

NEW WITNESS IN AIMEE CASE

LOS ANGELES, July 15 (AP)—A "surprise witness" in the person of Miss R. J. Mathewson, employee of Angelus Temple, has been summoned to appear before the inquisitorial body today in the McPherson kidnapping case. The new witness was subpoenaed following a hurried trip last week to Oakland by the deputy district attorney, Joe Ryan, who went to the northern city to trace the mysterious telegram sent to Mrs. Minnie Kennedy.

Ryan today was awaiting word from the police at San Diego, who have been requested to locate the sender of a letter, written in Spanish and signed Anacleto Montez.

Bought Clothing
The letter sent from San Diego stated the writer had purchased the clothing worn by Mrs. McPherson when she appeared on June 25 at Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico.

From her pulpit in Angelus Temple, Mrs. McPherson last night announced that she would pay no further heed to the "tangled reports" concerning her kidnapping story which continue to reach her.

Aimee speaks
"My business is preaching and not muckracking and I don't propose to be a match against professional muckrakers. My business is preaching the gospel and I am going to stick to my business and leave investigations to investigators," she told her congregation. She replied to arguments that she could not have walked over the hot desert as described in her account of her escape from her captors with the one word "Fiddlesticks."

LOS ANGELES, July 15 (AP)—Chief of Detectives Herman Cline today directly contradicted the statement of Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Aimee Temple McPherson, that she had turned over to him a telegram she received from Oakland May 21 announcing that her evangelist daughter, then believed drowned at the beach May 13, was alive and well.

Cline's announcement today that he was prepared to go before the county grand jury investigating the alleged McPherson kidnapping and swear that Mrs. Kennedy had not turned over to him or to his assistant, Captain Joe Taylor, any such telegram, marked an open break between police headquarters and Angelus Temple, headquarters of Mrs. McPherson's "four square gospel" teachings.

MA SLEEPS WHILE ENGINEER DIES IN S. F. TRAIN WRECK

TEMPLE, Tex., July 15 (AP)—The Governor of Texas, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, returning from a campaign speech, calmly slept through the confusion of a train wreck in which an engineer was killed and a fireman injured near here today.

A Santa Fe passenger train southbound from Fort Worth to Galveston ran into an open switch and collided with a freight train on the siding. The engines were telescoped. Engineer W. G. Fies, of Cleburne, Tex., was killed.

A dozen passengers in the day coach were shaken up, but no one was disturbed in the sleeper which merely came to a stop with a sudden jolt.

State Is Improving Emigrant Springs

Emigrant Springs—the 14-acre state park at the top of the Blue Mountains just west of Menahan—is one of the favorite picnic and camp grounds this season. People from both Union and Linn counties have been gathering there on Sundays, holidays and other occasions during the warm weather of the past few weeks.

Several conveniences have recently been added to the park, including twelve camp stoves scattered at various places over the grounds according to announcement from the state highway offices here. The springs have been boxed with concrete and war hydrants placed. Sanitary conditions have also been arranged for.

Gravel Companies in $2,000,000 Amalgamation

PORTLAND, Ore., July 15 (AP)—The Oregon Gravel company, of Salem, has entered into the $2,000,000 amalgamation of the Rose Island Sand and Gravel company and the Beaver Portland Cement company, completed ten days ago. Purchase of control of the Salem concern by the Rose Island company was announced by D. L. Carpenter, who heads it and the Beaver Portland Cement company as well. The concern is one of the largest distributors of sand, gravel, cement and building materials in the middle Willamette valley territory and owns and operates a concrete products factory at Salem.
