Cannon Beach Barred To Speeding Autos

ASTORIA, Ore. Aug. 11. (AP)—Unrestrained speeding has been stopped by state traffic officers at Cannon beach as a result of recent fatal accidents there. Two state officers and a deputy sheriff patrolled the beach Sunday and made two arrests and warned scores of motorists. Cars were not permitted to run on the beach during the high tide period until such bathers had withdrawn.

United States may be a terrible country, but in Russia they don't wear any bathing suits at all.

Plumber Thought He Needed New Pipes

"My stomach and intestines were always full of gas and I often had severe colic attacks. The pain and soreness caused me to think I needed a new set of pipes. Since taking "Mayr's" all this has disappeared and my only trouble now is to make enough dough to buy all the food I'd like to eat." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. —Adv.

Colonel Clark Agrees To Attempt Phone Quiz

SALEM, Ore. Aug. 11. (AP). — Colonel A. E. Clark, of Portland, has agreed to act as counsel for Governor Pierce in making an investigation of rates of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in Oregon but whether a complaint will be filed against the company before the public service commission depends on the findings of Colonel Clark in the preliminary investigation.

"LADY GODIVA" JAILED

NEW YORK (AP) — Assumption that the motherhood of six children gave her nudity the chasteness of Lady Godiva went awry at Coney Island when Mrs. Tillie Goodman changed from Mother Hubbard to bathing suit in a circle of her offsprings. The disrobing act brought arrest by a policewoman, who refused to listen to pleas for release so that the matronly naiad might go home to care for her babies and cook for her husband. After a night in jail, a magistrate suspended sentence.

New Rex Beach Tale Coming To The Arcade

One of the most promising of the new crop of photoplays to be shown locally is "Padlocked," Paramount's powerful drama of contemporary American life, which makes its debut at the Arcade theater Thursday for a three day run.

This screen play not only boasts the authorship of Rex Beach, one of America's most gifted writers of fiction, but the flawless direction of Allan Dwan and the meritorious acting of Lois Moran, Louise Dresser and Noah Berry—three factors that make it well worth seeing.

Another strong point in the picture's favor is the unusual array of talent Director Dwan has assembled to support the featured players. Florence Turner, one of filmdom's old favorites, has returned after several years of retirement, to play the sympathetic role of the mother. Helen Jerome Eddy, admittedly one of the screen's outstanding character actresses, is ideal cast as a woman reformer. Allan Simpson, famous as the Arrow Collar model, has the hero part of the youthful society millionaire. Others in the impressive cast include Charles Lane, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Richard Arlen.

The story originally appeared in the Cosmopolitan Magazine as a serial and created nation-wide interest, because it was recognized as faithfully mirroring modern life and morals. Its theme deals with the conflict between the strong individualism of our growing youth and the narrow conventionalism of the older folk.

The action centers around a typical family, the father of which is a stern, Puritanical reformer, whose efforts at oppression and repression bring about his wife's accidental death and force his daughter to run away from home. The girl seeks a career on Broadway and becomes a dancer in a fashionable cabaret patronized by the wealthy society set. Dramatic complications pile up with startling rapidity, but eventually love and happiness triumph.

Mix and His Stunts Featured In "Best Bad Man"

Given a thrilling story and surrounded by an excellent cast, Tom Mix will open a three days' run at the Star theater tomorrow Thursday, when he presents the Fox film version of Max Brand's gripping narrative, "The Best Bad Man." The story was directed by J. G. Blystone from a scenario prepared by Lillian Hayward. The action opens in New Orleans, but quickly shifts to the West.

Clara Bow, playing opposite Tom Mix, experiences some of the most hazardous moments of her screen career, but the little beauty never falters—even in the face of genuine danger when thousands of gallons of water pour over her frail body as a huge dam gives way. Other members of the cast who have hair-raising experiences are Judy King, Paul Panzer, Cyril Chadwick, Tom Wilson, Frank Beal, Tom Kennedy and Buster Gardner.

Tony, fighting against odds that seem insurmountable, refuses to abandon his master as a crucial moment in the action and finally performs a rescue that fairly lifts the spectator out of his seat. Subtle comedy touches by Tom Wilson add greatly to the enjoyment of this appealing story.

Blystone, who has directed a number of the modern Buffalo Bill's most thrilling western pictures, has done himself proud in the selection of locations for "The Best Bad Man." From a photographic standpoint, the production baffles description. Many of the exteriors were filmed in the section of California made famous by Bret Harte.

"Three Wise Crooks" Showing at Sherrys Today

Imbued with charming contrast, some truly powerful moments of melodrama, and the most amusing comedy relief ever seen in a crook drama, "Three Wise Crooks", Evelyn Brent's most recent production for F. B. O. at Sherrys, John Brownell and Fred Myton wrote the story, and it fits the star like the proverbial glove; which is only natural since they intended it for Miss Brent exclusively. It is as full of reality "as an encyclopedia," and as soothing as a visit to the old home town. The plot revolves about the transplanting of the little parts, including Dolly Duvane (Miss Brent) from their swift and not too lawful pace in a large city to the quiet sweetness of a little country community, where everything from the new-mown hay to the cow which would not "sit down on a pail" to be milked causes the "City slickers" amusement. Eventually their scorn turns to admiration, and largely through the instrumentality of a charming little old lady that Dolly has befriended, they are restored to the good graces of society. This brief outline gives but a poor idea of the charm and thrill with which the story is invested, and Director F. Harmon Weight has caught it on the screen brilliantly.

Comedy showing "Heavy Love."

Storm in Florida. Damage is estimated at $6,000,000. Must have blown a limb off a tree.

COP GETS SORE

NEW YORK (AP). — Don't make mocking remarks over the marksmanship of a New York policeman unless you desire a ride in the patrol wagon. A woman asked a bluecoat who took six shots to destroy an injured animal whether he was using a toy pistol. She was taken by the irate guardian of the law to a police but finally released when fellow officers interceded.
