Young Wife Afraid To Eat Anything

"I was afraid to eat because I always had stomach trouble afterwards. Since taking Adierka I can eat and feel fine." (signed) Mrs. A. Howard. ONE spoonful Adierka removes GAS and often brings "stomach relief" to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Removes old waste matter from intestines which you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation. The L. & L. Drug Co.—Adv.

La Grande Theatres

Startling Scene Is Shown in "Girl of Gold"

Some of the most thrilling scenes ever recorded by a camera were shot for the Regal Picture "The Girl of Gold," starring Florence Vidor, which comes to the Sherry theatre today only. These scenes were taken in a mine where an explosion occurs during the progress of a society dance, given on the sixteenth level of the mine. The sequence is truthfully executed in every detail. Miners were employed and they used drills, dynamite and other paraphernalia. The rescue of the hero and heroine, imprisoned beneath the cave-in, is said to be a masterpiece of direction. Supporting Miss Vidor in "The Girl of Gold" are Malcolm McGregor, Alan Roscoe, Claire DuGrey and Anna Chapin with the scenario by Kate Corbaley. It was directed by John Ince. In this picture Miss Vidor appears as a blonde for the first time in her long screen career. Comedy showing "A Sweet Pickle."

Dog Picture Opens at Star Today

"The greatest dog picture ever made," that is the claim made for the latest Gotham production "His Master's Voice" which with Thunder, the Marvel Dog as its star, opens at the Star theatre today for a three day run. In addition to this wonderful canine actor there is a stellar cast of human actors with Mary Carr, Marjorie Daw and George Hackathorne at head of a long list of well known favorites. The story of "His Master's Voice" was written by Frank Power Day, its author and trainer of "Thunder" and considered America's greatest expert on police dogs. It tells of a young man whose upbringing has resulted in his being a physical coward toward to fault of his own. He is suddenly taken from the comfort of his own home and placed in the front line trenches in France during the great war. Here his regeneration takes place by the silent and faithful efforts of his dog pal.

The battle scenes in this picture showing Thunder under fire are spectacular in the extreme and the dog's wonderful intelligence is demonstrated in hundreds of ways. There are light touches of comedy and great moments of drama with a couple of real lively fights to make things exciting. All lovers of dogs and all real picture fans will find a delightful evening's entertainment when "His Master's Voice" is shown.

Historical Picture, "The Iron Horse," At the Arcade

William Fox has again done the seemingly impossible and smashed all past records with a supremely great, soul-stirring, realistic drama which rings true as the sound of a silver bell. "The Iron Horse," which came to the Arcade theatre last night for a run of four days, is a John Ford production. The program might truthfully have added that it was produced under the inspiring auspices of the shades of Lincoln and those great early Railroad Empire Builders, who were they alive today, would be among the first to step up to the box-office to see themselves as the Fox epic shows them. There is a God, dreams DO come true, and there IS a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. In "The
