Retire, Men, and Grow Young, Lodge Advises
LONDON, July 23. (AP)—Sir Oliver Lodge laughs at the theory that retirement is fatal to busy men. At seventy-five, he says he is feeling younger than he did for years before he gave up regular work.
"Everyone should retire in good time, for it is an absolute tonic," declared Sir Oliver. "Don't wait till you wear out, is my advice. Retire while you are in good form so you can do all things you desire. I am feeling a lot better than I did when I was still in harness."
But Sir Oliver is not retired in the way many men think of retirement. He is busy most of the time with experiments of various sorts and only three months ago announced the discovery of a new sort of wireless set in which oscillation is abolished.

Dawes went fishing and kept quiet long enough to catch one himself.

"Tearing Through" At Sherrys Theatre Today
Adapted from a story by Frederick Stowers, resident of the color of Chinatown and the impenetrable mystery of the Oriental, "Tearing Through," the first of the big new series starring Richard Talmadge, comes to Sherrys theatre today only. This is by far the most elaborate Talmadge picture which R. B. O. has turned out, and it indicates that the producer's high opinion of their artistic stunt which is not extraordinary, considering his obvious popularity. Arthur Rosson has directed the picture with a fine sense of drama and comedy, and he has given Talmadge plenty of opportunity to indulge his favorite sport of risking his neck in thrilling stunts. Kathryn McGuire makes a delightful heroine. The rest of the cast also includes some excellent thespians notably Arthur Rankin and Dave Morris.
Comedy showing "The Soap Suds Lady."

Brilliant Acting Distinguishes "The Wise Guy"
Frank Lloyd has not only produced an unusually fine story for "The Wise Guy," which had its premiere at the Arcade theatre last night, but gathered a cast for this picture which shows itself eminent in every particular.
Movie-goers will have far to seek before they find another suggestion of such glowing excellence as is present in "The Wise Guy." It is no exaggeration to state that every member of "The

Star Cast Makes "Behind the Front" Grade-A Comedy
In the parlance of the movie studios, "Behind the Front," Paramount's comedy of the A. E. F., which is being brought back to the Star theatre for one day's showing on Saturday, is nothing short of a "wow."
Not since such pictures as "A Regular Fellow" and Harold Lloyd's "Freshman," has such a genuine producer of laughs been thrown on the screen. "Behind the Front" is a true mirror of the humorous side of soldiering in France. The story concerns a couple of dumb doughboys, played by Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, and their love affair with an exceptionally beautiful and vivacious girl, Mary Brian, who never appeared more alluring and charming than she does in a Red Cross worker's uniform in the picture.
Before joining up with Uncle Sam's raiding party, the two, Beery and Hatton have been sworn enemies; the first—a defective, and the latter—a burglar. But since they took to wearing the same uniform they have become buddies. Beery's comical performance is truly magnificent, surpassing even his great comedy characterization as "Rhode Island Red," the happy-go-lucky bum in "The Pony Express." Raymond Hatton adds new laurels by his acting as Shorty McGee, burglar, stick-up man and doughboy. Mary Brian is splendid, and the love interest of the picture is maintained right up to the last comedy climax. Chester Conklin, remembered for his small town character in "A Woman of the World," gives an admirable performance as the Scotch Kiltie, who tells the eager doughboys where he won his medals.
"Behind the Front" was directed by Edward Sutherland. Monty Brice adapted it from Hugh Wiley's Saturday Evening Post short story. Ethel Doherty wrote the screen play.
