

BOYS PREFER NON-PETTERS

NEW YORK, July 7. (AP)—Boys prefer the girl who does not "pet," although admitting that they themselves indulge. They are, however, at times inclined to blame their girl friends for encouraging "petting" and "muck-ing."

This was revealed in data just compiled by the national council of the Young Men's Christian association, following a world-wide survey of boy attitudes in preparation for the World's Conference of Holiness, Finland, in August.

In general, according to the discussion summaries, boy standards are high. Boys feel that indulgence in "petting" is detrimental to character, and they propose that such problems affecting both sexes "should be worked out by boys and girls together." This point of joint discussion was followed in a few localities.

Opinions Varied
Groups of boys, ruled together in more than 100 communities to discuss various youth problems brought out such comments as these:

"If a fellow wants a 'hot date' he gets it, and if he wants a 'clean date' he gets it."

"We would not like to have a wife whom everyone had 'passed over'."

"Smoking and profanity are

Timid? Oh No.

both the results of trying to show off."

"Why don't the girls object to petting? Why do they seem to like it?"

"They expect us to take the initiative to stop it," complained one youngster.

In Brooklyn, during a joint discussion for boys and girls averaging 17 years of age, it was decided that to check the habit of "petting" self-control was necessary on both sides. The boys admitted that sometimes they deliberately attempt to "take liberties," while the girls confessed that they permit too many "liberties" and give the impression that they "expect to be petted."

Home Criticism
"Many fellows act questionably by bringing liquor to dance, and the girls are too ashamed to show off by wanting to smoke," the boys declared.

The group diagnosed the trouble as partly due to the fact that girls and fellows know their heads when they think they are to love. Other discussions throughout the country revealed a feeling that home is a place of neglect and unsympathetic restraint and that in school the boys are treated "too much like a baby."

She Walked Home From Airplane

At last it has happened—a girl has had to walk home from an airplane ride. Emily de Voe, of San Francisco, went up with Harold L. Pollock and had to kick his leg when he tried to force her to have sex with him. She was carried her to Los Angeles and took her home. But after having him arrested she felt sorry for him—and here the two are planning on the marriage that she says will occur shortly.

"By the Queen's Command!"

The ancient Queen—with all her wealth and power and her horde of faithful slaves—could not command one-half the luxuries and delicacies that are matters-of-course to the average American housewife. The marvel of modern merchandising methods has enabled every-day folks to regularly enjoy many good things that even the most powerful potentate of old could not have obtained.

Dispensers of foods have kept pace with modern progress and Skaggs Stores are proud to have had a part in bringing about this desirable condition. The thought that we are rendering a real economic service is a constant spur to increased efficiency on the part of our entire personnel. We all earnestly enjoy doing good work.
