BUTTER, EGG PRICES JUMP

PORTLAND, Ore., July 27 (AP)—Stiff advances are shown in local butter and egg prices with the market very strong at the higher levels. Light receipts during the last few days together with a higher trend in other coast markets is responsible for the advances here.

One the dairy exchange cube butter was boosted 1½ cents in all grades but firsts while the lower grade advanced a cent. Quotations now are: Extras 39½c; standards 38½c; prime firsts 37½c; and firsts 35½c.

Fresh eggs also show a brisk advance for the day with current receipts up 2 cents to 27 cents net and all other grades a cent higher. Fresh standard extras now quoted at 32 cents with firsts at 31 cents and mediums at 27 cents.

Receipts of eggs yesterday amounted to 425 cases. Local cooler holdings are reported at 55,172 cases. Receipts of surplus cubes from country creameries was only 11,351 pounds with the make of local creameries down to 12,875 pounds.

Feeling is easier in the poultry market with commission houses now quoting light hens at 16 to 17 cents. Poultry buyers offering generally 16 to 17 cents for light hens. Heavy hens also slower at 25 cents. Springs steady and unchanged.

Country dressed hogs down to 20 cents with 20½ cents the extreme top. Choice light veal holding steady at 17 cents. Receipts only normal but demand easier.

NEW HIGH MARKS FOR YEAR MADE IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, July 27. (AP)—New high records for the year were established by nearly a dozen issues on the resumption of the upward movement in to-day's stock market. Trading was extremely dull, due to the lack of public interest and the apparent reluctance of many professional traders to extend their commitments until after the quarterly meeting of the U. S. Steel Corporation late today. Call money rates continued relatively easy with little concern manifested in the increase in brokers' loans reported for last week by the federal reserve bank.

The closing was firm. Total sales approximated 1,200,000 shares.

Need of Landing Field At Pendleton Is Shown

PENDLETON, July 27. (AP)—Need of an emergency landing field near Pendleton was demonstrated here yesterday by the landing of Captain Herold, of the United States army on his way from Salt Lake City to Vancouver, Wash. The officer was forced to spend considerable time in seeking a suitable landing field where he might alight to obtain gas and lunch.

It is reported here that two pilots of the Elko-Pasco air mail line will be in Pendleton within the next few days to seek out a suitable landing field which might be needed by their planes in emergency showers, fog or snow.

CHAPMAN ELIMINATED

NEW YORK, July 27. (AP)—Red Chapman, of Boston, was eliminated today from consideration as a contender for the featherweight championship after his manager, Charles Carco, had clashed with the state athletic commission over postponement of Chapman's bout tonight with Babe Herman.

Combine Color and Comfort In Planning Your Living Room for Fall

Your home life centers in the living room—and it's but natural that you take greatest pride in having that room as attractive and as comfortable as possible. It is the room that is used most and seen most in the fall and winter months that are to come—it is where your friends are entertained, where the family gathers to enjoy the evening hours.

Plan now to have a better living room this fall. It may be that the desired effect can be had by merely making a new arrangement and adding one or two pieces of furniture. Or perhaps your old living room pieces are worn and soiled and you can plan on a new suite—a colorful overstuffed davenport and chair around which to build a room that you can be proud of.

And you can have the new furniture without making a serious hole in your home budget. Furniture is an investment that will last for a life-time—and we therefore make arrangements to allow you any convenient purchase plan you desire. You can complete your room and have the joy of its beauty and comfort while making moderate payments during the months to come. Let us show you the new pieces and suites now on display.

Throughout this large stock—four floors devoted exclusively to furniture—you will find many fine pieces to help solve your problem. Lovely colors, bright and decorative, are becoming increasingly popular in upholstery. These, which are easily carried throughout the room to give color harmony, are provided in furniture of unusual comfort—a quality of superior character for which Bohnenkamp's furniture is known.
