

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS
 July 13, 14, 15 and 16—Free Home-makers' Institute under auspices of the Observer.
 July 15—Union county's 28th annual pioneer reunion.
 July 22, 23, 24—Conversion of Northwest Real Estate association in La Grande.
 Sept. 22, 23, 24, and 25—Union county fair at Elgin, Ore.

To Baker this Morning—Austin Arnot went to Baker on this morning's train, where he will transact business today.

Here from Elgin—H. H. Weatherspoon, fruit grower of Elgin, was in La Grande Saturday evening.

In Baker Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKeon and family visited over Sunday at Baker. Their home is at Imbler.

On Business Trip—Mrs. Max Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Crawford were business visitors in La Grande today from Joseph.

Visiting Cousin Here—Miss Beulah Cookerly, of Dallas, Texas, is visiting in La Grande with her cousins, Mrs. Frank Rechin and Mrs. Julia R. Metzler.

Here this Morning—H. W. Ireland, of Portland, was in the city this morning. He called at the state highway offices here on business.

Wants to Pick Cherries—Miss Dolores Elton, of Rupert, Ida., came to La Grande this morning hoping to find work picking cherries, she said.

Fishing Today—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Whitney went to Vincent on the branch line train this morning, where they will spend the day fishing.

Issued Marriage License—A license to wed was issued Saturday afternoon to Henry Oscar Gorham and Miss Violet Bloom, both of Union.

Home from Portland—Miss Madeline Barbeau has returned to her home here from Portland, where she visited a week with her sister, Mrs. Stella Masco.

Sheep Man Here—Arthur Smythe, sheep man of Arlington, was here this morning on his way home. Mr. Smythe was at Starkey where a part of his sheep are on summer range.

Here from Pendleton—Al Hendrickson, who owns two ranches in this county, is here today. Mr. Hendrickson lives at Pendleton.

Here for Summer—Miss Garnet Hill, of West Moreland, Kansas, has arrived in La Grande and will spend the summer here at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. F. Tyler.

Attended Golf Convention—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stoddard returned this morning from Spokane, where they were attendants at the Northwest golf tournament.

Attended Dental Conference—Dr. and Mrs. Ray F. Murphy returned home this morning from Portland where they have been of the past week while Dr. Murphy attended the Pacific coast dental conference.

Visiting Mother Here—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ballard arrived in La Grande yesterday from Salt Lake City, Utah, and will visit here for some time at the home of Mrs. Ballard's mother, Mrs. George Stoddard. Mrs. Ballard was formerly Miss Jeanette Stoddard of this city, and has many friends here. She will probably be in La Grande a month.

Taken from Hospital—Mrs. Fred Currey, who has been recovering from an operation in the Grande Honda hospital for the last two weeks, returned to her home Sunday. Mr. Currey reports her condition as very favorable.

On Way to Joseph—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carpenter stopped in La Grande last night with their daughter, Mrs. Forest Wilson, on their way home to Joseph from Portland and coast points, where they have been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. Nothnagel Improves—G. Nothnagel, who was taken to the Grande Honda hospital from his home near Alice Saturday evening for medical attention, is pronounced somewhat better today.

Guests at Stoddard Home—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turner are visiting in La Grande guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoddard. They are from Salt Lake City, Utah and expect to be here about two weeks. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Stoddard are sisters.

Here from Kansas—Miss Grace Skinkitter arrived in La Grande this morning from Wichita, Kan., and left in a few hours for Enterprise, where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Snider for a couple of days. She plans to continue her trip as far as Seattle.

Home from Medford—Fred Reed returned to work for the La Grande Grocery company this morning. He returned to La Grande from Medford last night. He has been at Camp Jackson with the La Grande national guard unit.

To Wallowa Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nash and H. S. Hughes, the latter of Pendleton, spent yesterday at Wallowa Lake, returning to La Grande late in the afternoon. Mr. Hughes left for Pendleton last night, where he now makes his home.

Returns from School—Eire Chief C. O. Murchison, who has been attending the Oregon fire chief's school at Corvallis, last week, returned to La Grande yesterday. He reports an interesting session although he declared that the weather was much warmer than in Eastern Oregon.

Accident Victim Leaves—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Cummings, of Hot Lake, who were slightly injured when their car went through the bridge near Elgin into the Grande Ronde river Thursday morning, moved to the Summer hotel from the hospital Saturday evening, and yesterday continued on their trip.

Inspecting Oil Work—H. H. Baldoock, state highway maintenance engineer of Salem, was in La Grande yesterday. He and H. G. Smith state highway division engineer of Eastern Oregon were at Huntington and Ontario this morning and will be here this afternoon. Mr. Baldoock is inspecting the oiling operations in this part of the state.

Attends Church's Anniversary—Mrs. Helen Robinson, of Pendleton, who a number of years ago made her home in La Grande, was present yesterday when St. Peter's Episcopal church honored the sixty-second anniversary of its founding. Mrs. Robinson returned home Sunday afternoon, concluding a visit of several days with Mrs. J. A. Russell.

Home from Wichita—Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller has returned to her home here from Wichita, Kansas, where she has just completed a course in children's violin ensemble.

Dotted Hose

Sheer white silk stockings are decorated with polka dots in soft pastel colors.

Home to Wallowa—Miss Viola Neal and her little niece, Dorothy Patrick, were in La Grande this morning on their way home to Wallowa from Pasco, Wash., where they have been visiting.

To Visit at Alice—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kitter, accompanied by H. M. Canberg, all of Tacoma, Washington arrived in La Grande this morning on their way to Alice, where they will visit at the Kirk Willis home. They plan to be here most of the summer.

To Visit Parents—Miss Vena Curry and her little niece, Fay Bots, were in La Grande this morning on their way to Flora, where they will visit during the summer with Miss Curry's parents. They were from Portland.

Spent Vacation in Utah—Mr. and Mrs. Holzer M. Larson and family are home from Utah, where they visited friends and relatives in Salt Lake and Ogden during his two week's vacation from the Grande Ronde hospital. Mr. Larson is hospital superintendent.

Return from Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wright returned to their home here yesterday from Seattle and other Washington points. Mrs. Wright went to Colfax about a month ago to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Aeschliman. Mr. Wright joined her there about a week ago and they with Mr. and Mrs. Aeschliman drove to Seattle and coast points.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

Writes of Father's Death—Grover C. Hogden, who was called to Walla Walla Friday evening by the illness of his father, has sent word to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb, with whom he has his home here, that his father died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The decedent, whose home was at Dayton, Wash., had been receiving treatment at a hospital in Walla Walla for some time.

Return from Trip East—F. B. Appleby and H. P. Brenholz returned to La Grande Saturday afternoon from a trip to Iowa and Illinois. They drove from Chicago by way of Yellowstone Park and Spokane. Mrs. Appleby, who went east with Mr. Appleby in May, is visiting in New York and Boston and is expected to return by train the first of August together with her son, Carlton, who is visiting his grandparents in Des Moines, Iowa.

NEWS of SOCIETY

Society Holds Garden Party Tea
 An attractive tea in the form of a garden party took place Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Snodgrass on North Birch street. The affair was given for the missionary society of the First Christian church.

Tables and seats were arranged in the shade of the trees on the lawn of the Snodgrass home, where fifty persons gathered for the afternoon.

Officers of the Missionary society were installed during the early part of the afternoon with Mrs. C. V. Dunn, wife of the Rev. Mr. Dunn, as installing officer. Saturday was the first time that the missionary society has ever had special installation ceremonies and the service was very impressive.

Mrs. R. J. Kitchen was installed in the president's chair; Mrs. Ida French, first vice president; Mrs. Gutridge, second vice president; Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, secretary and Mrs. L. H. Purdy, treasurer.

The Rev. Mr. Dunn read an appropriate poem and Mrs. Stanton Lapham and Mrs. R. J. Kitchen sang a duet.

Several games and guessing contests were enjoyed after the program.

144 Attend Hug Reunion at Elgin
 The sixth annual Hug reunion was held at the city park of Elgin yesterday with more people in attendance than have ever before attended the reunion. One hundred and forty-four persons were there, including 101 members of the Hug family and 43 guests.

During the early part of the day the annual business meeting was held and officers were elected. William Roulet was elected president. Bernard D. Hug was re-elected historian and Miss Lydia Hug was re-elected secretary.

At noon and again in the evening long tables were arranged under the trees, and lunch served.

An impromptu program was given during the afternoon including songs, talks and readings. Bernard Hug as historian gave the history of the Hug family. His talk dwelled principally on the life of Mrs. Anna Hug, now ninety years old and the oldest member of the Hug family now alive, who was present for yesterday's picnic.

Those present for the reunion presented her with a potted flower, Conrad Neiderer, of La Grande, sang two songs honoring her.

Dr. A. N. Mayville gave two interesting readings in the French dialect and Mrs. Ben Benashader gave two instrumental solos. Her sister, Miss Ruth Hug, also played two instrumental solos. Little Shirley Hug, six years old, sang and little Mildred Howard played a piano selection as a part of the afternoon's program.

Races were also a feature of the afternoon.

Pendleton Couple Married Here
 Miss Myrtle M. Enbysak and Phillip W. Burnett, both of Pendleton, were married Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church by the Rev. H. W. Parker, pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Enbysak and Mrs. Katie Burnett completed the bridal party.

The young couple returned to Pendleton Saturday afternoon, where they will make their home.

Celebrates Birthday Anniversary
 Honoring the twelfth birthday anniversary of her oldest daughter, Marjorie, Mrs. Charles Montgomery entertained thirty of her little friends Friday afternoon at a birthday party at their home on C avenue.

The children enjoyed the afternoon at games out of doors, after which they were served to delicious refreshments.

and family spent one day last week in La Grande visiting.

Howard Stairet and John Thornbrue returned from a fishing trip to Beaver creek the first of the week. They had good luck. Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Seltz have sold the Five Points service station and plan to leave there.

Mr. and Mrs. Amil Able and family spent the day with Mrs. Sam Ferguson.

Miss Martha Emi spent the day visiting friends recently.

Leonard Ferguson and Frank Williams spent the day shopping in La Grande recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Aie and Mr. Williams have returned from a trip to Island City.

Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Biggers spent the evening here with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanford recently.

Mrs. Frank Bennett spent the afternoon here recently.

George Hoffner is leaving for Tacoma soon, where he will continue his work.

Ward Smith and Al Right left for their home in Yakima last week.

LINER KILLS WHALE.
 LONDON, June 23 (AP).—The trans-Atlantic liner Berengaria killed a whale at sea yesterday. Six whales cross the bow of the steamer but one turned back and the liner struck it. The impact caused the big vessel to tremble from stem to stern. A man in the bow was nearly thrown over-

Announcements
 Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock.—News editor's note.

The Parkdale club will meet with Mrs. Elu Beaudette and Mrs. Henry Young at Riverside park Wednesday, June 30.

The General Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Smith, 805 Pennsylvania avenue.

board. The whale was instantly killed. It was carried along by the steamer for some distance before it disappeared.

Sister Mary Says:
 (By Sister Mary)
 Breakfast—Unhulled strawberries, cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Tomatoes stuffed with spinach, raisin bread, cherry bread pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Casserole of veal with vegetables, new peas, endive salad, chocolate soufflé, milk, coffee, whole wheat bread.

The dinner main dish is one of those concoctions making "half the meat go twice around." Consequently a rather hearty dessert for warm weather is served.

Cherry Bread Pudding
 One cup stale bread crumbs, 2 cups hot milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg, 1 cup

No More Shiny Noses
 A new French process powder that is not affected by perspiration—will not let an ugly shine come through; stays on until you take it off; fine and pure; makes the pores invisible; looks like beautiful natural skin; gives a soft velvety complexion. Get this new wonderful beauty powder called Mello-ga. Glass Drugs, Inc.—Adv.

Minerva Says---
 Now is the time to select your new slippers for the Fourth of July. The slippers are nearly complete. The styles are numerous and the prices are in reach of all. The quality of these shoes is as good as many higher priced shoes. And as to fit, enough said—no fit, no sale.

THE BOOTERY
 Pay Cash and Pay Less That's Why.
 Red Cross and Arch-Aids for people with bad feet. Heaps of comfort in these.

Announcing New Temporary Headquarters
 (Permanent location to be announced later)
 Where we will continue to specialize in picture framing.
 IN MELVILLE STORE
 1428 Adams
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Watkins (Formerly in Oro. Hdwe.)

Hosiery That Wears
 ROLLINS'—DOUBLE RUN-STOP ONYX "POINTEX" and TRIPLE-A 1.00 to 2.75
PUTMAN'S
 Ready-To-Wear and Millinery

A housewife who has a hard time rounding up the family on dinner has adopted the motto, "Don't put the food on the table until you see the whites of their eyes."

The New VICTOR Line Of Orthophonic Victrolas
 Victor Records
 Credit CARR'S No Interest

STAR
 Today
Norman and Greta KERRY and NISSEN
 —IN—
"The Love Thief"
 You learn about Love from them.
 Tuesday And Wednesday
PETE MORRISON in "CHASING TROUBLE"

We Buy For Less We Sell For Less
Some More Just Arrived
 From Our Eastern Buyer.
 All High Quality and Lowest Prices.
 Note the Items Listed Below.

HEAVY CHAMBRAY WORK SHIRTS, triple stitched	39c
HEAVY GRADE OVERALLS, triple stitched, reinforced on every point	$1.09
BOYS' OVERALLS, heavy grade	79c
MEN'S FELT WORK HATS	$1.35
MEN'S WORK SHOES, composition soles, moccasin toe	$2.85
BOYS' WORK SHOES—leather or composition soles	$2.50
MEN'S UNION SUITS, light weight, knit or athletic style	49c to 75c

NEW YORK STORE

More Bonnets
 In organdie and voile—pink, blue, peach, maize, orchid and white. $1.25 to $1.75
Art & Baby Shop
 "Everything For The Baby"

CLOROX the household disinfectant
 To keep your bathroom sanitary and clean the easy way, use CLOROX! It is an excellent disinfectant and deodorizer. To remove discoloration from the toilet bowl, and to purify the trap and drains, use a half-cupful of CLOROX and a tablespoonful of vinegar, letting it stand for half an hour or longer. Stains and odor disappear. CLOROX will also prevent sink stoppage, and will remove stains from tile floors, sinks and drain boards. Follow the directions on the label of each bottle. Get CLOROX from your grocer and let it prove its value to you!
 At All Grocers!
 Manufactured by the CLOROX CHEMICAL CORPORATION
 Oakland, California P-36-12

The Girl from Montmartre
 (Pronounced Mo-Marr)
 When the soul-flame of a Spanish dancer leaps to kindle a bachelor's heart there's romance and drama aplenty.
 With Barbara La Marr and Lewis Stone
 NOTE—This is Barbara La Marr's last production.
 From Anthony Pryde's "SPANISH SUNLIGHT"
 TODAY And TUESDAY
ARCADE
 Comedy "His Girl Friend"

Clint's Gigantic Money Raising Sale Going On Every Day
 Saving the public on every purchase they make at Clint's during this Money-Raising Sale.
 Dress up now for the Fourth at a big saving.
Merchandise of Quality
CLINT'S CLOTHIERY
 "THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

Traveler
 Christopher William Johnson Jr., of St. Louis, is only four years old, but he has been around the world three times and has travelled about 100,000 miles in his short lifetime. His father is a wealthy manufacturer whose hobby is taking his wife and son around the world.