Portland Squeezes in A Win From Hollywood

REGINE, Ore. July 2 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Byers, of Portland, were brought to the Mercy hospital here yesterday, suffering from severe bruises and cuts, the result of an automobile accident on the Pacific highway near Drain at 2 a. m.
Their small son was uninjured. The Byers were on their way to Medford to visit friends, when their car left the highway and crashed into a ditch. Mr. Byers sustained a badly injured hip and leg while Mrs. Byers was painfully cut about the scalp.

If you care to choose the lesser of two evils, take up working instead of loafing.

"Devil's Circus" Coming to Sherrys Sunday

"The Devil's Circus," the first American production of the Danish director, Benjamin Christianson is coming to Sherrys Sunday and Monday.

Norma Swarner, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer star, has the leading feminine role, and the cast includes Charles Emmett Mack, in the leading male role; Carmel Myers, Claire McDowell, John Miljan, Joyce Cook, the latest child find of the screen, and the popular trick dog, Budgy.

It is a simple story simply told, and therein lies its greatness. The director has taken characters that are thoroughly plausible, that really might exist and be acquainted with you and me, and then put them to working out a drama in which colorful and entertaining bits of detail and convincing characterizations successfully sustain interest.

The play has drama and melodrama, comedy and pathos, and their blending and smooth development represent the work of a dramatic artist. Christianson's record of success in pictures abroad seems to be founded on a firm basis.

The story concerns the life and romance of Mary, an orphan girl, played by Miss Swarner, who loves and is loved by the crook, Carl-stop, played by Mack. Their romance is lighted when Carl-stop is sent to prison for a crime and Mary joins a circus.
She becomes a conquest of Lieberkind, the villainous lion-trainer, played by John Miljan, and incurs the jealous rage of his imbecile, Yanna, played by Carmel Myers, who deliberately cripples her by tampering with the trapeze on

Sub-Debs Head Vaudeville Bill at Arcade Sunday

Another unique bill that is said to meet vaudeville's requirements and filled with many novelties, comedy, singing and dancing, will appear at the Arcade theater on Sunday.

The bill is headed by the Sub-Debs, "The Six Cylinder Girls from Broadway," a bouquet of pretty and talented young girls in a metropolitan venue. Buddy In-Loach, in "Bottle, Patter and Puns," will amuse all who witness him in his rendition of songs, music, and dancing. Oliver and Van in "A Perfect Day" present one of the best comedy acts in several weeks. McGarry and Dixon, "The Stripping Strippers," five synchronizing dance experts. Billy Barlow in "A Unique Athletic Novelty" is an equilibrist of more than ordinary ability and does several hair-raising feats with apparent ease.

"Wilderness Woman" Comedy Feature Opens at Star

Robert Kane, producer of "The Reckless Lady," "Husband's Seven Wives" and "The Danter of Paris," stands sponsor for a comedy-melodrama, "The Wilderness Woman," his latest First National production, which will be presented at the Star theater Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Kane has always seen to it that the pictures contain an all-star cast, and in the present instance he has brought a well known trio—Allen Pringle, Lowell Sherman and Chester Conklin—together to play the principal roles of the pictures.
"The Wilderness Woman" is by Arthur Stringer, author of such picture successes as "Manhandled" and "Womanhandled," and it offers Miss Pringle her first character comedy role, something entirely different from anything she has attempted heretofore. In the supporting cast are Henry Vibart and Robert Cain, while not the least important member of the cast is a bear cub, Miss Pringle's constant companion through much of the
