tod Morgan, of Seattle, in a fifteen-round battle.

It is only a little more than a year ago that Sullivan sat on the throne now occupied by Morgan. After a brief reign, the New York fighter before the onslaught of Mike Ballerino, of Bayonne, N. J., a fighter Sullivan previously had knocked out in five rounds, Ballerino's regime had extended over a period of only eight months when he met Morgan, in San Francisco, last December. Morgan lifted the diadem by a decisive victory scoring via a technical knockout in the fourth round.

The fight brings the new champion to the east for the first time in his career to give Sullivan a chance to regain the 130-pound peak. Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., mixes with Tommy Burns, Detroit heavyweight in the ten-round semi-final.

GUARDSMEN SHOOT MAN

SEATTLE, (AP)—Paul Pietrowsky was fatally wounded by machine gun fire from the coast guard cutter 269, near Anacortes, Wash. The commander of the coast guard vessel reported that Pietrowsky refused to stop his launch when hailed by the cutter and that he was shot in the leg after he had threatened guardsmen with a shotgun. Pietrowsky died on the 269 en route to a hospital at Port Townsend. No liquor was found on the launch.
