HEARING DATES SET

SALEM, Ore., July 12 (AP)—The public service commission Monday set Tuesday, July 20, as the date and Portland the pace for a hearing to investigate the schedules and practices of the Shore Line Stages and the Oregon stage line.

MRS. ASTOR ALARMED

NORTH HEMISTEAD, N. Y.—Mrs. Vincent Astor and other wealthy summer residents of Long Island have been quite perturbed over bathing parties of motorists who some times have worn less than the girls do in the shows to which Flo Ziegfeld objects.

REPUBLICANS MAKING PLANS

PORTLAND, Ore., July 12 (AP)—Endorsing the candidates selected by the republican voters at the primary, and pledging support for them at the November election, the state republican central committee late yesterday adopted resolutions and laid plans for the campaign.

The administration for President Coolidge was endorsed and he was praised for his work in reducing expenditures. The Oregon delegation in congress and National Committeeman Ralph Williams were commended.

Phil Mettschan, Portland, was elected chairman of the state central committee; Floyd J. Cook, of Medford, secretary; and Nathan Strauss, Portland, treasurer.

Chairman Mettschan was authorized to appoint an executive committee of twenty, including ten members of the state central committee and ten women to have active charge of the campaign.

L. L. Patterson, republican nominee for governor, addressed the meeting, saying he would place himself in the hands of the state committee and would have no individual manager in the campaign. M. E. Crumpacker, republican nominee for congress from the third district also spoke.

CHAIN STORES ROBBED

PORTLAND, Ore., July 12 (AP)—Three grocery stores belonging to the Eagle Chain concern in different parts of the city were robbed by safe crackers over the week end. A total of $365 was taken in the three jobs, the police reports showed.

What a dog's life some poor old pipes lead!

POOR OLD PIPE! Looks like he's gone to the dogs! He was a good pipe, too. The pick of hundreds... But he's never had a chance. All his life he's been abused... neglected... treated like a dog!

It's no way to bring out the best that's in him. A good pipe must get good tobacco... it should get Granger Rough Cut. No other tobacco is so certain to make the most of any pipe.

For Granger is made solely for pipes... made of the finest pipe tobacco that grows... mellowed by an old-time secret recipe that takes out all "bite" and "harshness" and makes Granger mild... spicy... and mellow!

Being "rough-cut," too, its large flakes burn slowly and smoke cool. It brings joy into the life of any pipe. Brings perfect pipe-satisfaction into the life of any smoker.

DODGERS SHUT OUT CHICAGO

YESTERDAY'S GAMES NATIONAL LEAGUE New York 5, Pittsburgh 6.

CHICAGO (AP)—Manager Robinson issued an ultimatum to his team Monday telling the players to get out and play ball, as he had waivers on two of them in his pocket. They immediately went out, knuckled a vicious attack on Miltstead in the fourth inning and shut out Chicago, 5 to 0, in the final game of the series.

Billy Evans Says:

A POPULAR VICTORY The victory of Bobby Jones in winning the British open was a decidedly popular one at home and abroad.

If there is a dissenting vote, it would come from the professional golf players.

In all sports, the professional is regarded as the superior of the amateur. This usually holds good, but golf very often offers a decided exception. Bobby Jones is such an individual.

While Jones is very popular with the professional players, a victory by one of their rank probably would have been more pleasing, simply because it would keep the pro to the fore, and that is quite desirable if he is to continue to get the big money.

SIX GREAT ROUNDS

Jones, in winning the British open, turned in four rounds of remarkable golf. He was consistent throughout. He had a 72 for his first two rounds, then a 73, followed by a 74, for a total of 291.

Coupled with his record-breaking qualifying rounds of 66-65-124 at Sunningdale, Jones turned in six remarkable exhibitions of golf, which should stand for some time.

It's been 29 years since an amateur won the British open. Harold Hilton captured it in 1897. He also won it in 1892. Only three amateurs have ever been successful in its conquest, John Ball, Harold Hilton, and Bobby Jones.

The British open was inaugurated in 1860. When you figure that over a period of 66 years only three amateurs have won the event

EQUALS BEST MARK

The winning of the British open by Jones with a score of 291, equalling the best mark ever recorded in the historic event, tops off five years of remarkable golf by the Atlanta star.

Back in 1922 he finished in a tie for second in the U. S. open at Skokie. The following year he tied with Bobby Crutcher for the title at Inwood and won the playoff. In 1924, he was runner-up to Cyril Walker at Oakland Hills. At Worcester last year he tied with Willie MacFarlane only to be beaten in the playoff.

In addition to creating all this confusion among the professionals he also managed to win the American amateur championship the last two years.

And as stated the score of 291 made by Jones in capturing the 1926 British open tied the best mark ever made in the event, Jim Haid won at Walton Heath in 1905 with the same score.

GREAT U. S. YEAR

The winning of the British amateur crown by Jess Sweetser, the victory by the American amateurs in the Walker cup play and the triumph of Bobby Jones in the British open, will make the year of 1926 one long to be remembered in England, and not at all pleasantly.

England looked to some of its promising young professionals to make the going tough for the Americans, but they failed miserably. A glance at the final figures reveals some interesting facts. It shows many of the veteran British golfers with the lower scores.

Among the best cards were 264 by J. H. Taylor, who is in his 54th year. Alex Hurd, who is 58, had a total of 208, while Jim Haid, who admits he is 56, had a score of 211.

British golf received a severe setback in the victories of Sweetser and Jones.

George Schimmel, the breeder of the purchased German police dogs, is building a very large kennel. He has already had us deliver him 48,000 heavy No. 2 singles and he has used up 100 pounds of the heavy shingle nails and come back after 20 more pounds. He is as mad after dogs as Uncle Jack. I don't care about visiting his place after sunset as I understand he has a shotgun besides the dogs.
