Two Camps Agree To Consolidate

Resolutions for the consolidation of Iris Camp of Royal Neighbors, of La Grande, with Island Camp, of Island City, were accepted last evening when a business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Millering, presided over by Mrs. Ella Koter, Oracle. The Island camp has only 17 members and will be more active working with the Iris camp.

About 20 members attended last night's meeting. During the evening plans were discussed for a picnic with the Modern Woodmen of America to be held sometime in August. A definite date has not been decided upon.

Camping Party At Wallowa Lake

A camping party was held at Wallowa Lake over the week end for Miss Margaret Seeley, of Portland, who is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Earl McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cleaver and Mrs. McDonald and Miss Seeley remained at the lake until yesterday, when they returned to their home here.

Mr. McDonald, Miss Vera Denty, Tom Graham and Max O'Brien were among the guests on Sunday, but returned to La Grande Sunday evening.

"Old Folks" Party To Be Held at Cove

COVE (Special)—The "Woman's" club of Cove will give an "Old Folks" party in the Ascension grove on Wednesday, August 4, when all of the people of the community, who have passed their sixtieth milestone, will be their guests. Lunch will be served at noon and in the afternoon those present will be given a chance to visit.

All residents or former residents of the Cove vicinity, who are 60 years old or past are invited.

LOOKS LIKE LAVA
REDDING, Cal.—Huge boulders being carried in the thick flow of mud down the side of Mount Shasta has created the resemblance of a movement of lava.

Women's Oldest

hygienic problem now solved a new and different way—true protection. Dispose of it as easily as tissue.

THE old-time "sanitary pad" is fast becoming a rarity. Millions are discarding it as a needless hazard.

"KOTEX," a new and remarkable way, is now used by 8 in 10 better class women.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheers't frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus stops ALL danger of offending.

You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitancy, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.

COVE (Special)—The Ladies Guild will meet at the Ascension Grove Thursday afternoon.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Sliced peaches with cream, cereal, top milk, plain oatmeal, crisp bran toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Cream of spinach soup, croquettes, combination salad, brown bread, lemonade.
Dinner—Watermelon, cocktail, fried chicken, steamed rice, creamed onions, cucumber salad, baking powder biscuits, sponge cake, raspberry cream, milk, coffee.

Since a cereal soup is served lemonade is suggested in place of milk and tea in the luncheon menu.

Stewed peaches, fruit juice or apples in some form, should be provided for children six years of age for breakfast. Peaches, delicious as they are, are a hard fruit for small tummies to digest unless the fruit is thoroughly cooked.

Combination Salad
Four thin slices bacon, 1 small tomato, 1 head lettuce, 1 cup cooked beans, 1/2 cup onion juice, some cream dressing.

Wash lettuce, crisp and dry. Shred three or four of the outer leaves and combine with the beans, sprinkled with onion juice. Chill. Scald, peel and chill tomatoes. Cut bacon in half-inch pieces and broil until crisp and brown. Arrange beans and shredded lettuce on a bed of the inner leaves of lettuce and sprinkle with the crisp snips of bacon. Cut tomatoes in quarters and arrange around the bean salad mixture. Serve with sour cream dressing made by whipping 1 cup of chilled sour cream until soft. Add tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon ground mustard and 1/2 teaspoon paprika mixed in a sifted. Beat in 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 tablespoon vinegar and chill.

LONGVIEW Washington
LONGVIEW, Washington.—new industrial city of the Pacific Northwest—is proud of its advantages as an ideal location for industries with its unexcelled transportation facilities—rail, river, ocean, highways. But it is also justly proud of its wonderful beauty and fine living conditions. One of Longview's most charming spots is Lake Sacajawea, a body of crystal blue water 1 1/2 miles long which borders several residential sections. It is completely encircled with boulevards, by wide plots of park-like lawns, flowers and shrubbery. Ingenious landscaping has provided miniature islands ornamented with huge old trees. Lake Sacajawea is part of a million dollar gift by one of Longview's benefactors, the entire sum to be expended for civic betterment.
