

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS

August 4 — Convention of Eastern Oregon Medical Society at Hot Lake and Anthony Lake.

Sept. 22, 23, 24, and 25—Union county fair at Elgin, Ore.

On Fishing Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean and little son, John, went to Wallawa on this morning's train. They will spend a few days camping and fishing in Wallawa county.

Here from Imbler—Frank McKennon, of Imbler, was a business caller in La Grande today.

Visitors from Cove—Miss Dorothy Mills accompanied her father, J. E. Mills, to La Grande today when he drove here from Cove on business.

Returning from Monmouth—Miss Grace Snook, who has been a student at the state normal school at Monmouth, is expected to return home today.

To Portland for Work—Miss Lucille Millering and her brother, Chester Millering, went to Portland Tuesday evening. They will return next Wednesday.

Here from Cove—Roy Bell was in the city from Cove yesterday. He reports that the cherry picking is not yet completed there, but probably will be this week.

Inspecting Roads—Tom Davis, from the Portland office of the bureau of public roads, was in the city yesterday. He is traveling through Eastern Oregon and making an inspection of the roads in this section.

Home from School—Miss Isabel Goodnough was in the city this morning on her way home to Wallawa from Eugene, where she has been attending the University of Oregon. Since the close of the regular winter term Miss Goodnough has been attending summer school.

In Portland—Fred Schilke is in Portland for a few days. Ed Ebell is taking his place as engineer of the branch line passenger train during his absence.

Attended Summer School—Mrs. Charles Whitehead passed through the city this morning on her way home to La Grande from Pendleton, where she has been attending the summer session of normal school there. She has been away six weeks.

Planning Motor Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattison are planning to leave Sunday morning for Portland, where they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. L. McCree for a motor trip to Crater Lake and other scenic points in Western Oregon.

Distribute County Booklets—About 5,000 booklets, published by the county court with the assistance of the Union council of commerce chambers, to spread the fame of the Grande Ronde valley and Union county, are ready for distribution. They are packed with information about farm conditions, climate, industries, railroads, cities and towns, recreations, schools and other institutions that make this the "little Eden" of Oregon.

Home from Monmouth—Miss Grace Snook returned to her home here this morning from Monmouth, Oregon, where she has been attending the summer session at the Oregon Normal school. Miss Snook, who has been a teacher in the Greenwood school here for the past six years, will again teach in that school the coming school year.

Passed Through City—Mrs. Della Dolbee passed through the city this morning on her way home to Flora from Portland. Mrs. Dolbee is going home to recuperate from an operation in Portland two weeks ago. She has been living in Portland and sending her daughter to school there. Her daughter, Miss Kaye Dolbee, preceded her to Flora, where she has been with her grandparents for the past month.

To Enterprise this Morning—Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Barnwell went to Enterprise on this morning's train. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Omer Barnwell there, and will also spend several days camping and fishing.

Visiting at Stitzinger Home—Mrs. W. H. Correll, of Portland, Mrs. Emil Ash, of Umatilla, and Goshell Veach, of Portland, are visiting in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stitzinger. They drove to La Grande arriving yesterday afternoon and plan to be here until Sunday. Mrs. Correll is Mrs. Stitzinger's sister and is the mother of Mrs. Helene Hughes, also of this city.

Left this Morning—Miss Beulah Prickett left this morning for her home at Halnes after her visit here for a week with Miss Pendleton, where she has been attending the summer session of normal school there. She has been away six weeks.

Home from Baker—Mrs. Alice Vinson returned to her work in the state highway office here this morning after a week's visit with friends in Baker. Mrs. Vinson formerly lived at Baker and has many friends there. While there she spent a few days at the summer home of Mrs. William Pollman. She also made a trip over the Baker-Unity highway with Judge and Mrs. William Doby.

To attend commission meeting—Judge William Doby, chairman of the state highway commission, was in the city yesterday on his way to Portland for the regular meeting of the state highway commission today and tomorrow. A bid for the grading of the Unity-Herford section of the Baker-Unity highway, the last section of that highway not completed, will be let at this month's meeting.

Home to North Powder—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hess and little daughter, Lorene May, left this morning for their home at North Powder after visiting here for a short time with Mr. Hess' brother, H. L. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. Hess have been in Portland for the past six months, where Mr. Hess was receiving medical treatment. His spine was injured some time ago when he fell from the top of the building. He is now able to walk with the assistance of crutches. Their son, Clayton, preceded them to North Powder about a week ago and is now at the home of his grandmother in Union. They will visit at Union Sunday and he and his brother, Melvin, who has been making his home with his grandmother, will return to North Powder with them.

COMMISSION OPENS ROAD BIDS TODAY—(Continued from Page 1) paved highways will soon be total weeks. The commission agreed to have a survey at state expense made of the Glass Butte section of the Central Oregon highway in Harney county. It is some 12 miles long. It was also decided to cooperate with Harney county in reconstructing a part of the Central Oregon highway. The new location is north-east from Burns to Drewary.

Plan Shorter Route—The new route will be more than 11 miles shorter than the old way that went south towards Crane. The road from Burns to Crane has been built. The commission will request Harney county to take over the maintenance of this road, which was constructed to meet the old railroad at Crane.

The commission decided to take every possible action to preserve the standing timber along the old Oregon Trail through the Blue Mountains. A start had been made by the woodchoppers to cut this timber, and chairman Doby hopes to forestall further cutting.

Bids for the bridges were opened today: Over north fork of Alsea river on the Alsea highway in Benton county, six bids. Over Deschutes river on the Nichols Market road in Deschutes county, one bid. This is advertised for on behalf of the county court.

Reconstruction of bridge over John Day river on Columbia river highway in Gilliam county seven bids. Over Stout on Melama market road, three bids, and over Pudding river on county road near Mount Angel, seven bids, both in Marion county and both advertised on behalf of the Marion county court.

Patrolman's dwelling house and equipment shed at Meacham, five bids. State to help Wallawa. It was agreed to give $255 towards paving an intersection on the state highway in the town of Wallawa.

The request for the state to light the Rogue river bridge on the Pacific highway was declined.

WIDOW OF SLAIN MAN ARRESTED—(Continued from Page 1) The grand jury examined fifty witnesses and, despite the story of Mrs. Gibson took no action. Bishop Paul Matthews of the Episcopal diocese of New Jersey protested against "cruelly unjust indignities against Mrs. Hall." The widow was given a $500 annuity from the Episcopal pension fund. The slain minister and his wife occupied positions of social prominence in New Brunswick. The Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist, of which he was rector, is one of the wealthiest and most fashionable in New Brunswick. Mrs. Hall is said to be wealthy in her own right, and a few years prior to the murder, was reported to have inherited $1,700,000. They had no children.

WILL PUSH CASE—TRENTON, N. J., July 29 (AP)—Governor Moore today declared his intention of going through "a final" with the prosecution of Mrs. Florence Stevan Hall, who was arrested at Bensenville last night charged with the murder of her husband, the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall, and Mrs. Eleanor Hall, their step in his church.

been here for the past month at the home of her sister.

Return Home—Mrs. E. E. Tozier, who was called to the Grande Ronde valley where her sister, Myrtle Gest underwent an operation for acute appendicitis left for her home in Holix yesterday. Mrs. Gest is at the Hot Lake sanatorium and is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Visiting in City—Mrs. John McInna and son, of San Francisco, Cal., are visiting in the city with Mrs. Kate Floyd.

Have Baby Girl—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marks, of Island City, are the proud parents of a six and one-half pound baby girl, born to them July 25 at the Grande Ronde hospital. Mrs. Marks was formerly Miss Florence Briggs.

Guests at Dutton Home—Mr. and Mrs. J. Douglas McKay and son, Douglas, and daughter, Shirley, of Portland, are visiting in the city for a few days guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dutton. Mr. and Mrs. Dutton and their two children, Albert and Nancy, and Mrs. McKay and their two children drove to Wallawa lake today.

To Hot Lake this Morning—C. F. De Gagne went to Hot Lake this morning where he is being treated. Mr. De Gagne's home is in Winnipeg, Canada. He is staying here with relatives. He underwent an operation at Hot Lake about two weeks ago.

Visiting at Hot Lake—Mrs. Ellis Fuller and baby and Mrs. Delbert Fuller and baby went to Hot Lake on this morning's train and are visiting there today with Mrs. H. L. Winn, who makes her home at Hot Lake.

Home from Spokane—Mrs. J. P. Morley and little daughter, Edith Marie, returned to their home in La Grande this morning after visiting at Spokane, Wash., with Mrs. Morley's mother.

Home to Baker—Mrs. C. W. Sheppard was in the city this morning from Baker. She came down to consult a doctor here, and returned home on train No. 24.

Home from Summer School—J. E. Mills drove to Pendleton last night to accompany Mrs. Mills home to Cove. Mrs. Mills, who is a teacher, has been taking work at the summer school at Pendleton.

Licensed to Marry—A license to marry was issued from the clerk's office this morning to John Arthur Fields, of Elgin, and Laura Belle Thomas, of Wallawa.

To Baker this Morning—Miss Geneva Whitworth went to Baker on this morning's train.

Baker on this morning's train, where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Here this morning—W. C. Williams, resident state highway engineer of Baker, was in the city this morning on business.

Home from Baker—Mrs. Alice Vinson returned to her work in the state highway office here this morning after a week's visit with friends in Baker. Mrs. Vinson formerly lived at Baker and has many friends there. While there she spent a few days at the summer home of Mrs. William Pollman. She also made a trip over the Baker-Unity highway with Judge and Mrs. William Doby.

To attend commission meeting—Judge William Doby, chairman of the state highway commission, was in the city yesterday on his way to Portland for the regular meeting of the state highway commission today and tomorrow. A bid for the grading of the Unity-Herford section of the Baker-Unity highway, the last section of that highway not completed, will be let at this month's meeting.

Home to North Powder—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hess and little daughter, Lorene May, left this morning for their home at North Powder after visiting here for a short time with Mr. Hess' brother, H. L. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. Hess have been in Portland for the past six months, where Mr. Hess was receiving medical treatment. His spine was injured some time ago when he fell from the top of the building. He is now able to walk with the assistance of crutches. Their son, Clayton, preceded them to North Powder about a week ago and is now at the home of his grandmother in Union. They will visit at Union Sunday and he and his brother, Melvin, who has been making his home with his grandmother, will return to North Powder with them.

COMMISSION OPENS ROAD BIDS TODAY—(Continued from Page 1) paved highways will soon be total weeks. The commission agreed to have a survey at state expense made of the Glass Butte section of the Central Oregon highway in Harney county. It is some 12 miles long. It was also decided to cooperate with Harney county in reconstructing a part of the Central Oregon highway. The new location is north-east from Burns to Drewary.

Plan Shorter Route—The new route will be more than 11 miles shorter than the old way that went south towards Crane. The road from Burns to Crane has been built. The commission will request Harney county to take over the maintenance of this road, which was constructed to meet the old railroad at Crane.

The commission decided to take every possible action to preserve the standing timber along the old Oregon Trail through the Blue Mountains. A start had been made by the woodchoppers to cut this timber, and chairman Doby hopes to forestall further cutting.

Bids for the bridges were opened today: Over north fork of Alsea river on the Alsea highway in Benton county, six bids. Over Deschutes river on the Nichols Market road in Deschutes county, one bid. This is advertised for on behalf of the county court.

Reconstruction of bridge over John Day river on Columbia river highway in Gilliam county seven bids. Over Stout on Melama market road, three bids, and over Pudding river on county road near Mount Angel, seven bids, both in Marion county and both advertised on behalf of the Marion county court.

Patrolman's dwelling house and equipment shed at Meacham, five bids. State to help Wallawa. It was agreed to give $255 towards paving an intersection on the state highway in the town of Wallawa.

The request for the state to light the Rogue river bridge on the Pacific highway was declined.

WIDOW OF SLAIN MAN ARRESTED—(Continued from Page 1) The grand jury examined fifty witnesses and, despite the story of Mrs. Gibson took no action. Bishop Paul Matthews of the Episcopal diocese of New Jersey protested against "cruelly unjust indignities against Mrs. Hall." The widow was given a $500 annuity from the Episcopal pension fund. The slain minister and his wife occupied positions of social prominence in New Brunswick. The Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist, of which he was rector, is one of the wealthiest and most fashionable in New Brunswick. Mrs. Hall is said to be wealthy in her own right, and a few years prior to the murder, was reported to have inherited $1,700,000. They had no children.

WILL PUSH CASE—TRENTON, N. J., July 29 (AP)—Governor Moore today declared his intention of going through "a final" with the prosecution of Mrs. Florence Stevan Hall, who was arrested at Bensenville last night charged with the murder of her husband, the Rev. Dr. Edward Wheeler Hall, and Mrs. Eleanor Hall, their step in his church.

GIRLS' MORALS ARE ASSAILED

TIA JUANA, J. C. Mexico, July 29 (AP)—The character of Clyde and Audrey Petect was assailed here today in a statement by Jose Kelly, appointed at the request of the Mexican federation of labor to investigate the so-called "beaus" articles of the two girls and their parents in San Diego, which was read to the jury in the trial of former Chief of Police Zenaldo Llanos of Tia Juana and three other men.

Kelly declared in the statement that his investigation disclosed the "Petect girls were very 'loose' in their moral stands when the family lived in Kansas City, Mo., Los Angeles, and San Diego, Cal. The two girls charged they were drugged and attacked by Llanos, Luis Amador, saloon keeper, and Refulo Alvarez, bartender, here on February 3, following which the Petect family committed suicide supposedly from shame at their alleged experiences.

TO CALL FOR BIDS ON SEWER—(Continued from Page 1) this evening at eight o'clock in the city hall. The purpose of the meeting is to consider a proposition to construct a cement sidewalk along the city along X avenue, east of Spruce street. The ditch was formerly known as the Sargent and Wright ditch. The city commission will meet with the company.

L. REYNOLDS FILES NEW COMPLAINT—(Continued from Page 1) age of said city of some 10,000 people to pass down into the said ditch from whence it was carried by gravity into the said tank. Because of the subsequent spread of typhoid fever to his customers, Reynolds states, he was ordered by both the state board of health and the county health officer to discontinue the delivery of milk.

Damages listed to the amount of $23,325.50 in the last supplemental complaint filed by Reynolds. The amount asked for when the suit was commenced Jan. 9, 1925, on the intervening complaints and Feb. 1 and April 7, 1925. The suit is expected to be ready for trial in September. H. L. Hess, who with H. J. Green, represents the plaintiff, said this morning. Bings & Wright will appear for the city of La Grande.

Doty Appeal Rejected by Military Tribunal—BIHRET, Syria, July 29 (AP)—The appeal of Bennett J. Doty, of Memphis, Tenn., from a sentence of eight years' imprisonment at hard labor for desertion from the French foreign legion, today was rejected unanimously by a higher military court.

Flames Spurt Through Four-Story Building—PORTLAND, Ore., July 29 (AP)—Fire which started at noon today in a four-story building with 60-foot frontage at Second and Washington street, swept quickly through the roof. Retail stores occupied the ground floor, and the Pacific Stationery and Printing company the second and third floors.

County Agents Will Meet Here Saturday—(Continued from Page 1) visit Cove and inspect the work being done by the boys' and girls' clubs in that section, and from there to the Union experiment station, where several different varieties of grain are on test. The program will be devoted to a discussion of problems in county agents work. This meeting will probably be held at the Union county agent's office here.

Beulah H. G. Avery, county agent here, and Mr. Bullard, leader of Corvallis, others present for the meeting will be C. A. Henderson, of Klaskan Falls; P. J. Porter, of Lakeview; C. W. Daugh, of The Dalles; Paul Carpenter, of Baker, and D. E. Hubbard, of Canyon City.

HOT LAKE PREPARING FOR MEDICS—(Continued from Page 1) published the Hermit School of Music. Though the appearance of the Hermit family on Wednesday evening's program will be limited to a short program, the opportunity to hear this Union county girl who has attained such fame, as well as the others of her family, is expected to attract large numbers. Madame Herbit is now in Union visiting from an operation which she recently underwent here.

Other Plans Made—Other plans for the entertainment of Dr. Phy's guests are making nothing into reality. Work had already started to transform the ball room and sun porch of the house into an exotic Japanese garden, gay with flowers. An orchestra will furnish music from 7:30 until 11:30 p. m., for in honor of the occasion, Dr. Phy is breaking his ten o'clock "closing" rule for sanatorium social affairs. The reception will be the final event on a crowded program of entertainment and study that has been arranged for the joint meeting of the Eastern Oregon Medical society and the state board of health with Dr. Phy president of both organizations.

A cow boy breakfast, to be served at the North Powder Lakes at ten o'clock, will be followed by a discussion of health problems and discoveries under the pines high on the mountain side. The party will return to the sanatorium for a banquet at which Dr. Phy will be host and the reception will open at 7:30 p. m. No invitations are being sent to the affair but a general invitation is extended to the public.

Baby Sweaters—Clever new designs in Pink, Blue, White and combination. Also new Buff Coat Sweaters for the year old. $1.15 To $2.50 health with Dr. Phy president of both organizations. A cow boy breakfast, to be served at the North Powder Lakes at ten o'clock, will be followed by a discussion of health problems and discoveries under the pines high on the mountain side. The party will return to the sanatorium for a banquet at which Dr. Phy will be host and the reception will open at 7:30 p. m. No invitations are being sent to the affair but a general invitation is extended to the public.

Art & Baby Shop—HEMSTITCHING STAMPING

Baby Sweaters—Clever new designs in Pink, Blue, White and combination. Also new Buff Coat Sweaters for the year old. $1.15 To $2.50

Art & Baby Shop—HEMSTITCHING STAMPING

Art & Baby Shop—HEMSTITCHING STAMPING

58 STORES
C. J. Breier Co.
IN THE WEST
Store No. 18
1101 Adams Ave., La Grande, Ore.

MEN'S TIES
Silk Four-in-Hand, 46 inches long, open ends, satin slip band, bar tacked, all-over designs, bright colors—priced low at—
69c

Remodeling Specials

While We Are Putting in a New Front, We Want to Emphasize the Values Always Found Here. Buying for Less, We Sell for Less—and These Low Prices Prove It.

SUITS

Just received, a large assortment of Men's and Young Men's Suits in pure woolsens, cassimere, and worsted, single and double breasted models, and the very latest cuts. Regular $35.00 value. New York Store price—

$23.85 to $26.95

SHOES

A large assortment of Men's Women's and Children's Shoes at the extremely low prices of—

$1.98, $2.98 and $3.98

In Men's Shoes there are J. P. Smith, Tilt, Selz and other high grade makes. In the Women's Shoes, C. & J., Dunn & McCarthy. These come in tan, blonde and patent leather.

NEW YORK STORE

"Destroyers of High Prices"
LOOK OVER OUR WANT ADS FOR BARGAINS

Irene's here!!

John McCormick Presents
COLLEEN MOORE
Irene
her greatest comedy achievement!

ÆSOP'S FABLES "Fly Time" with LLOYD HUGHES, GEORGE K. ARTHUR, CHARLIE MURRAY

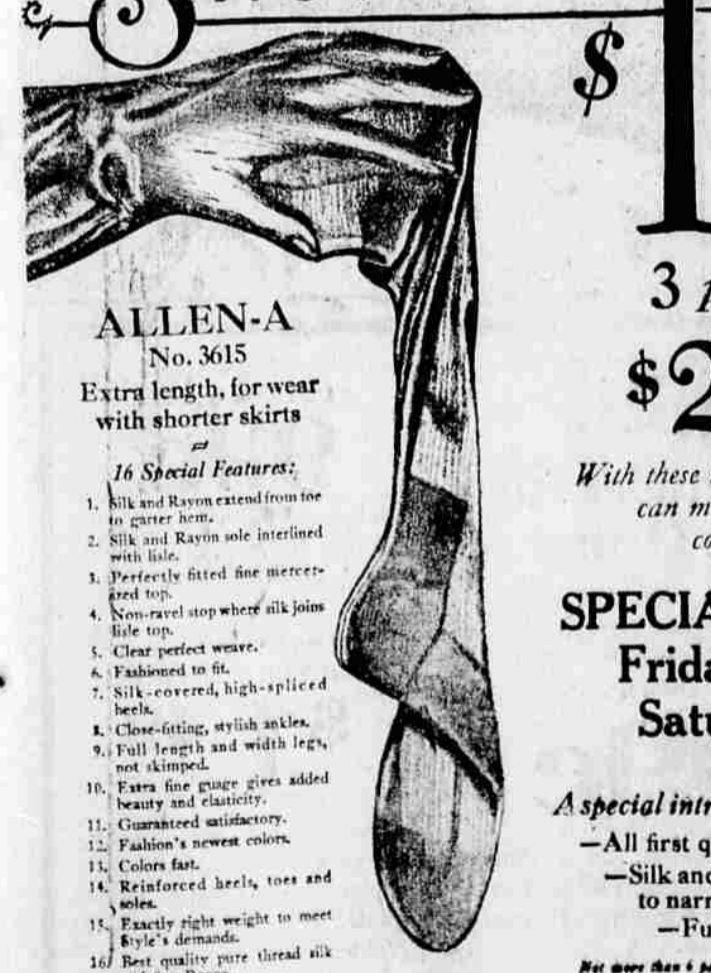

The world's most stylish laugh show with a fashion parade in Nature's own colors.

Today
FRIDAY And SATURDAY
Admission . 10c; Children . 10c

ARCADE

Introducing a New Style

Allen-A "Sheers"

Pure Chiffon Silk plus an invisible strand of Rayon —from toe to narrow garter hem.

$1 per pair
3 pairs $2.69

With these latest colors you can match every costume

SPECIAL SALE
Friday and Saturday

Aspecial introductory offering
—All first quality
—Silk and Rayon from toe to narrow garter hem
—Fully guaranteed

Not more than 6 pairs to each customer

LINT'S CLOTHIERY

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"