Carnation Club Is Entertained

The Carnation club of the Degree of Honor met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Williams last evening with Mrs. Clark Webb as assistant hostess. A lovely color scheme of lavender and yellow was carried out to the minutest detail throughout the evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of golden glow and butterfly bush flowers.

As each guest entered she was given a favor of a yellow or lavender butterfly head band with score card to match.

After a short business meeting five tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. E. M. Keown won high score, Mrs. Jack Hill second and Mrs. Nolan Skiff the consolation prize. Mrs. Art Sanford received the guest prize.

Mrs. Verne Almsworth, Mrs. Eugene Miller and Mrs. Art Sanford were guests at the party. Mrs. Van Hassel and her daughter, Katrina, of New York city, impersonated by Mr. Williams and Mr. Webb, were also present. They caused much merriment by their comical makeup and unexpected arrival.

At midnight a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be Friday, September 10, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wate, with Mrs. W. D. Warner assisting as hostess.

W. R. C. Honors Pastor and Wife

Honoring the Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Jones, who will leave La Grande soon to make their home in Portland the members of Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps, No. 27 entertained at a farewell surprise party last evening.

About 20 persons gathered at the Jones home on Sixth street at 8 o'clock where a pleasant evening was spent visiting. Singing of several familiar songs was a part of the evening's program. At an appropriate hour several members of the relief corps served refreshments.

Mrs. Jones, who is senior vice president of the relief corps, was presented with several lovely gifts as a token of remembrance by the corps members.

The Rev. Mr. Jones plans to leave La Grande next week for Portland where he has accepted a pulpit at Montavilla. Mrs. Jones and his family will join him there early in September.

Cove (Special)—A wedding of much interest to friends here, which took place July 29, when E. H. Long, of Cove, and Mrs. Peggy Wender, of Tyra, Kansas, were united in marriage, became known here this week. The bridegroom has been a resident of Cove for several years and has reached the age of 75 years. Among his descendants he has one granddaughter and three great grandchildren. The bride is 55 and also has children and grandchildren.

She came here from Kansas for the wedding, accompanied by her daughter and several friends. Mr. and Mrs. Long will make their home at Cove.

Cove (Special)—Mrs. Joan Stevens Kern, of Portland, visited friends at Cove for a few hours Wednesday. Mrs. Kern is visiting friends at Pendleton for a short time and came to Cove with a party.

of women from that city. Mrs. Fred Steiner, of Pendleton, was one of the party.

Mrs. Kern at one time made her home at Cove. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Stevens, who lived here for many years.

Cove (Special)—Mrs. J. E. Mills delightfully entertained the members of the Ladies' Guild Thursday afternoon at her home east of town. The rooms were prettily decorated with bouquets of the season's flowers, sweetpeas predominating.

Five hundred was played during the afternoon with Mrs. T. H. Conklin winning high score. Refreshments were served after the game.

The women present were: Mrs. R. J. Barker, Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mrs. T. C. Heston, Mrs. H. Daniel, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. Edna Conklin, Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mrs. C. Herbich, Mrs. C. E. Lawson, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. William Hallmark, Mrs. L. J. Lay, Mrs. William Hradner, Mrs. Abel Reynolds, Miss Helen Reynolds, Mrs. L. M. Laird, Miss Doris Laird, and Miss Clarice Conklin.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Earles hall. All members are requested to be present as final arrangements will be made for the convention to be held here in September. Refreshments will be served.

Sister Mary Says:

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, scrambled eggs, rice, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed spinach with broiled tomatoes, Graham bread, frozen fruit salad, toast, crackers, milk, tea.

DINNER—Breaded veal cutlets, scalloped potatoes and onions, buttered new beans, head lettuce with Russian dressing, tomato, cup, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The dish suggested in the luncheon menu is most attractive. The spinach is served in its cream sauce surrounded by a ring of broiled tomatoes. Hard-cooked eggs can be put through a ricer and sprinkled over the top of the spinach for an additional bit of color. It doesn't take a minute longer to make this appetizing combination dish than it does to "dish up" each vegetable separately and it actually saves a dish when time for dish-washing.

Frozen Fruit Salad.
One package Neufchatel cheese, 4 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1/2 cup seed white grapes, 1/2 cup shredded pineapple, 1/2 cup diced peaches, 1/2 cup heavy cream, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Work the cheese with a fork until smooth. Slowly add mayonnaise, blending thoroughly. Whip cream until firm and beat in lemon juice and salt. Combine with first mixture. Skin and seed grapes before measuring. Pare and dice peaches. Add fruit to dressing and turn into a mold. Pack in four parts ice and 1 part salt and let stand three or four hours. Remove from mold and cut in slices. Serve on crisp and chilled lettuce.

Wrap a dish towel wrung out of very hot water around the mold and the frozen mixture will slip out easily. (Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

EXTENSION GRANTED
SALEM, Ore., Aug. 14. (AP)—The public service commission issued a supplemental order today extending the period of suspension of proposed rates of the new southern Oregon Gas company on December 1, 1926. A previous order suspended the tariffs until September 1, pending an investigation of the propriety of the rates but the investigation cannot be completed in that time so the extension is ordered.

OPERATE ON DOG
MILL CITY, Ore., Aug. 14. (AP)—Fida, a small dog belonging to Miss Gwendolyn Johnson, was rushed to a hospital here from Gates because the animal in gnawing a bone imbedded its teeth so deeply that its jaws became stuck. A simple operation quickly relieved Fida.

Iron Worker Inherits $5,000,000

Last week John Cooper, his wife and their four children lived in a flat over a store in Kewanee, Ill., where Cooper worked as an iron worker. But this week he is worth $5,000,000. Cooper's grandmother, a wealthy Virginia landowner, died and left him that amount. The Coopers are shown above; below is the flat which they will soon leave for a 20-room mansion in the Shenandoah valley.

RELICS DOT SOUTH WEST

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 14. (AP)—The southwestern states, which half a century ago still were frontiers of the west, now show modern fronts flecked with carefully preserved mementos of the past.

Kansas, extends to the automobile tourist the Santa Fe trail, 550 of whose 775 miles lie in that state, bordered with scenic wonders and dating from prehistoric times. This old trail used by the Indians was marked in 1825 by order of President Monroe.

Historic Kansas Spots
Bare stone walls, without roof or floor, now stand in Fort Riley in memory of a government that tamed the outlaws of the prairies. This building was the seat of territorial authority from 1855 until Kansas was admitted as a state in 1861. Medicine Lodge, noted as the spot where the treaty with the Kiowa Indians was signed in 1867, also contains the home of Carrie Nation, prohibition leader.

In southern and western Missouri, lie the Ozarks. In this section lie the spots described by Harold Bell Wright and the cabins of many of the originals of the characters in "The Shepherd of the Hills."

The Land of Springs.
Mammoth Springs, said to be the largest in the world, is just over the Arkansas border in the Ozarks. The carbonic water registers 58 degrees the year round.

Hot Springs are the best known of the other Arkansas springs, their popularity dating from 1832 when Hot Springs national park was created.

Indians and Oil.
Oklahoma is now devoted to farming, with oil fields scattered here and there, and Indian reservations at frequent intervals. These reservations in the northern part of the state include those of the five civilized tribes.

Traveling south into Texas the tourist passes great cattle ranges and approaches numerous sites made famous by the Mexican wars.

Mexican War Reminders.
San Antonio contains the Alamo where Santa Anna's soldiers massacred an American force in the old church. Other missions with more peaceful histories which ante-date those in California still stand in this district. Near San Antonio also is the largest army post in the United States, and at Kelly and Brooks field half the air training of the army is done. A later chapter in the Mexican

M. I. A. Program Will Be Given Tomorrow Night

An interesting program has been prepared for tomorrow evening when the regular conjoint program of the Mutual Improvement Association will be given at the church. The M. I. A. furnishes a program of this kind once each month.

The lecture, which deals with the life of Joseph Smith, will be given by Miss Gladys Moten, Hullo Lyman, Miss Deloris Pearson and Howard Stoddard. R. T. Shepherd will sing a solo, Mrs. Howard Stoddard will give a reading, Miss Bessie Andrews and George Abbott will give a musical number and Mrs. Leal Russell and Mrs. Jack Hlatt will sing a duet.

The public is invited to attend the program.
