community exhibition. There are flintlocks and powder horns that were brought across the plains after the Civil war, native weapons and ingenious makeshifts that fell of pioneer conflicts with the Indians, souvenirs from the battlefields of France, and examples of the latest word in defense weapons.

The displays varied and extensive as they are, can only suggest the nature of the scenes that will compose the patriotic spectacle to be presented at the high school athletic grounds Friday and Saturday evenings.

A crew of 14 American Legion men, under the direction of C. Y. Talbot, construction committee chairman, worked half the night Tuesday completing the stage and erecting seats for the pageant attendance. Three thousand persons can be accommodated at each performance.

Between 50 and 60 fir trees have been arranged to form the setting for the pageant. The top of the cabin for the Indian episode will be added tonight.

Last Rehearsal Tonight—The last rehearsal before the pageant is completely completed is announced for this evening. Chorus members and all characters having a part in the production are expected to be at the high school at 7:30 o'clock.

The pageant story is in pantomime, depicted and explained by a prologue.

First of the nine episodes is from the colonial period, and is sponsored by the local chapter of the D. A. B. The second, showing the Lewis & Clark expedition, is under the auspices of the Elks.

The fur traders period has been worked out with the Old Fellows and the Moose jointly sponsoring. The Grand Army of the Republic, assisted by the Eagles lodge, has fostered the depicting of the Civil war story.

The period of the surveyors is under the direction of the Parkdale club.

Chief Joseph's part in the history of the Wallowa and Union counties, a special episode written for the pageant by J. W. Evans, producer and director, is sponsored by the Union county chamber of commerce and the Knights of Columbus.

United Spanish War Veterans have looked after the preparation of the episode depicting the Spanish-American war.

Mrs. Lydia Grandy, who came to Oregon a girl of 18, on the fourth of July 92 years ago, has been chosen by the Union County Pioneer association to represent them as queen in the pioneer episode.

Mrs. Grandy, Dunham Wright, and other early settlers will be introduced in this scene, which is offered by the pioneers, assisted by the Parkdale lodge and the Union county chamber of commerce.

The American Legion, the National Guards and the Salvation Army unite as sponsors of the world war episode, which concludes the spectacle.

By rendition of period songs, the chorus comments the scenes and helps to interpret them. The choristers were assembled by the Monday Musical club, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, the Union commercial club and other organizations assisting with the presentation of the pageant.

EAST SUFFERS FROM WARMTH

(By The Associated Press)

Easterners mopped their brows and scowled into the west today. For out of the west had rolled the summer's greatest heat wave. But appealing glances of hope were turned to the west, too, for relief from the humid heat was scheduled to come from the same source.

Death List Swelled—As the heat mounted, prostrations were reported and the list of drownings indirectly attributable to the weather which caused a general rush to lake and seashore, mounted steadily.

Showers were reported at Galveston, Sait, St. Marie, Duluth and St. Paul. Although high temperatures continued yesterday throughout the central valley and upper lake region, reaching 100 degrees in Iowa and Nebraska, signs of relief were apparent today.

Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and Colorado were reported cooler with indications existing that the cool wave will spread rapidly eastward.

Relief Predicted—Showers were predicted for the sweltering eastern states tonight and resulting cooler weather was promised for tomorrow.

Temperatures which yesterday passed 100 degrees in portions of Pennsylvania, New England and New York were expected to be generally surpassed today.

New England seemed uniformly in the grip of the heat wave, and New York state bade fair to prove a lively rival for high honors.

Many Sock Convention—Victoria, B. C., Salem, Eugene and Lewiston have registered their invitations in advance. Spokane, in addition, may also get into the rivalry.

The competition for the succeeding convention usually shakes up some lively politics during the sessions. Election of officers seldom arouses anywhere near the interest, delegates of other years declare.

Reservations Numerous—Two hundred fifty reservations are now on record. That is double the advance registration at Bellingham, Wash., last year, Zimmerman said this morning.

"Everything is in splendid shape," he observed. "Indeed, I don't know when the preparatory work has progressed in finer shape than it has here. Instead of the usual frantic rush at the last minute, I find myself with little left to do."

Entries for the annual five-minute talk cup contest are listed from Pocatello, Boise, Nampa, Spokane, Seattle, Bellingham, Portland and Eugene. Several others are expected to line up before Wednesday evening, which is the limit for entrance.

Cup an Exhibition—The handsome silver cup that George S. Birnie is offering in the name of La Grande was placed on exhibition in the south windows of the La Grande investment company's building this morning. It has been pronounced one of the best looking cups offered since the contest was originated with the organization 10 years ago.

The old country club golf course has been undergoing improvements for a couple of weeks in anticipation of the tournament that is one of the entertainment features of the land men's gathering. The Ladd estate trophy is ready for the winner.

Several Golfers Entered—Paul Sheddler, vice president of the Northwest association from Washington, is one of the entrants. Some other prominent members are ready registered for the tournament include C. M. Cryer, president of the Spokane board; Phillip V. W. Fry, president of the Portland board; C. W. Norton, representing Ralph B. Lloyd who recently purchased three million dollars worth of Portland property; Robert W. Grinnell, past president of the Spokane board, and W. B. Dowbray, of Alameda, Mont., one of the directors of the association.

Guest badges entitling the holders to sit in on all meetings of the convention have been mailed to the contributors to the convention fund and to the members of the principal committee. The badges do not admit the wearers to the banquet, however. Local persons who wish to attend the affair must make reservations with either B. A. Benham or Raymond O. Williams before 10 a. m. Friday. It was announced at the meeting.

The president's ball Friday evening is open to members of the local committee, their husbands and wives and to all visitors in the community.

More Cars Needed—Forty more cars are needed to complete the number required to take the visitors to Wallowa lake, wonderful Sunday morning for a trout breakfast and entertainment to be provided by the Wallowa county folk, W. C. Perkins.

No Word From Borah—No definite word has been received from W. E. Borah, United States senator from Idaho, who is scheduled to appear on the opening day program. I. W. Stoddard, president of the Boise board, wired Zimmerman this morning that he was unable to reach the senator, and would consult Clyde Brown, Idaho vice president of the northwest association, this evening. The secretary said he feared the senator might not reach Idaho in time to fill the engagement, and no announcement has been made of his return to Boise.

The Idaho caravan, including the 14 realty men and nine musicians from Pocatello, ran into a stretch of fresh cut this morning and were forced to break formation. They will proceed, each driver at his own discretion, arriving in La Grande by ones and twos this afternoon and evening.

Pocatello, although no formal invitation has been dispatched, is expected to join the bidders for next year's convention.

WOMEN REQUEST STATEMENT FROM CHIEF EXECUTIVE

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 21 (AP)—A formal declaration by President Coolidge on the status of enforcement of the prohibition law to protect the reputation of the U. S., especially in the former misalliance fields, was asked last night by delegates of the Women's Interdenominational Foreign Mission conference on the eve of their departure for home today.

"In view of the eighteenth amendment to our constitution," a man adopted resolution "we urge a clear, strong statement from our president as to the possibility of enforcing law based on the constitution and the willingness of determination of our government to correct the impression which is being given to the nation and the world that this republic is powerless to enforce its righteous laws."

The 1500 delegates, representing ten denominations of the eastern states voted unanimously for the adoption.

propaganda address to fact) places the one who issues and advocates it, in a nullification class. To proclaim his unsound principle of constitution government and to shoot his arrows of bigoted poison, Mr. Borah chose territory which harbors a people who have openly and flagrantly nullified two amendments to the legislature of the past 25 years. Of course the distinguished Blahoun tactfully avoided any reference to the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments because he knows that by championing the enforcement of these two amendments he would be tramping on mighty dangerous ground."

Hints of Prestige Loss—Senator Edwards concluded by saying that the Idaho senator's "infamous Baltimore" vote made some few weeks ago and his August, Georgia outcry makes it altogether improbable if not absolutely impossible for him to recover sufficient prestige to become a serious contender for the honors which Mr. Coolidge now holds."

BOOMERANGS IN SCHOOL—SACRAMENTO—If the application of Jack A. Hofer is acted upon favorably, California school boys may soon be wards with the chairman of the transportation committee, states. Persons who will volunteer the use of their automobiles are requested to notify Mr. Perkins.
