NEWS of SOCIETY

Williamson Home Scene of Wedding

One of the season's most attractive home weddings was solemnized yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Williamson on Cove avenue, when Miss Eleanor Williamson and Albert J. Leigh, of Portland, were united in marriage by the Rev. Hall K. Wallis, of the Island City Community church.

The only attendants of the bride were her two small nieces, Susan and Margaret Davis, who acted as flower girls and wore dainty organdy frocks in pastel shades. The bride was beautiful in a georgette gown and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. Her wreath of orange blossoms was worn by her mother at her wedding more than forty years ago.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed under an arch covered with lovely flowers in all the dainty colors. Bouquets of the same flowers were used about other parts of the home.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Davis. Only near relatives of the bride were present including Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williamson, of Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hill, of Elgin; Mrs. J. T. Williamson, Mrs. O. B. Hurlburt, Miss Helen Hughes, Mrs. Lina McAllister, Miss Sarah Williamson; Frederick Hill and Susan and Margaret Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh left later in the day by auto on a two weeks' honeymoon trip through Yellowstone national park. They will return to Portland to make their home, where Mr. Leigh is sales manager for the Beaver Lumber company.

Coming Nuptials Are Announced

A wedding of interest to many Union county people will take place Wednesday, June 23, at Corvallis, Ore., when Miss Pearl Sagley, of Corvallis, and Harry Cleaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cleaver, of Imbler, will be united in marriage. Mr. Cleaver, who has been here with his parents, left yesterday for Corvallis, accompanied by his parents.

Mr. Cleaver made his home at Imbler for several years. He graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college, at Corvallis, two years ago. He now has a position in Sacramento, Cal., where they will probably make their home.

Shower Compliments Mrs. Winters

A miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Ray Winters, a recent bride, was a feature of Thursday evening's meeting of the Four-M club, at the home of Miss Bertha Berger. A table, prettily arranged in yellow and black, had as its centerpiece many lovely gifts for the honor guest. Clever place cards and favors in the same colors were also a part of the table decorations. The guests were Mrs. Winters, Mrs. and J. T. Moran, with the Universal company, were in the city over the week end transacting business with Meyers and Bowen of the Arcade and Star theaters.

Leased Filling Station—The Playle Oil company has leased the Highway Filling station on Adams Ave. to George Clay. Mr. Clay took possession this morning.

Left for Portland—Mrs. George Clark and little daughters, Glennis and Juanita, left Saturday night for Portland and Palmer, Oregon, where they will visit relatives. They plan to visit beach points while away also.

Passed Through City—J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the O. W. company, and E. N. Finch, general superintendent, were through the city this morning on their way to Huntington. Their special car was on train No. 24.

Attend Grange Picnic—D. E. Stephens, superintendent of the More exposition station, and Fred Bennion, county agent at Unamilla county, were visitors at the Union county agent's office here Saturday morning. They attended the grange picnic at the Union experiment station Saturday afternoon.

Here over Week End—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Avery here over the week end. Mr. Carpenter, who is agricultural agent in Baker county attended the grange picnic at Union Saturday. About twenty or more delegates from Baker county were present for the picnic.

Reports Sale of Bulls—Dr. W. E. Thist-walt is testing cattle for tuberculosis at Halnes today. He reports that Herbert Chandler of that place, an annual exhibitor at the Union show, has sold a number of fine Hereford bulls from his herd of cattle. They will be shipped to Utah.

Initiation Tonight—The Knights of Pythias will hold initiation this evening at the K. P. hall. The meeting will begin at eight o'clock. Several lodges of the county have been invited to attend and guests are expected from the Elgin, Imbler and Union lodges. This will be the last initiation until after the holidays. A large representation of local knights are expected.

season's flowers in yellow were also used. A delicious lunch was served. Most of the evening was spent visiting. Miss Nellie Zuechet, of Enterprise, was a guest of the evening.

Dr. Ingle Hostess To Clio Club Members

Dr. Margaret Ingle was hostess to the members of the Clio club with a prettily appointed luncheon at 1:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. Garden flowers of the season were arranged about the room and were used as a centerpiece for the luncheon tables.

Bride, at four tables, was the diversion of the afternoon following luncheon. Mrs. Hal Bohne-kamp received high score among the club members and the guest prize went to Mrs. G. L. Larson. Mrs. Elmer Stoddard won the consolation prize.

League Members Enjoy Social Evening

Members of the Luther league of the Zion English Lutheran church were entertained at a delightful social Friday evening in the community room of the church. Mrs. Orela Weber and Mrs. John Lottes were hostesses. About 25 members of the league were present and had a good time at games and singing. Miss Emma Wurl presided at the piano. During the evening Miss Wurl sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Helen Jensen, and Miss Jensen played a piano number.

It was decided to discontinue the Sunday evening devotional meetings of the league until after the summer months. The meetings will be resumed in September. The last meeting was held last evening. Refreshments were served by the hostesses before adjournment.

Longview Couple Married Here

Walter H. Osterberg and Miss Lena Shadlow, both of Longview, Wash., were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church here Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, by the Rev. H. W. Parker, pastor of the church.

They were accompanied by Stella Dunlap and J. H. Morga, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Osterberg left La Grande following the ceremony for Longview, where they will make their home.

W. R. C. Entertains At Dinner

Sixty persons were present for the dinner given by Oliver P. Morton, 101st Corps, Saturday afternoon at the K. P. hall. The regular corps entertains the Grand Army of the Republic veterans at dinner one Saturday in each month, and Saturday was the regular dinner day.

A short business meeting followed the dinner at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Susan Braden presided in the absence of Mrs. Laura Braden, president, who is attending the state convention at Marshfield. The next meeting of the corps will be July 17.

Women's Happiness

Rests largely on solving their oldest hygienic problem this new way—true protection; discards like tissue

TO be fresh and charming every day, to live every day unhand-capped, to wear sheerest frocks without a second thought, any day, anywhere . . . you can now do all a new way.

NO LAUNDRY As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment. You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying, "KOTEX," you ask for it without hesitation. Costs only a few cents. Eight in 10 better-class women employ it. Proves the unnecessary risk of old ways.
