Mr. Clark Weds Corvallis Girl

A marriage of interest to La Grande people took place last Wednesday at Corvallis when Miss Ruth Eleanor Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Buchanan, of that place, was married to R. Ralph Clark, of this city. The wedding was at the First Presbyterian church there, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. A. B. MacLeod performing the ceremony before a chance of summer blossoms and palms. Church lights shed a soft glow on the bridal party and lent an air of solemnity to the occasion. The altar embellishment was of rose wood in tall floor baskets and dainty white blossoms alternated with pink hydrangeas.

Oran Hieckard of Irish Bend sang "Oh Promise Me," with Miss Ruth Coffeen at the organ and Mrs. William Hargrove sang "At Dawning." As Miss Coffeen played Mendelssohn's wedding march members of the bridal party appeared. The Rev. Mr. MacLeod was followed by the bridegroom and his best man, Vernon Jenkins of Glendale, Cal., a fraternity brother. As they took their places before the floral embankment, the bride and her attendants entered and approached the altar. Little Ruth Hargrove, in a frock of peach tone, and Heather MacLeod, in blue, were flower girls and carried baskets of petals to strew in the path of the bride. Miss Helene Scott, cousin of the bride, was her maid of honor. Miss Scott wore a gown of lavender organdie, trimmed in shades of orchid, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses, bouvardia and sweetpeas in the pastel shades.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a simple wedding gown of white satin, with a silver flower as its only ornament. Her veil of white net, edged with rich lace, was a very magnificent and was held in the sides with tiny wreaths of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of Opelia roses, bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

The ushers were Maurice Buchanan, brother of the bride, and James Buchanan and Wilmer Smith, her cousins.

A reception was held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. MacLeod after the ceremony. A profusion of blue, pink and white old-fashioned flowers and canterbury bells decorated the rooms of the manse. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, the bridegroom's parents, received with the bridal party. Mrs. R. L. Weatherford and Miss Sarah Currier presided in the dining room. Here a low bowl of pink rosebuds, lily of the valley, clarkia and smilax added a touch to the table. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Arthur Buchanan, Mrs. Robert L. Glass, Miss Zelma Shattuck, Miss Frances Smith, Miss Malinda Smith and Miss Alice Leah Buchanan.

Several La Grande people, all relatives of the bridegroom, were present for the occasion. They were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Renwick A. Clark, Miss Blanche Clark and Cloyd Clark. Miss Clark, who is the groom's sister, planned all of the bouquets and floral decorations for the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark left after the reception for Wallowa lake, where they are at present spending their honeymoon. They will be at home in La Grande after July 1. Mrs. Clark is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college conservatory of music, class of '24, and is said to possess unusual musical talent. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Mr. Clark is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of this city and a '25 graduate of O. A. C. He is a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is connected with Clark Florists here.

Y. O. Club Meets With Mrs. Jacobsen

Members of the Y. O. club were entertained at a prettily appointed party yesterday afternoon when Mrs. E. Jacobsen was hostess at her home on Greenwood street. Bridge, at three tables, was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. M. Hoyt winning high scores among the club members. The guest prize went to Mrs. Ross Eaton.

A lovely blue and white color scheme was carried out in the decoration of the home, a variety of garden flowers in these colors being used. A two-course luncheon followed the card games.

The club will be entertained two weeks from yesterday by Mrs. Ray Goodenough.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Porridge, cereal, thin cream, soft cooked eggs, crisp toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Baked roast beef with vegetable hash, brown bread and marmalade, sandwiches, milk, tea.
Dinner—Consomme, breadsticks, cheese fondue, creamed potatoes, buttered kale, stuffed tomato salad, Spanish cream, graham bread, milk, coffee.
The luncheon dish is planned to use up the meat left from the roast and since meat is served for luncheon a meatless dinner is often given to the dish—"bubble and squeak"—so if your family find much "in a name" why not use it for their benefit?
