Cupid Active as Month Begins

With three weddings recorded on the third day of the month, August threatens to usurp June's place as the season of brides this year. One of the three ceremonies was solemnized before the altar of the First Methodist church last night. Another took place at the bride's home and the third at the residence of the officiating pastor.

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Miss Florence H. Webb and Donald J. Morrison, of Elgin, at 6 o'clock last evening at the Methodist Episcopal church. Dr. Henry W. Parker, the pastor, officiated at the ring service in the presence of many relatives and friends.

The bride was costumed in a suit of rosewood color, trimmed in gold.

Among those who attended the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb, parents of the bride; Mrs. John Webb, Marguerite, Marian and Lawrence Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb and daughter, Treva, Lavorne Webb and Charles Fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will have a trip through Washington, Oregon and California, accompanied by six of the relatives. They will make their home at Elgin after they return.

Miss Laura Belle Thomas and John Arthur Fields were united in marriage at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Henry W. Parker, pastor, officiated. Witnessing the ring ceremony were Charles E. Fields, father of the groom, and Henry Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields are well known in and around Elgin. They will make their home at Maxville for a time, where the groom is

College Dance Here Tonight

Baker, Pendleton and Union college circles will augment the attendance tonight at the dancing party of the University of Oregon students are giving at the ball room of the Elks' temple.

The dance is the only one that has been planned for the collegians and their friends here this summer, and has been anticipated with high hopes of a pleasurable time. It climaxes smaller parties that have entertained guests of the younger set, and at the same time benefits the fine arts building fund that the university students are collecting.

The program, which is entirely informal, is scheduled to begin at 9 o'clock, the Star Novelty orchestra furnishing the music. Various solos will add a touch of variety.

Union Stake Plans Frolic

The annual midsummer sociable and dance of the Union stake Sunday school will be held at the Union Ore. gymnasium Friday night with delegations expected to attend from Baker, La Grande, Imbler, Oya, Mt. Glen and other towns and communities included in the stake.

BREAKFAST—Berries, cereal, thin cream, French toast, sirup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of carrot soup, croquettes, tomato and cabbage salad, brown bread, apple tapioca pudding, lemonade.

DINNER—Fried chicken, rice loaf, creamed green beans, mobile spinach and hard cooked egg salad, whole wheat bread, peach cream with sponge cake, milk, coffee.

This dinner is planned without meat and is sure to appeal to the family on a hot summer evening. The meal is well balanced and nourishing.

Since a cream soup is suggested in the luncheon menu lemonade is planned to take the place of milk.

Apple Tapioca Pudding
Four tart apples, 5/8 cup sugar, 1-3 cup minute tapioca, 2 1/2 cups boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Add salt to boiling water and stir in tapioca. Cook in double boiler until tapioca is transparent. Add half the sugar. Pare apples, cut in halves and remove cores. Arrange in a buttered baking dish with the cut side up. Sprinkle with remaining sugar.

Put with bits of butter and sprinkle with cinnamon. Pour over prepared tapioca and bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender. Certain varieties of apples will cook in 20 minutes. Serve the pudding warm or with plain or whipped cream.

This is an excellent dessert for children, and is economical as well.

Ohio Churches Merge To Give All A Pastor

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 3 (AP)—Seventeen Protestant denominations in Ohio, banded together as the Ohio Council of Churches, have as their goal adequate church equipment with the services of a resident pastor for every inhabitant of the state.

Combined in the campaign of evangelism, are the following denominations: Brethren, Christian, Church of God, Congregational Church, Evangelical Church, Friends, Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant, Moravian, Presbyterian, Protestant Episcopal, Reformed in U. S. Salvation Army, United Brethren and United Presbyterian.

Governed By Assembly
The council is governed by an assembly made up of denominational delegates. Its work is financed in part by denominational appropriations, but more largely by gifts of individual contributing members. Its program reflects the judgment of the denominational delegates as to the activities in which the churches should cooperate.

Concerning adequate church establishment, the principles of unity declare:

"Every community with a population of 500 or more should have one competent, full-time, well-paid, resident pastor, and the efforts of both the community and the denominational officials should be directed toward bringing this about at the earliest moment."

"In small communities of less than 1,000 population, one well-equipped Protestant church with adequate residential pastoral leadership shall be considered sufficient to meet the needs. If additional workers are needed, the pastor might better have assistants for specialized departments."

Where over-churching conditions exist, the principles urge that the churches merge, or, if such a plan is believed unworkable, that a federated church be established. In the federated church, the affiliations with national and international denominations are maintained by individuals but worship and activities in the community are carried on together.

In a survey, the council found many situations of over-churching and under-churching, of duplication of effort, and of abandonment of churches where they were needed. There are 1,100 abandoned churches in the state, with representatives of nearly all denominations among them.

County Councils Advise To supplement its work, the
