She Took the Bath

Joyce Hawley—now famous as the girl who took the bath at that party of Earl Carroll's in that tub which contained champagne—leaving court after telling the judge she was drunk and "You had to be feeling pretty to do a thing like that." Carroll was convicted and sentenced.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary) Breakfast—Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, creamed dried beef on toast, radishes, crisp graham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Mashed cheese with rice, lettuce sandwiches, rhubarb sauce, plain cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Veal cutlets, macaroni baked with tomatoes, new beets, strawberry salad, toasted crackers, Roquefort cheese, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

If no small children are to be served a ready-to-serve cereal is suggested for breakfast. Heat this cereal in the oven until it's as crisp and hot as can be.

You will like cool, scarlet radishes with your creamed dried beef. They should be chilled over night in water in the ice box.

Strawberry Salad

One teaspoon granulated gelatin, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 cup ginger ale, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 lemon (juice), 1 cup strawberries, 1 banana, French dressing, lettuce.

Soften gelatin in cold water for ten minutes. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add ginger ale, sugar and lemon juice. When cool and beginning to jelly stir in strawberries, hulled, washed and cut in thin slices. Turn into a mold and let stand on ice for several hours until thoroughly chilled and firm. Turn out into a bed of lettuce and serve with French dressing. Garnish with fine large berries.

Mme. Melba In Farewell Concert

LONDON, June 9. (AP)—Millions of persons last night heard over the radio the beautiful voice of Nellie Melba, the "Australian nightingale" as she sang at a farewell performance in Convent Garden, selections from operas in which she gained her fame many years ago.

King George and Queen Mary were seated in the royal box and the house was filled with an audience which included a great number of notables. The king and queen during one of the intermissions summoned Nellie to their box shook hands with her warmly and congratulated her on her performance. They also wished her happiness in her retirement from the stage. Mme. Melba was presented by Queen Mary with a bouquet of pink carnations and mauve sweet peas, which had been prepared especially for the occasion.

Much interest had been aroused over the last appearance of the famous singer and as a consequence, persons desiring seats for the performance waited in line from 10 o'clock Monday night until the doors opened last night. The usual price for seats had been nearly trebled but nevertheless, the big house was packed from floor to ceiling. The program included selections from "Iphigenia," "Tomeo and Juliet," and "Othello."

Mme. Melba was born in Melbourne, Australia, about 77 years ago. In recognition of her work on behalf of the British soldiers during the war she was made a dame of the British empire. She is retiring from the stage after a career of nearly 40 years.
