KILLS SELF AFTER TWIN BABIES BORN

a plain case of suicide.

Mrs. Crowl has suffered no apparent setback because of the tragedy, her physicians said this morning.

Babes Healthy

The fatherless babes — now eight days old—are adding healthy ounces to their original six and a half pounds apiece. They will be able to leave the hospital in a short time. But the where-to-go that worries their mother doesn't bother their fuzzy heads.

Their three-year old sister is at the Will Hale home on North Fourth street. Her father took her there after he had brought Mrs. Crowl to the hospital Saturday, June 5. A note from the mother asking him to come and get the child reached Crowl after he was dead.

Mrs. Hale once gave Maybelle's mother a home for three years when the latter was left an orphan. The Hales were living in Summerville then.

Mrs. Crowl thinks she must have brothers and sisters but has no means of tracing them now.

theme being "The Value of Training in Life." The Rev. Hall K. Wallis, dean of the institute, announced the members of the faculty with facts about the teaching equipment of each. Dr. J. A. Glendenning, of the First M. E. church, at Boise, will teach the history of Methodism, he said; Dr. Edward Laird Mills, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, published at Portland, home missions; and Miss Celia Cowan, a former missionary to West China, former missions.

Lela Ensign, who was born in China while her parents were there as missionaries, told of the sports attractions of the Wallowa wonderland, and Nellie Hamilton, another Boise girl, spoke on the program. Misses Muri Gore and Elnora Fines, of La Grande, also addressed the young people. Miss Mabel Doty conducted the Epworth league service.

Dr. Hamilton, Mr. Wallis and the Boise girls are at the campgrounds today making last arrangements for the institute.

Riley Appointed

The Rev. Oliver Riley, rector of St. Peter's church, has been appointed teacher in the Bible history department of the Episcopal summer school by Bishop W. P. Remington, of Portland, to replace the Very Rev. H. H. Powell, dean of the Church of Divinity school, who is ill of pneumonia at San Francisco.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Riley, members of St. Peter's who will leave for Cove this afternoon include Mrs. George Tarkington, Thelma Gray, Virginia Wurl, Virginia Warnick, Howard Sargent, Jay Jones, Billie Snodgrass and Jack Holmes.

Mrs. Annie H. Brown, of Boston, mother of the Rev. Sumner J. Brown, of Prairie City and Canyon City, has arrived in La Grande and will teach one of the advanced courses. She is field secretary of the Massachusetts of religious education.

60 Expected

Most of the 60 Eastern Oregon registrants at the school are expected to be at the Church of the Ascension this evening for the opening dinner meeting. Officers will start Tuesday morning.

Elder Shangle chose the thought "Why I am a Christian" for his sermon from the pulpit of the South Methodist church last evening. A good-sized audience enjoyed the discourse.

Preceding his message, the Epworth leaguers held a meeting with the Christian Endeavor society from the Central Church of Christ as guests.

The Rev. J. A. Hall, pastor, delivered a sermon on "Atonement" before a large congregation in the morning.

NEW YORKERS ARE BLESSED

NEW YORK, June 14. (AP)—A third of a million New Yorkers today have the blessing of Cardinal Bonzano, the pope's personal envoy to the Eucharist congress, extended in what was regarded as the most spectacular and colorful religious parade in the city's history.

A vast throng packed in the street near St. Patrick's cathedral yesterday first viewed him in awe and then cheered with many dropped to their knees while others doffed hats and bowed their heads. Cardinal Bonzano responded by extending his arms in blessing.

The parade consisting of 10,000 soldiers, cadets from parochial schools and members of Catholic organizations, was reviewed by Cardinal Hayes and six visiting cardinals from the Lawn of the Archi-Episcopal residence in the rear of St. Patrick's.

High dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church continued to arrive here today from distant lands to attend the Eucharistic congress in Chicago.

CRASH KILLS TWO

VANCOUVER, Wash June 14. (AP)—Lieutenant Julius C. Hyford, of Hanford, Wash., who was injured when Lieut. Henry W. Goode was killed in an airplane crash at Pearson Field late Saturday, died last night at 11:35 at the Post Hospital. Lieut. Hyford was a reserve officer attached to the quartermaster corps and has been on active duty here for some time.

GIRL IS KILLED

SEATTLE, June 14. (AP)—Alberta Legge, 15, a Seattle high school girl, was swept to her death over the 275 foot sunset falls near Index, Wash., yesterday.

Leaping from rock to rock at the top of the falls while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Legge, and two brothers, were sitting nearby, the girl slipped and was hurled over the cataract, which falls 60 miles an hour. The water fall has claimed the lives of twenty men who attempted to leap it in boats.

SPOKANE ACCIDENT FATAL

SPOKANE, Wash., June 14 (AP)—One woman was instantly killed, two were hurt and five other persons escaped injury in an auto collision here yesterday. Both cars overturned.

Mrs. Susie Carr, 50, a widow, suffered a crushed skull when a sedan, driven by her son Clyde Carr, 16, collided with a coupe driven by Mrs. Helen Marchesi, of Kellogg, Ida.

FOUR DROWNED

MARTINEZ, Cal., June 14 (AP)—George P. Jones, 25, station agent, and three 19-year-old youth were drowned when the closed auto they were riding in went over a bridge into 12 feet of water. Walter Frazier, 17, escaped by kicking out a glass.

KLAMATH MAN KILLED.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., June 14 (AP). — Wilford "Happy" Brookfield, 30, of Klamath Falls, was instantly killed early yesterday morning when his heavy sedan travelling between 40 and 50 miles an hour failed to negotiate a right-hand turn at Malin, 20 miles south of here, and rolled over three times. Brookfield was thrown through the left front door of his car.

Four companions, Miss Juanita Howard, Miss Dorothy Jackson, George C. Solderbach and Leslie Hitch, escaped with only minor bruises. Brookfield occupied a responsible position with a local lumber company.

Company F, of Baker, was also entertained at a farewell dance Saturday evening with a large crowd. The proceeds from their dance will also go toward that company's mess fund.

Union Thanks Press For Stock Show Work

UNION, Ore., June 14. (Special)—The backers of the stock show and all the people of Union who are interested in the show certainly feel grateful to the newspapers of Eastern Oregon, and especially to the La Grande Observer and the local Republican for their generosity in advertising the show this year. Much of the success of this year's show is due to the publicity three papers gave without any thought of pay other than an interest in putting over the show.

Half of Wool Clip in State Has Been Moved

PORTLAND, Ore., June 14 (AP)—With close to 1,000,000 pounds of wool taken during the past week dealers are now of the opinion that about half of the 1926 clip in this state has been sold. The market still holds at 30 to 31 cents for the best clips.

Some of the local houses have reduced their bids on wool with 32 cents now offered for fine and medium grades delivered Portland. Thirty cents is bid for quarter blood and 20 to 25 cents for eastern Oregon and Washington ranch clips.

During the wool activity the past week, E. J. Burke was the heaviest buyer taking close to 500,000 pounds from Pilot Rock, and the district around Shaniko, Heppner and Condon. Buying so far has been largely of the best grades of wool but other stock has been taken at the same time, although there is slight interest in the lower grades.

No Change in Prices At Beginning of Week

PORTLAND, Ore., June 14 (AP)—Country meat receipts were moderate along the street this morning but most of the commission firms had calves held over from last week and the market was generally steady. Top calves quoted at 14½ to 15 cents and top hogs 20½ to 21 cents.

Offerings of butter are quite liberal but the market is fully maintained by shipments of the surplus to Los Angeles. No change in prices as shown for the beginning of the week. 110 ARRESTED IN SEATTLE RAIDS; 3,000 CHECK OUT

SEATTLE, June 14. (AP)—One hundred and ten persons, including six women were today reported arrested in Seattle over the week end in a cleanup drive instituted by Mayor Bertha Knight Landes, who took office one week ago.

Bootleggers, gamblers and other law violators were said to be leaving the city to seek more secure places for their operations.

Departures of this sort in the week were put by newspapermen at 3000.

Police Searching for Woman Pastor in East

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. June 14. (AP) — Police today began a search for a woman said to resemble Aimee Semple McPherson, missing Los Angeles evangelist, who registered at a lodging house here Saturday night. She left yesterday after informing the housekeeper that she had found a brother and would go visit him. The proprietor of the lodging house told police that the woman, who gave her name as Nason, resembled published photographs of Mrs. McPherson, and admitted that she was an evangelist. She said she had been at Mrs. McPherson's Los Angeles temple on May 18 when the announcement was made that the evangelist had been drowned.

ACTIVE BUYING BOOSTS PRICES BID FOR WHEAT

CHICAGO, June 14 (AP)—Active buying which developed in the wheat market today toward the last brought about rallies from an earlier decline that was due largely to better weather conditions northwest and west. To a considerable extent the increased buying was based on unusually liberal premiums which are being paid for immediate delivery wheat in the face of the new crop movement. An unexpected big decrease of 2,652,000 bushels in the U. S. visible supply total today was also a stimulating factor, offsetting reports of widening harvest operations in Kansas with some cutting of wheat in Nebraska.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as Saturday's finish to ⅝c off; corn 1⅝ to 2⅜c down; oats showing ⅜ to 1⅜c decline and provisions unchanged to 37c lower.
