

The NEWEST PANAMAS

Just out of the packing cases and new as the season itself are these finely woven Panamas.

You'll wear such a hat, not for one or two, but three and four seasons. They're very economical.

Oregon Butter in Use In Frisco, Los Angeles

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7. (AP)—San Francisco and Los Angeles were heavy users of Oregon butter during the month just passed.

The Hay City market depended on Oregon for the bulk of her outside supply. Approximately 442,754 pounds were brought in from this state.

Los Angeles used 434,548 pounds of Oregon butter during May. The largest part of her outside supply, however, was obtained from Idaho with Oregon second.

Oregon is also the largest shipper of cheese to the southern state.

CAPITOL SEES FISTIC FRAY

WASHINGTON, June 7. (AP)—An exchange of blows, the throwing of an ink well and a glass of water, occurred today at the capitol in a fight between Representative Rankin, democrat, Mississippi, on one side, and Commissioner Frederick A. Penning, of the district of Columbia, and his counsel, Frank J. Hogan, on the other.

The encounter was staged before the house judiciary committee, where an investigation of Mr. Penning's administration is under way.

Mr. Hogan received a slight injury above the left temple, but the participants were separated before others were hurt.

Representative Rankin admitted the throwing of the ink well, Hogan the throwing of the glass of water, and Penning said he did all in his power to reach Rankin with his fists but was unsuccessful.

Rankin said some one had struck him, and that he thought it was Penning.

The fight was precipitated when Rankin became angered over an interruption by Hogan to his line of questions.

Representative Rankin is acting as committee prosecutor in place of Representative Blanton, democrat, of Texas who presented the case against Penning.

The inquiry has been directed especially into the treatment of Insane war veterans for whom Penning was acting as guardian.

Many Spectators. The committee room was packed with spectators who were thrown into an uproar.

Rankin said he understood Hogan's reference to an outburst of statement was aimed at him personally, while a number of committee members said they understood it to apply to the charge that had been brought against Penning.

After Representative Dyer, republican, Missouri, had said he considered Rankin had "treated this committee disgracefully" and after Rankin had announced he wished to apologize, his action had been disapproved.

CHICAGO (AP)—Life savers started the 1926 season with a perfect record. Sixteen men and boys, thrown into Lake Michigan by Sunday squalls along the north shore, all were rescued.

The city now has a population of about 1100, but during the best days of the lumber industry, it had a population of not less than 1500.

The importance of the city was also enhanced by the fact that it was the railroad terminus for many years, and the shipping point for all Wallowa county products.

Before the extension of the railroad there was a continuous stream of freight teams during good weather coming from and going to Wallowa county points.

Elgin then had seven church buildings, seven saloons, several livery barns and it was no uncommon scene to see the freight wagons parked on Wallowa avenue in almost one continuous line extending from the bridge across the river west to Front street.

The school, a two-story frame building located on the present site, where grades up to the eighth were taught, that was later replaced by the present building.

The city had grown to such commercial importance that a bank was located here in 1898, capitalized $2,000,000, later increased to $5,000,000.

The railroad was extended in the fall of 1909, this making market for Wallowa products at home and taking them away from Elgin.

As the timber in the immediate vicinity of Elgin began to be used, the mills stopped working one by one until there are only a very few left, but although the lumber around Elgin has been used, the timber farther out has not been and it will make marketable timber in the future years.

As the city grew and the highway was extended through it, people saw the need of good sidewalks, so the board sidewalks of the town were replaced by paved ones.

The highway that extended through this section was made into a gravel highway in 1924.

The park of Elgin is a very good tourist park. There is a river front on the east side and excellent campgrounds for tourists.

As the city increased in size and importance, the need of more education was seen, so the brick building was constructed in 1905 and we have a high school as well as a grade school.

Four teachers are employed in high school and eight in the grades. The Elgin high school educates many pupils from the farming community surrounding Elgin.

Elgin has a city hall that was built in 1912. It is the best opera house in the county and the citizens are very proud of it.

SHERRY'S TODAY And TOMORROW MARSHALL NEILAN'S uproarious success based on his own story 'MIKE' featuring the new wonder girl Sally O'Neill with FORD STERLING, CHARLES MURRAY WILLIAM HAINES Here is the greatest combination of laughs and gasps ever filmed!

Dr. Holland Speaks at O. A. C. Commencement CORVALLIS, Ore., June 7. (AP) Two things—education, and the Volstead act, are primarily responsible for the economic prosperity of America, Dr. E. O. Holland, president of Washington State college, declared in an address at the commencement exercises of the Oregon Agricultural college here today. CONDITIONS ON UPGRADE, BANKERS OF STATE INSIST Two conditions over the country are improving while prospects for the immediate future appear bright was the general talk among the bankers who attended the state meeting at Gearhart, Ore., last week, according to H. E. Coudrige, of the La Grande National bank, Mr. Coudrige, with T. J. Scroggin, of the United States National, and J. T. Hutchinson, of Union, returned early today. Farm conditions in Oregon appear to be satisfactory in all sections, Mr. Coudrige continued. The bankers look with hope upon the educational campaign regarding banking, finance and credit that is being carried on in the state in co-operation with the movement of the American Bankers' association. Of all numbers on the program, the most interesting was probably the talk on "Ology" by Cameron Beck, personal superintendent of the Stock Exchange, he said. Even if a man isn't his brother's keeper, there are times when he thinks his brother needs one.

A Reputation for Attention to the Details of Perfection To those people of Union county who have experienced the superiority of Bohnenkamp's funeral service, it is well known that nowhere outside of the larger metropolitan centers is there an establishment giving such expert attention to the details of perfection as is found here. Although a business institution, yet ours is a service institution also, and more care is taken with meeting your needs in a dignified, sympathetic manner than anything else. It is extremely comforting to know that a funeral handled by our expert and specially trained staff will be all that you could wish it to be as a final tribute to a loved one. Costs are sufficiently low so that they do not become a burden at a time when expenses are often already heavy. We invite consultation whenever the need arises. Hal Bohnenkamp, Funeral Director Free Ambulance and Hearse Service "Union County's Oldest Undertaking Establishment."
