Sale Continues
Daily Until Entire Stock Is Closed Out

It is a matter of local history and widespread interest that Ash Bros. have lately made an assignment to the Portland Adjustment Bureau, and also that only a few days ago the Bureau sold the entire stock to John A. Trotter, of Baker, Oregon, at 52c on the dollar.

This fact alone—that this complete new stock was bought at 35 per cent less than the average merchant pays wholesale for the standard lines of merchandise, enables us to pass on to the public real savings, seldom if ever equalled in any but a Bankrupt Sale.

A big crew of extra salespeople will be busy rearranging and restocking the entire store with a complete stock of merchandise never shown in La Grande before.
The Prices, the Quality, the Variety, the Value will convince you this is a once-in-a-lifetime real old-fashioned Bargain Event. Be here Saturday at 9.
