Visitors Attend Lake Reception

Between 75 and 100 visiting women who are in the city for the annual Pacific Northwest Estate association convention attended the reception held at Hot Lake yesterday afternoon. About 25 cars arrived at Hot Lake at 9 o'clock, and a delightful two hours were spent in a feature dance by Mrs. George Curry, Mrs. Sam Miller, Mrs. A. T. Hill, Margaret Anson, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Earl Stoddard and Helen Sencerbox, of North Lake, preceded the caravan to Hot Lake and greeted visitors upon their arrival.

They were first shown through anatorium by Dr. Phy and his assistants. An interesting program was given consisting of songs by the chamber of commerce quartet and the Treble club of the Pocatello high school, who are here with the Pocatello delegation, a feature dance by Bethine Miller, of Union, a violin duet number by Misses Alice Jeanette and Maecoth Cooper, of La Grande, Little Cooper girls each played a number also. Refreshments were served during the afternoon, after leaving the anatorium at 5 o'clock the caravan proceeded to Union, Cove, Island City back to La Grande. At Cove girls of the Treble Clef club, Pocatello and several others joined to enjoy a swim in the swimming pool.

Another delightful social affair was the convention, to which the women were invited, took place evening at the Elks ball room and was held there. About 250 women and their wives and company members and their wives were in attendance.

Entertainment was enjoyed from 9 o'clock until 12, with several entertainment features intervening. Beniah Newlin gave a clever piano dance and the eight girls of Pocatello, Idaho added to the enjoyment of the occasion with their song numbers. The chamber of commerce quartet entered by accompanying the dance orchestra in several numbers. This morning at 11 o'clock the women were entertained at a picnic breakfast at Riverside park.

A delicious breakfast was served out of doors by Mrs. Fisher and her committee of Ladies women, the chamber of commerce quartet appeared on stage, dressed as westerners, gave a number of songs. Breakfast was served to about 100.

Silverthorn-Clark Marriages Announced

Marriages of interest to many La Grande people was quickly noticed in Portland last Friday when Miss Marjorie Silverthorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, of this city, and Arch-

Lace for Fall

Lace collars and cuffs, fashion experts say, will be "the thing" this fall.

Miss Silverthorn is well known in La Grande, having made this city her home for several years and attended school here. She has been librarian at Reed College for the last two years.

Mr. Clark is also a Reed college graduate and did post-graduate work at Columbia university, New York. He was in the service during the war and is now engaged in business in Portland.

Mrs. Silverthorn returned to her home here yesterday from Portland, after attending her daughter's marriage. Mrs. Clark was extensively entertained by her many Portland friends before her wedding.

57 Women Attend Park Meeting

Fifty-seven women were present when the Loyal Sisters of the First Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at Riverside park with Mrs. J. T. Harvey Jr., Mrs. J. T. Harvey Sr., and Mrs. Dallas Green as hostesses.

A short business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Harry Sandoz, during which time it was decided to hold the annual Bazaar December 18, started the afternoon.

An interesting program followed. Miss Wilma Hansell gave two readings and Miss Wynne Hamm played a violin selection. Both girls were enthusiastically received. Mrs. Ida French reviewed the history of the Loyal Sisters organization since its organization fifteen years ago, telling of the progress it has made in that time.

A dainty two-course luncheon was served, at tables prettily decorated with garden flowers, later in the afternoon.

Campfire Girls Meet At Cove

Members of Seagotaba chapter of camp fire girls went to Cove yesterday morning, leaving here at about 6 o'clock, for their regular weekly meeting. After enjoying a swim in the Cove swimming pool, where they practiced diving after white objects, the girls hiked to the breakfast grounds, some distance beyond the swimming pool, in regular camp formation.

For breakfast several of the girls fried bacon on a hot stove, a part of the camp fire training. After breakfast the regular meeting was held and it was announced that the candy sale would not be held during the American Legion pageant, but would take place Saturday on the street instead. All girls were asked to bring their candy to Mildred Bradshaw's house Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, where it will be weighed and sacked.

The girls returned to their homes here shortly after 10 o'clock. They were taken to Cove by Mrs. H. E. Ritchey and Mrs. E. W. Ely.

Next week's meeting will be held at the home of Miss Lenore Ely. Each girl is asked to bring material for her "personal account" book, as the books will be worked on at that time.

Mrs. Nelson Hostess To Aid Society

Twenty-four women attended the regular monthly social meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church, held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. Nelson on Oak street. The afternoon was enjoyed visiting after which Mrs. Nelson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Genevieve, served a dainty luncheon.

The next meeting of the society will be at the home of Mrs. John Lottes on Fourth street.

those who have no other means of transportation. Cars will also leave the same place at 12 o'clock taking all of the members who work during the day. They will be brought back to La Grande in time to return to their work at 1 o'clock.

On Monday evening there will be a special meeting at 7:30 o'clock at the K. P. hall at which time Mrs. Ward will talk. Plans will be made for a field campaign for new members. Those who are planning to attend summer camp at Port Huron, Mich., are asked to report at this time so reservations can be made.

Mrs. Christine Clark, district deputy, was also present for last evening's meeting. She will be here until Monday when she will go to Baker. A meeting of the Baker W. B. A. will be held Tuesday evening, with the state commander in attendance. As many La Grande women as can be asked to attend the Baker meeting.
