Iris King Weds Eugene Birlow

A Portland wedding that will interest friends here was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday evening when Miss Iris A. King, daughter of Mrs. D. P. Charlton, of this city, became the bride of Eugene C. Birlow, formerly of La Grande.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Plummer, uncle and aunt of the groom, at 491 East Fifty-fifth street. The Rev. Mr. McClure, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated at the ring service, which was heralded at the organ by Miss Albert Chittam, of Salem, the groom's cousin.

Attending the bride was Mrs. E. R. Jesson, of Portland, who wore a gown of periwinkle crepe, Mood Bekley, of Portland, acted as best man.

The bride's gown was gorgeously in a delicate shade of orchid. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses combined with sweetpeas of pink and orchid. Her brother, Wade R. King, gave her in marriage.

When the vows had been exchanged, a reception was given for the bridal couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leighton, friends of the groom. Immediately afterward, Mr. and Mrs. Birlow left for Rockaway beach, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The couple will live in Portland, where Mr. Birlow is connected with the Sutherland-Lewis Music company. They will make their home at the Candelaria apartments, 41 North Twenty-first street.

Mr. Birlow is a La Grande high school graduate. She was at one time employed by The Observer Publishing company, and later worked in the railway offices here. Mr. Birlow, a former high school student here, also was employed in the railway offices for a time.

who is leaving La Grande with her mother tomorrow to make her home at Tillamook, Oregon, seven of her friends entertained at a farewell party Friday evening at the home of Miss Marjorie Warnick. The eight girls present enjoyed a buffet supper at six o'clock followed by a theatre party at the Arcade.

The dining room of the Warnick home was prettily decorated for the occasion in a color scheme of orange and white, garden flowers being used.

The girls present were Misses Vera Beatty, Eleanor Glass, Gwendolyn Buchanan, Pauline Paxton, Lorraine Pierce, Margaret Baker, Marjorie Warnick and Dorothy Funk.

Pendleton Couple Married

Miss Verla Hale Smith has returned to her home here from Portland where she attended the wedding of Miss Marian Ross and Herbert Arrowsmith, both of Pendleton, Thursday afternoon at the St. Ignatius church there. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Benson hotel.

Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for points in Canada on a honeymoon trip. They will return to Pendleton to make their home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Arrowsmith are popular young people of Pendleton, where they have hosts of friends. They also have many friends in La Grande, who wish them every happiness.

W. R. C. Entertains War Veterans

Members of the Oliver P. Morton Hotel Corps No. 37 entertained the Grand Army of the Republic veterans at their regular monthly dinner Saturday afternoon at the K. P. ball. About 30 people were present.

During the business meeting, which followed dinner, Mrs. Laura Braden, president of the W. R. C., gave a report of the state convention at Marshfield, which she recently attended. Next year's convention will be held at Salem.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Eagles Hall. There will be initiation followed by refreshments after the business meeting.

Dinner—Creamed veal, boiled potatoes in parsley butter, new beets in orange sauce, tomato cream salad, raspberry parfait, sponge cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The center, thick part of chard is used for the luncheon dish. The leaves can be used as spinach in a salad on the following day.

Since this is the picnic season the recipe for raisin bread follows. Sandwiches made with this bread are quite as good for a picnic as for a home luncheon or afternoon tea.

Raisin Bread
Two cups graham flour, 2 cups

wheat flour, 1/2 cup sugar, one-half cup molasses, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/2 teaspoons soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups sour milk, 1 egg, 1 cup peanut butter, 1 cup softened and chopped raisins.

Mix flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Add molasses and peanut butter and mix thoroughly. Add 1 cup of sour milk and mix
