Billy Evans Says:

TOO MUCH SUCCESS
Last season Catcher Mickey Cochrane of the Athletics was the sensation of the majors.
Not in years has a recruit caught away to such a phenomenal start in all departments of the game.
Playing in any or parts of 114 games last season, displacing Cochrane as catcher as Cy Perkins, Cochrane finished the season with batting average well over .300.
This year the fans doped him to look up right where he left off last year. When he failed to keep up the sensational batting that featured his first year's play, he heard more instead of cheers for the first time as the fans growling.
Despite a poor getaway, Cochrane is normally a .300 batsman and will soon be back among the best.

HARD TO EXPLAIN
Walter Pipp, former star first-baseman of the New York Yankees, adding more than his mite to the me showing being made by the Cincinnati Reds.
All of which makes it more difficult than ever to determine how Pipp was ever waived out of the American League.
There is a dearth of good first basemen in the majors today, and so competent a player as Pipp would be waived out, only to be picked up by the National League. It always remain something of a mystery.
Pipp's play in the field has caused the Cincinnati infield and his has been thrilled with his hitting, his average to date is close

DISCARDS SHINE

It has long been an accepted theory in baseball that a club has a chance for the pennant must get the best of catching.

During the first two months of play in the majors, the showings of Cincinnati in the National and New York in the American have been the two outstanding feats.
It is a rather interesting fact that in each instance the catching has been done almost entirely by two discards.

HORNBY'S TASK
Will the added responsibility of managing a major league ball club defeat the desire of Rogers Hornby to top Ty Cobb's record of leading a major league in batting for nine successive years?
Cobb piled up such a remarkable performance in the American league prior to taking up the managerial reins at Detroit.
Last season was Hornby's first as manager. Since he took the club's direction after it had got away to a very poor start, the showing of the club for the year didn't enter into his worries to any great extent.

This year it's different. The Cardinals, backed by a majority of the experts as the "dark horse" of the National league race, have failed to live up to expectations.
No doubt this has been a distinct disappointment to Hornby who figured only two clubs in the league as superior to his team, Pittsburgh and New York.

PIPERMAKER STABBED
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Piper of the peacekeeper—J. R. Flaherty, high school janitor, was stabbed in the abdomen when he tried to stop a fight between white and negro school boys. One white boy and four negroes were arrested.

In Los Angeles, a man shot himself because his wife wouldn't cook instead of because she would.

He's Winning Games Now

This is "Jumbo Jim" Elliott, formerly with the Brooklyn Dodgers, but now pitching for the Seattle Indians in the Pacific Coast League. Elliott, who is one of the game's biggest hitters, weighing 247 pounds is having a great season. He opened the chase with nine straight victories. Mayhap the Dodgers could find use for him.

U. S. GOLFERS DISQUALIFIED

LIVERPOOL, June 10. (AP)—George Gadd, British golfer, won the British northern professional tournament, which ended here today, with an aggregate of 286 for the 72 holes of stroke play.

LIVERPOOL, June 10. Walter Hagen, who was also late but not as badly delayed as the other two, was allowed to continue.

William Robertson, a British player, who also disqualified for late starting. Barnes, Kirkwood, and Hagen were allowed to play the morning round under protest while their cases were considered. The starter at the first tee stated that Hagen responded when his name was called, and this resulted in the committee allowing him to continue to play.

TITLE MATCH DUE TONIGHT

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—Paul Berlenbach, the fighting champion, takes his light heavyweight crown across the danger line when he faces Billy (Young) Stribbling of Atlanta, Ga., in a 15 round battle at Yankee stadium tonight.

But Berlenbach never has gone to the dugouts with his title since winning it from Mike McPhee at the same stadium a year ago, and among the men against whom he has defended it successfully is Jack Delany of Bridgeport, Conn., considered by many the "uncrowned champion" of more than one division.

That bout with Delany was held last for previously Berlenbach had gone to the canvas for the full count from a paralyzing punch delivered by that same opponent. Again in that recent meeting came the terrific shot the driving right of the Canadian, and again Berlenbach went down, but it was not as before, for the champion gained his feet and fought desperately to a win.

Critics believe that Berlenbach will have the advantage if he continues with the aggressiveness that made him famous a continuous drive with both hands, with an outstanding power in his left. But he will find Stribbling hard to hit and at the same time hard to avoid, for Paul is not the fastest man in the ring.

Stribbling is the younger man by three years and has gained most of his experience in battle. He possesses two good hands with a right most effective, but he never has been considered an aggressive fighter. Tonight perhaps, with a championship at stake, he may gamble, for he knows full well that aggressiveness, in the form of unrelenting attack, has been awarded many a victory in New York state.

The Atlantic is growing and feels that some day he will come face to face with the champions of all the heavyweights, probably Dempsey. He has asserted that he expects to knock out Berlenbach and there are many to side with him. Although the champion is likely to carry slight odds to the ringside, with him, two great champions—Harry Greb of the middle weights and Mickey Walker welter, have gone down this year, and it may be Berlenbach's turn.

"I TELL YOU THIS KARNAK SURE IS REAL MEDICINE"

"Why, It Ended My Stomach Troubles and Built Me Up to Perfect Health—What More Could A Person Ask?" Says Cheney.

J. R. B. CHENEY
"I tell you, Karnak ended my stomach trouble and built me up to perfect health, so what more could a person ask," declares J. R. B. Cheney, of 4815 E. 7th St., S. E., Portland, Ore.
"For four months my stomach was upset all the time and caused me no little suffering with indigestion," continues Mr. Cheney. "Why, gas would form on my stomach so bad after eating that it kept me heaving and gagging for hours. I'd have heartburn, too, and felt miserable and out of sorts all the time."
"I felt drowsy and sluggish, but when I'd go to bed I couldn't sleep, and I couldn't find anything that seemed to reach my case."
"But, believe me, this Karnak is real medicine. Why, I improved right along on every dose until now I'm on my third bottle and my appetite is fine, and my digestion is perfect. And all that heavy, full feeling in the pit of my stomach is gone as well as the gas and heartburn."

RELEASE FIRST LOAD OF BIRDS

More than 300 young Chinese and Mongolian pheasants, the first of third shipment coming to Union county from the state game farm at Pendleton, were freed at two points near La Grande this morning—four and eight miles out, respectively. The birds were released by employees of the game farm assisted by Game Warden John Walden and A. V. Andrews, representing the Wm. Pitt and Meadford Club.
The truckload of birds arrived here at approximately eight o'clock this morning and were all freed before nine o'clock.
The Mongolian pheasants, similar to the Chinese type, are said to grow much larger. A Mongolian hen will weigh approximately a pound and a half more at maturity than her cousin, the Chinese hen.
Some Hingarian pheasants are to be released here either on the second or third shipment. The Observer is informed.
