OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

Brilliant Cast Appears in "The Night Ship"

When "The Night Ship," a tense, thrilling and dramatic story of adventure on land and sea, appears at the Sherry theater, a most brilliant acting array will portray the characters. This unusually fine film, directed by Henry McCarty, has such well known stars as Mary Carr, Robert Gordon, Margaret Fielding, Tom Santel, Charles Scollin, Willie Mackie, Charles Mack and Mary Frances McLean. "The Night Ship" is a story of a beautiful woman who thought the man she was engaged to was lost at sea. When she had given up all hope and married the man she did not like, her boyhood sweetheart returned. How it all turns out is wonderfully told in this superbly directed picture. A most colorful production, typical of the environment in which the action is laid, with thrilling gallop. "The Night Ship" is modern romance served up on the screen in the dramatic sweep demanded by exciting film fans of today. Comedy "Ukolele Sheikie."

Star to Show "Man in Saddle" Starring Hoot Gibson

"The Man in the Saddle," the latest Universal-Jewel production starring Hoot Gibson, will be the feature attraction here at the Star theater, three days starting Thursday, and the many fans of that days is to find a place, to put the ed treat in store for them, for this production has been heralded as one of the best he has ever made. The mixture of comedy and thrills which has made Gibson's pictures internationally popular are promised in large and pleasing doses in this production. Gibson is supported by an unusually large cast of well-known players. Ray Gray, one of the most popular of the screen's young actresses, plays the feminine lead opposite the star. Sally Long, formerly a well-known stage dancer, has an important role, as have Charles Hill, Malles, Emmett King, Clark Comstock, Yorke Sherwood, Duke T. Lee, William Dyer and others. The picture is based on an original playlet written by Charles A. Logan of the scenario staff of Universal Pictures Corporation, and was directed by Clifford S. Smith.

"Greater Glory" Will Play Here At Arcade

With the completion of "The Greater Glory," one of the most talked of pictures in Hollywood and New York is ready for release. This is the picture that June Mathis has been working with for more than a year. It has been looked at the Arcade theater here for a three day engagement starting Thursday. It is a story of Vienna during and after the war, but strange to say, there isn't a war episode, or scene in the feature. "I think the story will appeal to everybody," said Miss Mathis, "I have the greatest faith in it. It is my child, as it were. I lived with the tale from start to finish, and I feel that First National has something to be proud of in this picture." Among the principals who will be seen in "The Greater Glory" are Conway Tearle, Anna Q. Nilsson,

COVE PERSONALS

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. J. D. Mills, of Junction City, who has been here, the guest of Mrs. T. H. Conklin, for the past week, has gone to Milton to visit a sister. L. M. Laird was absent from his post in the meat market for two days this week because of illness. Miss Alice Edwards, executive secretary of the national home economics association, visited Cove on her way from visiting a sister at Junction City to her home in Washington D. C. She also visited a brother, Floyd Edwards, at Union. Mrs. J. E. Mills and Miss Grace Goyette, who have been attending another school in Pendleton, are at home again. The cherry harvest is practically ended here. The Royal Annual that were not ready to pick in the early part of the season have been sold to the Libby McNeil people and will be shipped immediately.

ELGIN PERSONALS

ELGIN, Ore. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Welch and daughters Florence and Lavinia, and Mr. and Mrs. William Welch are going to California Monday. Mr. and Mrs. John Gasson, of La Grande, were visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gasson, of Crickets Flat, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of La Grande, were recent visitors at the home of the Rydman brothers. Link Wood has purchased a new truck. Reed's mill has shut down because of a shortage of water.

Insurance Man Tells on Friend

"He suffered considerably from gas in stomach and colic attacks, and at times was very yellow. His doctors diagnosed his ailment as gall bladder trouble and that an operation was necessary. Some one persuaded him to try May's. Since taking it one year ago he tells me he has been able to eat anything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.
