OFFICE CAT
By Jenius

England has cornered the cayenne market. Well, she may have all the pepper, but we have all the pep.

And just a few years ago being knocked was a misfortune instead of a dance.

"I can't sell you any cigarettes, little boy, unless you bring a note from your father."

"But father isn't home, and mother wants them right away."

THESE UNITED STATES
There was a young lady in Gal., With a face that I know would have Ba.
She looked rather neat As she went down the street, But she looked like the deuce coming in.

At an amateur show in Sioux City A lass tried to sing a nixox ditty. And while she can't sing, She put over the thing, Because she is simply Sioux pritty.

There was a young lady from Kans., Who was clever at making up stanzas, But her verse was returned By the editor, spurned, (The response that he usually hank)

Little Bob (about to go out with mother)—"Mamma, you must take some money with you."
Mother—"No, Bob, I'm not going to stay."
Little Bob—"Yes, you must have money for chocolates; I might start crying on the street, you know."

Even a docile and kind-hearted preacher couldn't stand it the other day and sued for divorce, complaining that his wife ate popcorn in bed and let the stray kernels slide down between the sheets.

FEDERAL TAX ON POOL, BOWLING IS OFF ON JUNE 30

PORTLAND, Ore., June 14.—Clyde G. Huntley, collector of Internal Revenue, today called particular attention to the repeal of the federal tax on pool and billiard tables, for hire automobiles, and bowling alleys, effective June 30. Heretofore these taxes have been paid by approximately 1700 taxpayers in this state. Collector Huntley also reminds corporations that, effective on the same date, the capital stock tax has been repealed with the result that some 5000 corporations in this state are relieved from filing capital stock tax returns.

"In fact," collector Huntley points out, "the new revenue law repealed all of the federal occupational taxes, with the exception of that imposed on wholesale and retail liquor dealers, and manufacturers of stills."
