CROP REPORT IS FAVORABLE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10. (AP)—Absence of beneficial rainfall over much of the state caused material reduction in Oregon grain crop prospects during the month of May, says P. L. Kent, statistician, United States department of agriculture.

The northwestern part of the state had more than the normal amount of May rainfall, which, however, is normally light, being about 2 inches at the Portland weather bureau station. The coast counties had sufficient rainfall to interfere with May planting, and delayed haying to some extent.

Some frost damage is reported in the higher altitudes of the eastern portion of the state.

Wheat Suffers

Oregon winter wheat suffered a decline during May from 57 per cent of normal to 59, indicating a reduction in the May 1 estimate of production from 19,624,000 bushels to 17,757,000 bushels. The Washington and Idaho crops also show a falling off in condition of 3 and 6 points, respectively, in condition thus reducing the May 1 estimate for the three Pacific northwest states from 52,176,000 bushels to 50,913,000 bushels.

Condition of the Oregon spring wheat crop is placed at 89 per cent of normal. Average estimates for the present season have not yet been made, hence production estimates are not available. An estimate of the acreage of all spring planted crops will be made during June and will be available as of July 1.

Good Fruit Crop.

In the aggregate a little better than an average fruit crop for Oregon appears to be in sight for 1926. Certain fruits are lighter than usual while others are materially heavier, says Mr. Kent.

While June 1 is rather early to make approximate estimates for the current crop tentative estimates have been secured from most parts of the state for the 1926 harvest, which show the following:

Apples.

Rogue river district is expected to have a crop about equal to last year. The Willamette valley crop also promises to be about the same as last year, with considerably less tonnage in Lane county and considerably more in Benton. Hood river is expected to have an increase of 700 to 800 cars over last year. Wasco county will probably have about the same sized crop as last year notwithstanding the pulling of acreage in the Intero section. Finlayson county promises 250 to 300 cars more than last year. The remainder of Eastern Oregon will probably produce less than last year.

Pears.

Rogue river district growers and dealers estimate from about the same number of cars as last year to a 20 per cent increase. The Roseburg crop promises some increase over last year, and the Willamette valley generally has a good crop which should show material increase over last year. Hood

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, June 10. (AP)—Moderate improvement of tone is shown in the wool market. There is a little interest in the medium and low grades of spot Ohio wools to be graded at future delivery. Territory half blood continues to have the call for a fair quantity. Medium grades are selling fine and low grades of combing wool have no buyers. Clothing wools, both fleece and territory are quiet. Further new business on tops at steady prices is reported.

Wheat Has Setback in Chicago Market Today

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—Wheat suffered a decided setback in price today, buying power being thin and speculative selling pressure broadening out especially toward the last. Widepread showings together with a sharp break in cash wheat premiums at Kansas City and Omaha had a banishing effect. The government crop report was generally treated as having been discounted in advance.

Stock Prices Turn Up After Irregular Period

NEW YORK, June 10. (AP)—Lower call money rates and an unexpectedly small decrease in the unfilled orders of the U. S. Steel corporation induced sufficient buying in today's stock market to turn the course of prices upward after an early period of irregularity. Trading was in moderate volume, with public interest still relatively small.

BUTTER FAT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10. (AP)—Butterfat c.o.b. San Francisco 44 cents.

PRUNES.

One prominent prune grower says "The amount of the northwest dried prune crop this year will be limited by capacity of the dryers." Some estimate that there is a present prospect of a 90,000,000 pound dried prune crop over on the trees, and the amount that will be moved will depend largely on weather condition, with the maximum estimated at 80,000,000 pounds (including Clarke county, Washington). However, it is expected that harvest will start at least two weeks earlier than usual, so it seems possible the drying season may be longer than usual.

The Milton-Freewater district is expected to produce about 1200 cars of prunes for fresh shipment, as compared with 423 cars shipped last year. Elsewhere in Eastern Oregon the crop will probably not exceed last year's on account of frost.

25-YEAR TERM FAVORED

BUTTER AND EGGS UNCHANGED; HENS IN GOOD DEMAND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10. (AP)—No change in butter and egg quotations on the local board is shown for the day and both commodities show a generally steady tone. Butter receipts yesterday amounted to 28,454 pounds with the make of local creameries reported at 16,488 pounds. Eggs receipts yesterday totaled 1275 cases, with 1129 cases showed into the cooler, bringing Portland holdings up to 50,948 cases.

Demand for country dressed hogs continues keen at 23 cents for choice hogs. Arrivals limited, however. Veal receipts are plenty sufficient to meet requirements and prices are barely maintained at the 15 cent top on choice light calves.

White springs are plentiful again in the local poultry market and prices lower. Commission men quoting 18 to 20 cents for white stock and 26 to 27 cents for colored springs. Hens are in good demand at 21 cents on light fowls and 26 to 27 cents for heavy birds.

BERRY PRICES TUMBLE

CHICAGO, June 10. (AP)—A rush of shipments has tumbled berry prices down about one-third wholesale the government bureau of agricultural economics reported today. Strawberry shipments in the last week have reached a total of 2421 carloads compared with 1822 the week before and 610 a year ago.

Rains came at the right time to save the crop for several shipping sections, but the resulting benefit at the expense of the general price level.

FRUIT

Evaporated apples quiet; apricots and peaches firm; prunes and hops steady; prices unchanged.

SONGS the beautiful old ones... the infectious new ones... sing them to the music of your GULBRANSEN

THE SONGS you sang when you were young—sing them again! The wonderful old hymns on Sunday afternoon... the simple melodies so rich in memories.

The catchy tunes your children hum—bring their music into your home. Make that home a place where brother's chums, sister's beau, all the young folks, love to gather.

Learn the greatest joy of music—the joy of singing to music you play yourselves.

The Gulbransen has made this possible—even though you cannot read a note of music.

The Gulbransen plays by roll. Yet you control its playing. You can accompany voices or other instruments, play fast or slow, accent melody and harmony notes. You can hush the music to a whisper, or release the clear, sweet tones in brilliant volume. It is simple and easy.

You can, in a word, do anything that you could do if you played by hand. This is true of the Gulbransen alone—the only piano of its kind in the world.
