Celebrates Fourth Anniversary

Little Ernest Ward Ely, son of Captain and Mrs. E. W. Ely, celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary yesterday with a birthday party at the Ely home on M avenue. Fourteen little girls and boys were his guests.

Games were enjoyed during the afternoon with Wilford Zurbick winning the first prize in the "pin the tail on the bunny" contest and Helen Tabbett receiving first prize among the girls. Dickie Lottes found the most peanuts during the peanut hunt and was given the boys' prize. Nancy Dutton won the prize among the little girls present in the same contest. Several other games were enjoyed by the children during the afternoon. After the games the children were taken to the dining room, where refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. Balloons in all colors floated about the air in the dining room and were fastened to each little guest's chair. The centerpiece was a birthday cake in pink and white with four lighted candles. Favors for the little boy guests were cap guns and for the girls pretty little caps.

The children present were: Albert and Nancy Dutton, Ruth Jean and Wilford Zurbick, John Bussey, Dickie Lottes, Helen Tabbett, Jimmie Neal, Grace Helen Bohnenkamp, Tiny Metcalf, Homer Snider, Phyllis Westenhaver and Elaine and Ernest Ely.

Knights and Women's Order in Social Meet

More than 65 Knights of Pythias, Pythian Sisters and their families gathered at the K. P. hall last evening for the last social meeting of the K. P. lodge this season. Dinner was served shortly after 7 o'clock by the committee of knights in charge. Two long tables were arranged for this purpose, decorated with pretty bouquets of sweet-peas and other garden flowers of the season.

An interesting program followed the dinner with Harley I. Stoneking, chairman of the program committee, presiding. The bugle call by Adolph Stegert called the meeting to order, followed by the presentation of the flag and the singing of "America."

Mr. Stoneking introduced the Rev. William Crosby Ross as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Ross talked about the Declaration of Independence and its author, Thomas Jefferson. He told many interesting facts concerning the life of Jefferson, saying that he was not only the author of the Declaration of Independence but the author of religious freedom in Virginia. He was also the founder of the University of Virginia.

The Rev. Mr. Ross' talk was followed by vocal solo by Mrs. Hazel Dray, accompanied by Miss Alma Lilly at the piano. Little Miss Ruthie Byers played two piano numbers and both times was enthusiastically received. Miss Olive June Cotner sang a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Barbara Hatt at the piano, and later in the evening appeared in two solo dance numbers. Her first dance was the Charleston. Miss Barbara Paddock played two piano solos and also accompanied Miss Effie Blanchard at the piano when she played two violin selections. John Rogers told two Swede stories. Two songs by Miss Frances Smith closed the program. Mrs. H. K. Wallis accompanied her at the piano.

Enjoy Swimming Party at Cove

Six automobiles left the First Presbyterian church at 5:30 o'clock last evening taking 30 members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor society to Cove, where they enjoyed a swimming party. The young people were accompanied by Miss Hulda Anderson and Mrs. I. C. Howser.

After enjoying the water of the Cove swimming pool for more than an hour the party went to the picnic grounds near the pool, where a picnic lunch was served. They returned to their homes in La Grande at about 10 o'clock.

Epworthians Meet At Neff Home

The Epworth league of the South Methodist Episcopal church met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neff. A business session was held during the early part of the evening, followed by games, destined to each little guest's chair. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Forty-two members of the league were present.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, scrambled eggs with bacon, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Chicken and spinach soup, croissants, open tomato and lettuce sandwiches, caramel cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled lamb chops, baked potatoes, creamed peas, new cabbage salad, raspberry shortcake, graham bread, milk, coffee.

This luncheon soup uses a stock made from the bones of the chicken left from the preceding dinner. Such a stock is known as "second stock" and, while lacking in strength of the first stock, it gives flavor to a soup.

Chicken and Spinach Soup
One pound spinach, 4 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon sugar, 4 cups hot chicken stock, 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Wash spinach through several waters. Put into a sauce pan with butter and cover closely. Place over a low fire until wilted. Cook in juice and butter until tender, about 10 minutes for young spinach. Combine salt, pepper, flour and sugar and stir into spinach. Cook, stirring constantly with a fork, for five minutes. Rub through a colander and add to chicken stock. Bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly. Serve in bouillon cups topped with a spoonful of whipped cream lightly seasoned with salt and sprinkled with parsley.

The chicken stock is made by covering chicken bones with cold water, bringing slowly to the boiling point and simmering below the boiling point for 40 minutes.

PICKS HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, has picked her next husband. That is she has selected the standards he must meet. He must be good looking, six feet tall, a preacher, trombone player, sing well, and be a "good and holy man." She hasn't met one like that yet, she says.

The drinking man is handicapped. His drinks cost so much he hasn't any money left for campaign expenses.

AIMEE EXPLAINS HER RELIGION IN SIGNED STATEMENT

LOS ANGELES, June 25. (AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, center of a kidnapping story which authorities are now investigating who took exception to the designation applied to her of "self-styled healer" at the request of the Associated Press has made a signed statement of her religious profession particularly with regard to the "divine healing" advertised in the Los Angeles newspapers under the name of Angelus Temple, her headquarters. The statement follows: "I preach salvation from sin. Men and women come to the altar, confess their sin and are saved. I have led them to the altar and prayed for them. It is true but how absurd it would be to say 'I am a saviour, here is a man I saved.'"

"Likewise I preach Jesus Christ, the great physician all sufficient for body as well as soul. Men and women come to the altar and touch the hem of his garment, and have been healed of many diseases in answer to believing prayers. Yet I would not say that I was a 'healer' or 'here is a man that I have healed.'"

"Just as Jesus Christ is the saviour, so he is the healer and receives all the glory.

"Divine healing in answer to prayer is not something peculiar to our church. Other churches have always prayed for the sick. The Episcopal churches have lately been known throughout the land for the wonderful meetings with prayers for the afflicted. Particularly we preachers pray for the sick of their flock."

EXPLOREIS QUARRELED

SEATTLE—George H. Wilkins, who led the unsuccessful Detroit Arctic expedition, quarreled with Major Thomas G. Lanphier, unofficial army observer, Lieutenant Carl B. Ellison, expedition pilot said. He predicted Lanphier would ask the Detroit Aviation society to let him lead the next exploration attempt.

OREGON LEGION GROUP TO MARCH IN 15TH POSITION

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25.—National honor and prestige for this state have been won by the department of Oregon of the American Legion, according to information received here today from national headquarters.

Oregon will march in fifteenth place in the legion national convention parade to be held in Philadelphia in October by having finished in that position in a national membership contest to determine parade position, seating arrangements and accommodations at the convention city.

Those honors are coveted by 49 state departments and eight departments outside the continental limits of the United States. The legion's annual national convention parade, which was reviewed in Omaha last year by President Coolidge, has been described as the
