McCoy's Puts Weight on Weak Skinny Men

Hollows in cheeks—hollows in the sides of neck—flatness in chest—why don't you do something to make yourself look like a real man?
 McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets puts on weight where weight is needed—not only that but they build up your general health and you grow stronger, more energetic and get plenty of ambition.
 One woman gained 15 pounds in six weeks and if any underweight man or woman doesn't gain 5 pounds in 30 days with McCoy's, Red Cross Drug Store or the druggist from whom they purchased them will gladly return the purchase price. 60 tablets 60 cents. Ask for McCoy's—they are sugar coated.—Adv.

La Grande Theatres

Rod La Rocque Is a Bum in "Red Dice"
 Hollywood, where it is said even the wildest dreams come true, recently produced a tramp who rides in a Rolls Royce!
 A bum, who, contrary to all sacred traditions of the labor fraternity, has "high-tailed" the brake beams in favor of a fancy motor car. The mysterious tramp, it turns out, is none other than the immaculately groomed Rod La Rocque of "The Ten Commandments." In "Red Dice," his current starring vehicle which will be on view at the Sherry theater today and tomorrow, Rod in a new type of role has shed faultlessly tailored garments for the tattered and torn rags of a bum.
 A thrilling story of the activities of a big bootlegging ring, "Red Dice" was adapted by Jeanie Macpherson and Douglas Doty from the "Iron Chalice." William K. Howard directed the production, which features Marguerite De La Motte opposite La Rocque.
 Comedy showing "Isn't Love Cuckoo?"

New Barthelmess Film Now Showing at Star
 One of the most interesting and picturesque phases of our national military history, namely life at a Western army outpost during the Indian wars, is given vivid portrayal on the screen in Richard Barthelmess' new picture, "Ransons Polly," which is being shown at the Star theater today, Friday and Saturday.
 "Ransons Polly" is based on the celebrated novel by Richard Hard-

Vera Burnet, Colonel C. C. Smith, Pauline Neff, Billie Bennedit, Frank Coffyn, Taylor Duncan, Chief Big Tree, and Chief Eagle Wing.
Brontosaurus Pursues Hunters in "The Savage"
 A prehistoric Brontosaurus, big enough to swamp an ordinary steamboat, furnishes many of the thrills, to say nothing of a whole bag full of laughs in First National's latest photoplay, "The Savage," which is coming to the Arcade theater, Friday and Saturday with Ben Lyon and May McAvoy in the featured roles.
 Earl Hudson, who produced "The Lost World" for First National, gave one of the famous prehistoric brutes that romp about in that picture a part in "The Savage."
 Ben Lyon rides the enormous dinosaur through the jungle of the South Sea island at a mad tilt. He even rides it out into the ocean when the animal pursues a boatload of scientists who have been chasing him about the island. To say that the animal furnishes thrills is putting it mildly.
 An island off the Florida coast was used for the exterior in "The Savage."
 Ben Lyon will hardly recognize him in this makeup, for he wears a huge beard, which he grew for the picture. Eventually Ben is captured, and then all sorts of things happen.
 "The Savage" was directed by Fred Newmeyer. Ben and May McAvoy have the featured roles.

GOITRE CAUSED Sleeplessness, Run Down Condition and Lumps in Throat. Colorado Woman Tells of Itself.
 NOTE: It would be illegal to publish these statements if not true.
 Mrs. F. Bowdick, Monte Vista, Colorado, says she will tell or write how she was relieved of her terrible goitre two years ago. The misery has never bothered since. Sorbol-Quadruple, a stainless liniment used.
