LA GRANDERS TAKE SHOOT

La Grande trapshooters scored high in the elimination event at Pendleton yesterday, when a team was selected to represent the U. W. R. H. & N. company in the Union Pacific system's all-star game to be held in Cheyenne.

P. J. Wolf, of Wallonia, but a member of La Grande's team, was high with 25 out of 30 possible. J. B. Smith, of La Grande, was second with 22, and Carl Iarn, of Wallonia, also a member of the local squad, was third with 21.

H. W. McCulloch, of Huntington, scored 19 and C. Nevins, of Huntington, 18. P. J. Hamilton, of Hirth, and A. J. McMillan, of Hirth, tied at 17 for alternate.

Three rival teams took part in the shoot. Another event—a cash shoot—was held in conjunction with the elimination contest, with J. J. Frazier, of Pendleton, and Wain Wallis, of Wallonia, participating. Wolf's victory counted in both shoots.

DEMPSEY-TUNNEY FIGHT IN CHICAGO ON SEPTEMBER 16

CHICAGO, July 18 (AP)—The Chicago Herald and Examiner today said it had definitely learned that the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight championship fight would be staged in Chicago September 16. The paper said that formal announcement would be made by Tex Rickard after a conference with his backers, whom he described as "five of the biggest men in Chicago."

The newspaper account estimated that Soldier Field, the municipal stadium on the lake front, would be the site of the battle.

Railroad Team Wins From Circus 5 to 4

The A. C. Horns circus baseball team was defeated 5 to 4 yesterday afternoon by the O. W. players in a hard fought game on the high school grounds.

The circus team substituted for the captain, because he failed to arrive for a scheduled contest.

The railroad men will battle with the circus side again this afternoon at five o'clock in a seven-inning game. A small admission charge, to cover the price of hamburgs, will be made.

Government's spending bill, which is being passed, will send a congressman can find his way back to Washington.

BEAVER BEACH N. J.—The city is to do something or other about the latest weather record. A girl, apparently fully attired, left an automobile and walked to the beach. A tip up took her, pronto change, she was revealed in a bathing suit. A step on two and she was in the water. An 18' fish seconds. One hour later city commissioners called a meeting about

Babe Ruth Fined $25 For Driving Too Fast

NEW YORK, July 18 (AP)—The name of George Herman Ruth was called out today in the course of routine traffic court arrangements. Magistrate Glatzmayer looked up to see a bearded giant with a puckered brow standing before him.

"Why you're Babe Ruth, the slapper," the magistrate exclaimed, and the babe grinned.

"Yes, your honor," said the pride of the Yankees, and then a motorcycle policeman told how he had arrested the ball player while driving at 25 miles an hour on
