

Local News in Brief

COMING EVENTS

July 13, 14, 15 and 16—Home-makers institute under auspices The Observer.
July 15—Union county's 36th annual pioneer reunion.
July 22, 23, 24—Convention of Northwest Real Estate association in La Grande.

News from Portland—Fred Cockeril, poultry raiser of Portland, is in the city today on business.

Called to Hood River—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Coughenower left yesterday for Hood River called there by the illness of their son, David. He is in the hospital there, where he had an operation for appendicitis.

Head for week end—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dingaman who are spending the summer at Wallowa lake are in La Grande for the week end.

Visiting relatives here—Mr. and Mrs. William Spaeth, with two children, of Notus, Idaho, are visiting in La Grande with Mr. Spaeth's brother, Fred Spaeth, and his mother, Mrs. Fred Spaeth, Sr.

Grass fire—The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire at South and M. No damage was reported.

Reshere tomorrow—E. H. Baldock, state highway maintenance engineer, will be in the city tomorrow from Salem, where he makes his home. He will be joined there by Oscar Cutler, highway office engineer here, and they will go to Baker tomorrow afternoon.

At Elgin today—Mrs. C. C. Howard and children, Mildred, Lester and Donald, are visiting at Elgin today. They will return to their home here this evening.

At Enterprise on business—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Messer returned here this morning on their way to Enterprise, where they will be for several days on business.

At Huntington this morning—R. A. Pierce, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, arrived in the city this morning on his way home to Salt Lake City, Utah, from Portland. He was accompanied from here as far as Huntington by Walker Gault, superintendent of this division of the O. & N.

To visit mother—Mrs. George Hilyard went to Enterprise on this morning's train, where she will visit her mother. She will return to her home here Monday.

On way home to Iowa—Wayne Landwehr arrived in the city this morning on his way home to Moulton, Iowa. He stopped over in La Grande to visit for a few days at the H. A. Fox home here.

Attended meeting at Eugene—The Rev. W. C. Ross, pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, returned to La Grande this morning from Eugene, where he has been attending the annual synod of the church.

Visit mother today—Mrs. C. W. Cain went to Hoquiam this morning to visit her mother, Mrs. Olive McMurray, who is in the hospital there.

Stopped here last night—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Crawford and sons, Walter and James, left this morning for their home at Medise, Idaho, after spending last night in La Grande. They are on their way home after a month's visit at Seattle, Washington.

Home to Maxville—Mrs. N. E. Matthews and children, Freddy, Wanda and Junior, passed through the city this morning on their way home to Maxville from Ontario, where they have been visiting for the past month. Before leaving for Ontario they visited for some time at Pendleton.

Left this morning—After visiting in La Grande for the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Barrie, Mrs. Edwina Wilson, and Ethelwyn Gold, and Robert Clouston, left this morning for their homes at Payette, Idaho.

Stopped here yesterday—William Morelock, brother of J. P. Morelock, of this city, and H. A. Galloway, formerly newspaper man of Enterprise, both now of Cottage Grove, stopped in La Grande yesterday on their way home from Baker, where they have been attending the state convention of Spanish American war veterans.

Left for Seaside—Mrs. Frank Rechin, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Julia Metzler, have gone to Seaside, where they will spend about two weeks, while Mrs. Rechin recovers from her long illness. She has been ill since April.

Return from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Karther have returned to their home here after a business trip to Portland. They purchased fixtures for a new lunch room and cafeteria, which they plan to start here beginning next month.

Assist with tent meeting—The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, and the Rev. J. W. Slaton, of Cove, who plans to enter evangelistic service in the Nazarene church in the fall, have been assisting this week with the tent meetings that are in progress at Enterprise. They are expected to return to La Grande today.

Return from convention—The Rev. C. V. Dunn, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Answers Question Disbayed to find that he had overlooked one question left for him in the question box, the specialist waited to dictate the answer which followed. "Please tell us what to do when whole wheat cereal causes looseness of the bowels among children."

Dr. Moore's answer: "Begin with small amounts and increase gradually. At first put only one tablespoonful of the whole wheat meal—such as I find you can procure at H. P. Lewis' mill in Old Town—into the child's cream of wheat at breakfast. Diminish the cream of wheat and increase the other, and you will have no trouble."

250 ATTEND WONDERLAND CONVENTION (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Answers Question Disbayed to find that he had overlooked one question left for him in the question box, the specialist waited to dictate the answer which followed. "Please tell us what to do when whole wheat cereal causes looseness of the bowels among children."

Dr. Moore's answer: "Begin with small amounts and increase gradually. At first put only one tablespoonful of the whole wheat meal—such as I find you can procure at H. P. Lewis' mill in Old Town—into the child's cream of wheat at breakfast. Diminish the cream of wheat and increase the other, and you will have no trouble."

250 ATTEND WONDERLAND CONVENTION (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little

OILING WORK IS UNDER WAY

Oiling operations on the Old Oregon Trail between La Grande and Pendleton were resumed yesterday and by this evening the first application will be completed on eight or nine miles of the highway. The oiling crew started at Meacham yesterday and is working toward La Grande and today operations started just west of Emigrant Springs toward Dead Man's pass.

The oiling operations of the North Powder-Baker section of the Old Oregon Trail will be completed today noon and the last of next week the complete oiling equipment which has been working there will be moved to Meacham and start oiling the road toward Pendleton.

Using John Day Highway. People from Eastern Oregon traveling to Portland should go by way of Baker, Unity and the John Day highway if they want to miss the oil, Oscar Cutler, highway engineer, said this morning. This highway joins the Oregon Trail at Arlington.

George O. Brandenburg, general manager and Otto M. Jones, public manager of the Oregon State Motor association, declared that cars were not damaged by the oil, however, on a recent trip between Ontario and Huntington, while oiling operations were under way. "We made the run through the fresh oil at a 12-mile speed," Mr. Brandenburg said, "and had not so much as a single spot of oil on the cream-colored paint of our car when we finished. This test has served to convince us that if motorists will only obey the highway commission's notice and keep within the 12-mile limit no harm will be done to the finish of their cars. It shall be my purpose to issue an A. A. A. bulletin to this effect upon my return to Portland."

A traffic cop will be stationed along the highway where oiling operations are underway most of the time Mr. Cutler said this morning.

TWO CARAVANS WILL BRING DELEGATES (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Answers Question Disbayed to find that he had overlooked one question left for him in the question box, the specialist waited to dictate the answer which followed. "Please tell us what to do when whole wheat cereal causes looseness of the bowels among children."

Dr. Moore's answer: "Begin with small amounts and increase gradually. At first put only one tablespoonful of the whole wheat meal—such as I find you can procure at H. P. Lewis' mill in Old Town—into the child's cream of wheat at breakfast. Diminish the cream of wheat and increase the other, and you will have no trouble."

250 ATTEND WONDERLAND CONVENTION (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Adams Front Is Being Built for Drug Store

The Sommer building, where Glass Drugs, Inc., operates, is preparing to open its eyes on Adams avenue. The blank south wall that has faced the crowds on the city's busiest thoroughfare will soon give way to eight modern show windows and a handsome center entrance to the drugstore.

Inside, the old fixtures will be replaced by new ones. An English showcase will extend the full length of the store, next to the street. Ernie Heasler, a local contractor, has full charge of the drug store remodeling. The wiring and plumbing also will be done by La Grande men.

The brick and glazing are in the hands of Charles Jackson and Harvey Smith, Spokane contractors, but local labor will be employed for the work.

During the remodeling, the store will continue to do business. The building, now owned by the Misses Fannie and Mary Kommer, was built by their father, Aaron Sommer, in 1891. It was extensively remodeled 10 years ago.

Ed Miles and J. P. DeVore are helping W. R. Phillips with his hay this week. Chester Godsey, of Union, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Mowley, Sunday.

Phyllis Jones and Catherine Green, of Union, were visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ed Miles, Tuesday.

Mrs. Taylor's mother, who is past 80 years old, has been ill this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zurbrick and children and Mrs. Fred Gaskill, of La Grande, were camping at the Ed Miles home last Sunday.

Carl Edvalson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Edvalson, is home from Utah on a visit. This is his first visit home for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips were at Union Monday. S. P. Casick, who has just completed picking his Lambert chickens, reports that the yield this year was below the average.

CAST CHOSEN FOR HISTORICAL FETE (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Ed Miles and J. P. DeVore are helping W. R. Phillips with his hay this week. Chester Godsey, of Union, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Mowley, Sunday.

Phyllis Jones and Catherine Green, of Union, were visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ed Miles, Tuesday.

Mrs. Taylor's mother, who is past 80 years old, has been ill this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zurbrick and children and Mrs. Fred Gaskill, of La Grande, were camping at the Ed Miles home last Sunday.

Carl Edvalson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Edvalson, is home from Utah on a visit. This is his first visit home for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips were at Union Monday. S. P. Casick, who has just completed picking his Lambert chickens, reports that the yield this year was below the average.

CAST CHOSEN FOR HISTORICAL FETE (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Answers Question Disbayed to find that he had overlooked one question left for him in the question box, the specialist waited to dictate the answer which followed. "Please tell us what to do when whole wheat cereal causes looseness of the bowels among children."

Dr. Moore's answer: "Begin with small amounts and increase gradually. At first put only one tablespoonful of the whole wheat meal—such as I find you can procure at H. P. Lewis' mill in Old Town—into the child's cream of wheat at breakfast. Diminish the cream of wheat and increase the other, and you will have no trouble."

250 ATTEND WONDERLAND CONVENTION (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Ed Miles and J. P. DeVore are helping W. R. Phillips with his hay this week. Chester Godsey, of Union, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Mowley, Sunday.

Phyllis Jones and Catherine Green, of Union, were visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Ed Miles, Tuesday.

Mrs. Taylor's mother, who is past 80 years old, has been ill this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zurbrick and children and Mrs. Fred Gaskill, of La Grande, were camping at the Ed Miles home last Sunday.

Carl Edvalson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Edvalson, is home from Utah on a visit. This is his first visit home for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillips were at Union Monday. S. P. Casick, who has just completed picking his Lambert chickens, reports that the yield this year was below the average.

CAST CHOSEN FOR HISTORICAL FETE (Continued from Page 1) The Rev. J. D. Moberg, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, with Mrs. Dunn, their children, and J. H. Lindsay, returned last evening from Newberg, Ore., where the annual convention of the Churches of Christ in Oregon has been held.

Guest of sister here—Miss Geneva Smith, of Portland, is here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, for a few weeks. Miss Smith, a La Grande high school graduate, completed a course at the University of Oregon this spring and is planning to teach at Coos Bay, Ore., in the fall.

To organize here—A Daughters of Utah pioneers organization will be organized in La Grande next Tuesday when Flora B. Horne, of Salt Lake City, will be here for that purpose. Any girl 16 years of age whose parents came to Utah before May 10, 1869 or by covered wagon or hand cart before the event of the railroad are requested to be present at the Ladies Day Santa Tabernacle Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Marriage licenses issued—Four marriage licenses were issued from the courtroom here Thursday, only one of the eight contracting parties being a resident of La Grande. The licenses were granted to the following couples: Harold W. Dobson, of North Powder, and Miss Louise Sparker, of Union; Loren C. Taylor, of Chilwood, Ore., and Miss Irena V. Harris, of Portland; R. W. Wanner, of Pendleton, and Miss Esther C. Mauser, of Amity; William W. Gray, of Perry, and Miss Ada K. Smith, of La Grande.

NEED UNIT OF HEALTH IN COUNTY (Continued from Page 1.) Injuries, then, are our only arguments for clothing. "The flapper, if she is responsible for the reform in women's dress, started one of the finest movements the world has seen in modern times. The effect on longevity of life is already apparent. For the years from 1920 to 1924, the pneumonia death rate among women was only two-thirds that among men.

"Respiratory diseases, we have learned, are caused by too much clothing. The old story of the glided boy who died because his 'sweat' could not breathe has been disproved. The sweat glands are the fire department of the body. They could not be called upon except when a fire is raging as in the case of a fever."

Recommendations Light-colored porous clothing, an extra thickness of it as possible was advocated by the specialist for wear in summer. For children, he advised play in the sunshine with covering but abbreviated trunks, bloomers and dresses for little girls and coveralls for little boys were all they should be required to wear in warm weather, he said. Shoes are better than slippers, the medic pointed out, and stiff soles are always preferable to flexible ones. Invariably, footwear should be fitted with the wearer standing.

Refusing to close the imprudent clinic while there were still mothers waiting to have their children examined, Dr. Moore continued to deal out invaluable advice for more than two hours after the institute program was technically finished. His lecture started at 4 p. m. and was to have covered one hour. At 7 o'clock, the nearly exhausted specialist was still examining babies. Some 50 registration cards in the possession of Miss Alice H. Marquardt, county nurse, who assisted him, recorded the number of children benefited.

"When mothers show the spirit of co-operation that was exhibited here this afternoon, it is a pleasure to be able to help them," declared Dr. Moore as he packed up his instruments and displays ready to leave last night. "I have never seen greater eagerness or willingness to learn."

Answers Question Disbayed to find that he had overlooked one question left for him in the question box, the specialist waited to dictate the answer which followed. "Please tell us what to do when whole wheat cereal causes looseness of the bowels among children."

Dr. Moore