AT THE THEATERS

Last Showing Tonight Of "King of Turf" At Sherrys

Stamped indelibly with the mark of an outstanding success, "King of the Turf," P. B. O.'s long-awaited equine epic which is now playing at the Sherry Theatre, approximately starts and ends with a horse race. Not content with one thrilling spectacle, surrounded with all the color and glorious tradition of the "Sport of Kings," this picture opens with a sensational race "on the flat" and closes with an even more sensational steeplechase, in which Kentucky Buck, the stalwart son of Lady Luck, who was injured and hounded in the opening race, brings the Fairfax colors down in front in a spine-tickling finish. The production is well peppered with comedy particularly the pleasing, human little touches connected with the regeneration processes which boost "Soup" Conley and "Red" Kelly, gunner guests at Fairfax Manor. The romantic note too, is touched in a little different key, the real hero of the story not appearing until much of the action has taken place.

Beautiful Girls Head Vaudeville Bill at Arcade

An elaborate vaudeville bill will appear at the Arcade Theatre, on Sunday, featuring the The Ramon Wendon Co., a trio of beautiful girls assisting Ramon Wendon. There is something about their style, training, experience, and class, only to be seen in foreign artists. Lynn & White, "The Harmonious Syncope," are two girls in harmony singing, and music. Serg. Chess A. Davis, "The Whistling Doughboy," is a young chap with a pleasing personality presenting a unique novelty program. Stutz Bros., "The Equilibrists (Marvels)," are two athletic young men who thought up a series of gymnastic stunts that are not only new, but thrilling.

Graustark Picture Coming to Sherrys Sunday

"Beverly of Graustark," coming to Sherrys Sunday for a three-day run is Marion Davies' best picture. "The star of 'Volando,' 'Little Old New York,' 'Janice Meredith,' 'Zander the Great,' 'Lights of Old Broadway,' and other big screen successes, has never appeared to better advantage than in this exceedingly popular tale of an American girl's adventures in royal court circles abroad.

George Barr McCutcheon is one of the most successful and popular novelists America has produced. "Beverly of Graustark" is a best-seller for years. Literally millions of people are familiar with the story. It was with his Graustark stories that McCutcheon established the current vogue for romantic stories dealing with mythical kingdoms abroad. "Beverly of Graustark" was among the first and best of these stories. It has played to big success on the stage, and holds an affectionate place in the memories of the thousands who viewed it behind the footlights. It was long popular in stock.

Composite Marion Davies in this production appears one of the screen's most popular leading men, Antonio Moreno, who boasts a tremendous following of his own, and is destined to increase it by the striking work which he has done in this film.

EXPERIENCE

We have a customer who placed a lump sum of money with a certain Building & Loan Co. who claim to pay a high rate of interest. He was obliged, after over six years, to withdraw his investment. To his great surprise and disappointment he found that the interest earned was less than he would have received had he placed it in our bank at 4%.
