THE SABBATH SIGN—"And the Lord spake saying, Verily, my sabbaths ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you."

An educated man earns four times as much as an uneducated man, and knows forty times as many ways to spend it.

With a national election looming up as it is, you can't blame congress for trying to get just a little hysterical about helping the farmer.

Possibly those boyish bobs are another bid for masculine attention. They know you'll have to look twice to see whether they're boys or girls.

Now that the geographical pole, the magnetic pole and the pole of inaccessibility are accounted for, some intrepid explorer ought to locate the pole the aurora borealis lights are hung on.

SANE ATHLETICS FOR GIRLS.

The women's division of the Amateur Athletic association wants to end athletic competition among young women. The present competitive system, especially in football and basketball, is declared to result in "ruthless physical destruction."

This is mere common sense. Many women's colleges avoid open competition in studies because they find that, when it is permitted, many girl students work too hard and injure their health. There is still more reason for avoiding strenuous, heart-breaking physical contests.

BACK THE STOCK SHOW.

There is every reason why every man and woman in Union county should swell with just pride, at this time, because of the recent move of the directors of the Union Live Stock Show association which resulted in the incorporation of that organization as an educational institution.

Who knows but there will be a clamoring for membership in this worthy Union county aggregation of stock enthusiasts from Seattle, Portland, Utah, Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, California, Arizona, Nevada and even Canadian points?

It behooves the residents and citizens of this county, therefore, to set the example for stock fanciers of those other states, if we want to make the Union Live Stock show one of the biggest annual events in the west.

Aside from the meritorious aspect, there is a selfish motive which may, in these times when a dollar still only seems to go as far as fifty cents used to go, religiously impel us in taking out memberships. That is the claim of the board of directors of the show that if one lives two years after taking out a life membership, one will "beat" the cost of the membership as a result of the free admissions accorded members or stockholders.

OFFICE CAT
By Jennie
Actor (taking a walk in the country): Hello, little girl, could you get me a drink? I'm very thirsty; you see, I'm an actor and am not used to long walks.

Girl (who is milking cow): MAW! There's a man out here says he's an actor and he wants a drink.

THE MAW: Actor, did you say? You come right in the house and bring the cat in with you!

Another good way to retain the love of a husband is to warn him in time that you have painted the kitchen chairs.

A man who appeared at a police court could not be persuaded to stop talking. Eventually, however, the magistrate managed to get in a short sentence.

A colored agent was summoned before the insurance commissioner. "Don't you know," said the commissioner, "that you can't sell life insurance without a state license?"

"Boss," said the darkey, "you said a mouffil, I knowed I couldn't sell it, but I didn't know the reason."

Six billion bananas were brought into this country last year; but it doesn't make any difference now. The song is dead and forgotten.

Lucky human a man is. If he offers a woman his seat she admires his politeness; if he does not, she admires his nerve.

A village is a place where there isn't much to do on Sunday afternoon except take another nap.

They didn't know what to call the baby, but they finally decided on "Bill" because he came on the first of the month.

Nice thing about the present dance steps is that you can't tell if the dancers are drunk or sober.

GOVE OBSERVES MEMORIAL DAY; PARADE FORMED

GOVE. (Special)—Memorial day was observed with appropriate ceremonies. A short program, arranged by the American Legion auxiliary of post No. 64, was held at the Odd Fellows hall. The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church sang; The Rev. Mr. Sully gave the invocation; Willard Peck sang a solo, accompanied by Lucille Peck at the piano, who also gave a reading; Mrs. Jas. Houston Jr., sang and Allen Mills gave a reading, "On Flanders Field." The Rev. William Murray Bradner gave the address of the day.

Following the program, dinner was served. The proceeds to be used for beautifying the cemetery. A parade, led by the American Legion, moved to the cemetery, where veterans' graves were decorated.

Several people from out of town were here for the services. They were: Dunham Wright and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Powers, of Medical Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kall and two children, of Perry; Mr. and Mrs. A. Wardell, of Island City; and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoax and family of Freewater.

Memorial Day Observed At Promise on Sunday

PROMISE. (Special)—Memorial day was fittingly observed at Promise May 30. The Rev. P. G. Potter delivered the address in the forenoon. At noon a basket dinner was served to about 100 people and in the afternoon all proceeded to the cemetery. The line of march was led by Mr. Potter, carrying the flag and ten couples of small children carrying baskets of flowers and small flags. At the cemetery Mr. Potter spoke a few words and the children sang "America."

The granite members sang "Just Before the Battle Mother," after which the graves were decorated. The old soldiers are buried in the little cemetery here. Menzer P. Bond, a federal soldier, and G. W. Carper, a confederate veteran of the Civil war.
