Skinny Men Glad

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamines that make flesh, create appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and puts good solid flesh on skinny men and women.
But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it, for doctors are prescribing and people are fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which Red Cross Drug Store, Glass Drugs and drugists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days, and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist is authorized to refund the purchase price.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets

"Mike" Is Orgy of Mirth And Thrills

The Marshall Neelan of the old days of "Dinky," "Helene of Sun-nybrook Farm," and "Minnie" is back!

His latest picture "Mike" which he made for "Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer" is playing at the Sherry theater, and in it Neelan again reverts to the type of picture that made him famous as a director. His famous sense of humor, his Irish wit, sprinkled with a generous supply of her interest, are all in evidence, proving that with this type of picture Neelan never has been and will not soon be surpassed.

The entire story covers a period of only two days in the lives of an old section hand, his three young children, his elder daughter, Mike, her sweetheart, and the inhabitants of the little desert town in which they live. With these characters, Neelan has made a picture that for sheer humor and thrills challenges any ever produced. In fact, when the audience is not doubled up with laughter it is gripping the individual theater chairs with suspense.

Charlie Murray, that lovable old character actor, plays "Timmy," the father of Mike, and is as Irish as his name. Never has he appeared to such advantage. With Murray is one other noted comedian, Ford Sterling as "Shultz." Both contribute to the general fun of the picture, playing their roles in all seriousness, thus making them doubly funny.

Neelan introduces a new find as Mike in the person of the piquant Sally O'Neill. She exhibits a rare beauty and an individuality that will doubtless carry her far. William Haines plays opposite her as "Harlan" in his usual capable manner.

Also showing "Mouline Hat", An Indian Classic.

Richard Dix Farce Comedy Opens at Arcade

Richard Dix's latest picture, "Let's Get Married," is being shown at the Arcade theater today and Tuesday. It's one of those things known as a sure fire hit.
Lois Wilson is seen to advantage in the featured role. Gregory La Cava, who is principally remembered for "Womanhand" and "The Dix comedy which preceded this one, directed it as his second Paramount production.

"Let's Get Married" is farce comedy right from the very first title. The action starts when Dix and a couple of pals are seen in front of a night club, his monkey and a street cleaner—the sextet engaged in singing "Sweet Adeline." Their Alma Mater has just won a great football victory, and they are helping to celebrate.

After being arrested for having disturbed the peaceful quiet of the night club with a big brawl and free-for-all, Richard promises in reform and become what his father wants him to be—a successful hymn book salesman. Then he meets Lois, and renews his vows of chastity to her.

Our hero goes to call of his first prospective "J. W. Smith," purchasing agent for missionaries, expecting to find a quiet dignified gentleman, he equips himself with concert tickets. Imagine his surprise to find that "J. W." is a woman, and what a woman! Edna May Oliver has the time of her life. She insists on going to a night club, and they land in the same one where Richard is known for only two things—trouble and fighting. The inevitable happens.
Lois enters and Dix exits—to the

Kit Carson Picture To Show at Star During Week

In presenting "With Kit Carson Over The Great Divide," which comes to the Star theater Tuesday and Wednesday Anthony J. Nydus, the producer, has truly a real all-star cast. Reading the cast of the picture is like reading a page from the Hollywood Blue Book of screen satellites.

Roy Stewart, Henry B. Walthall, Marguerite Snow, Sheldon Lewis, Earle Metcalfe, Billy Franey, Charlette Stevens, Nelson Me-Dowell, Jack Mower, Arthur Ho-telling and Lew Meekin, are all players with national reputations and followings. Even for the smallest hits in the picture, actors were employed who usually are playing the biggest roles in ordinary pictures.

From every important producing company they were drawn for their particular role, and if the role called for such and such a type—and the type proved to be a star—that particular star was hired regardless of his salary—and the demand of the company owning the star's exclusive service. The result is an ensemble of artistic screen merit that has seldom been surpassed.

In the production itself the same particular care was exercised, even to the costumes, sets and locations, whatever was the best obtainable was put into the picture. The entire company was carried to many of the exact locations in California where the real expedition passed in 1843.

This picture promises to be a rare treat, as it does with a thrilling bit of actual history of the early frontier days, before the advent of telegraph, telephone, rail-

SAUSAGES INVESTIGATED of "satelecha," a sausage extremely popular in Cuba, have had a sad awakening. Officers of the sanitary bureau who inspected an establishment operated by Chinese made from the meat of cats and dogs. Legal proceedings are to be taken against the proprietors.
